Weather Conditions.

A disturbance of moderate strength is central at sea off the north California const and the barometer is relatively high over the Rocky mountain and the Gulf states. A shallow low pressure area is central near Nova Scotia. Light rain has fallen in California as far south as San Diego, and light snow has occurred in Montana, North Dakota and the Lake region. It is much colder in the Red river valley of the north and decidedly warmer in southwestern Montana. Wyoming, Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and eastern Missouri. A heavy frost was reported at Shreveport, Louisiana, this morning and heavy frosts occurred generally in the north Pacific states.

The conditions are favorable for rain and warmer weather tonight in south-western Oregon. Rain will continue over Saturday in that section and spread to include northern and eastern Oregon and southern Idaho. In the northern and eastern districts a portion of the precipitation will be in the form of Soldiers Pass Through—Two special trains carrying soldiers and equipment passed through Portland on the Southern Pacific yesterday. The trains car-ried detachments from Fort Robinson, Neb., and Vancouver barracks, Wash on their way to San Francisco, where they will embark Monday for the Philippines. On the first train were two troops of the Eighth cavalry from Fort Robinson, made up of 128 enlisted men and six officers. Two hundred and seventy-two enlisted men and nine officers moved from Vancouver barracks last night and entrained for San Francisco. This detachment consisted of the headquarters of the first batallion and batteries A and B of the second field artillery. Lieutenant Bishop had charge of the movement. The two detachments are expected to stay in the Philippines for about two years.

Woman Pioneer Dies - Death has taken another pioneer woman of Oregon in Mrs. Harriet B. Opitz, who came to the state in 1862, making the trip by prairie schooner across the plains from gold and silver. Uncle Myer's Collateral Council Bluffs, Iowa. Mrs. Opits was Bank, 71 Sixth st., near Oak. born in Germany in 1844. She came to America with her parents in 1852, settling in St. Louis, Mo., where she remained until, in company with father and brother, she made the trip across the plains. In 1866 she was married in Portland to Ferdinand Opitz, who died in 1907. The surviving relatives living in Portland are M. Beno, a brother; two nephews, L. P. and V. E. Beno, and a niece, Mrs. W. W. Bollen.

Social Weeds of Portland-An interesting meeting was held at Central W. T. U. Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. L. F. Additon gave a talk on "Social Welfare," emphasizing social settlement work, of which there was said to be great need in this city; a girls' industrial home, a municipal lodging house and a coffee wagon. It was announced that Mrs. Silbaugh will speak Friday afternoon at the Y. W. C. A. Owing to the county institute, there will be no meeting of Central W. C. T. U. next Wednesday.

Quarter Block Sold-Through the agency of the H. P. Palmer-Jones company the quarter block at the southeast corner of Fourteenth and Flanders streets was sold yesterday afternoon to a local physician who is already heavily interested in realty in that section of the city. The property formerly belonged to the Corbett company and was sold for $32,500. It is the intention of the new owner to improve the property in a substantial way, which will probably take the form of a large Olympia Legislators in Haste May Spend Vast Amount of Money.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Olympia, Wash., March 3.—The wheels are grinding rapidly thee last days of the session and it was well on to midnight before the senate adjourned last night.

The house utilities commission bill was passed which gives the present railroad commission jurisdiction over the gas, electric light, telephone and telegraph companies and other public utilities. The bill fixes the salaries of the commissioners at $5000 per annum and states that H. A. Fairchild, J. C. Lawrence and Jesse T. Jones are the railroad commissioners be appointed on the new commission. The military bill is made a special order for this evening in the senate and the employers' liability bill will be taken up Saturday

The row is on over the appropriations budget as the house has refused to concede to the senate amendments which increased the appropriations made by the house committee over $100,000. It is said that as the end draws near every faction will strain every effort for their pet measures and trading will begin which will result in appropriating a larger sum than has ever been spent by a previous legislature.

When the measure to abolish the land office and put the management of the public lands with the tax commission was reported out of committee the house well over itself in its eagerness for indefinite postponement and the bill was put to sleep by an almost unanimous

The house also refused to pass the senate measure making the office of insurance commissioner appointive instead of elective thus blasting another of the measures indorsed by Governor Hay to centralize power in the hands of the

The supreme court this morning handed down an opinion to the effect that the city of Spokane can adopt a new charter to place the management of municipal affairs under a commission form of government. The opinion sustains the commission and the election of the commission will be held in Spo kane next Tuesday. The Spokane commission charter differs from the Tacoms

Heretofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaking company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embolming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $25 to $75 on each funeral.
