

ALASKAN BANKER TURNS OVER ALL TO HIS CREDITORS

Places $1,500,000 in Trust to Pay Depositors of Defunct Bank of Which He Was the President.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Fairbanks, Alaska, March 6.—E. T. Barnett, former president of the defunct Washington Alaska bank has turned over to a committee of depositors, placing in their hands the means of restoring the institution to a solvent condition and of satisfying dollar for dollar the outstanding claims of every depositor and other creditors.

The deeds, which Barnett has prepared for the formal binding of himself to the depositors, convey to the committee all his interests in the famous Mexican estate near Acapulco, town property in Fairbanks worth many thousands and gold mines of immense value on Dome and Vault creeks in this district. A valuation of $1,500,000 on the total of the securities would be more than conservative.

In pursuance of the announcement he made in Seattle before starting back to Fairbanks early in February, Barnett sought the aid of the federal court in the rehabilitation of the wrecked bank right after his arrival here.

Barnett's proposal has brought general rejoicing to the camp, nearly every resident of which was affected directly or indirectly by the tying up of the hundreds of thousands of deposits. The depositors who have considerable amounts involved have agreed to preference payments to wage earners and others of small means.

The terms of Barnett's deal are that his property be held in trust until all depositors are paid in full, with interest at the rate of 6 per cent, and without disturbance of the receivership.

Pateman Known at Spokane.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., March 6.—Edward Pateman, arrested Friday in Portland for larceny, worked the same game here on Dr. W. F. Dunlop. Dunlop states that Pateman appealed to him for help after a protracted spree. Dunlop bought him a suit of clothes and got him a room with a personal friend and gave him $40. Pateman became intoxicated twice later and was discharged, but before leaving he cleaned the place where he stayed of everything valuable in sight, says Dunlop.

BAKER THEATRE STOCK COMPANY DOES DOUBLE STUNT THIS WEEK

Members Not Needed in "The Wolf" Put on Farce at the Bungalow.

Manager George L. Baker surprised patrons of the Bungalow theatre yesterday afternoon by shifting the greater part of the Baker stock company over to the Bungalow for a week's engagement in "Brown's in Town." The shift was made possible from the fact that the play at the Baker this week is "The Wolf," which requires only five players.

Though used to seeing traveling companies this winter, the Bungalow visitors were not disappointed to see some of their favorite stock company members back at the old stamping ground.

As everybody knows, "Brown's in Town" is a farce labeled hilarious, and the label is no libel.

Of course, it is a little rare after these many, many years of participation in distant lands, but there is not a single laugh missing from the merry bundle tied together by Mary Swan, in spite of these wanderings afield. The company handles the part in just the manner Baker stock people are expected to.

Henry Stockbridge and Fay Balinter, Brenda Fowler and Earl Dwyre and John Burton and Neil Franzen and Lillian Andrews and William Wolbert—and, isn't that enough?

SHERIFF'S POSSE GUARDS MINE, AFTER THREATS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Cle Elum, Wash., March 6.—One hundred and thirty Italian and Slav miners who were discharged by the North-western Improvement company notified the sheriff that if an attempt was made to open the mines without them they would fight.

The company attempted to hold out a portion of the miners pay to apply to an accident fund. The workers protested, with the result that they were given their pay checks.

Sheriff B. H. German of Ellensburg brought three deputies with him and swore in an extra force here. His posse is guarding the mine shaft.

OVER $1,000,000 CLAIMS IN BANKRUPTCY CASE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Marshfield, Or., March 6.—Over $1,000,000 is the total amount of claims which have been filed by the attorney for creditors in the bankruptcy cases of the Coos Bay Rapid Transit company, the Belt Line railway and Major L. D. Kinney as an individual.

The first named case is now before a special master in this city, but the cases against the Belt Line and Major Kinney were recently started in the federal court. It will be necessary for the cases to go through the proceedings until it is ascertained against which of the three defendants the various liabilities stand.

Except for Unreal Howls, "The Wolf" Leaves Realistic Impression.

Dramatic and full of action, "The Wolf" made an auspicious start on its week's run at the Baker last night, when the audience encored the actors repeatedly, and at the end of the second act compelled them as a company and individually to respond to certain calls.

The play was well staged, though some of the scenery was peculiarly reminiscent of the "Girl of the Golden West" and "Pierre of the Plains," recent offerings of the playhouse.

The effect of the knife duel between Jules Beaubien and William McDonald was seriously marred by the supposed wolf howls by some person in the wings. While the two powerful figures awayed, barely discernible in the darkness, the "wolves" howled and the audience was convulsed in mirth when silence should have obtained. Nor could the spectators be blamed. The sounds resembled more the whines of hungry puppies than the yell of a hunting wolf pack.

The plot is set in the Canadian northwest and is the usual clover leaf scheme—two rivals, one good, one bad, and the heroine. It ends with the good man triumphant, and all good plays do end.

The only difference in plays of this character is the manner of development, and that "difference" is what makes or breaks the play. The "difference" is good in "The Wolf." The climax of each act is worked up properly, and if the work of the company last night may be considered a criterion, is handled splendidly.

FALLS FROM BUILDING; WIFE SUES SALOONMAN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Spokane, Wash., March 6.—Fifty-four thousand dollars damages is asked by Mrs. Millie Elmslie in an action filed in the Spokane county superior court on behalf of herself and eight minor children against "Jimmy" Durkin, a saloonkeeper, and the B. Schade Brewing company, both of Spokane, who, it is alleged, are responsible for the death of her husband. The complaint declares the defendants sold and supplied intoxicating liquors to William Elmslie, with the knowledge it was to be drunk under circumstances sufficient to lead them to believe such beer and whiskey would result in intoxication.

Elmslie, a workman, fell from the third story of a local beef packing plant under construction on November 4, 1910, and sustained a broken back and other injuries, which resulted in his death soon afterward. Durkin, who is a joint defendant, figured in the news several years ago, when he permitted a Baptist preacher to decorate the front windows of his saloon with wax figures and text matter showing the evil of the liquor traffic.

MAY BUILD NEW HOTEL IN FRISCO

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
San Francisco, March 6.—So impressed with the future of San Francisco is Miraly Geller, manager of the St. Regis hotel of New York, who is here studying hotel and travel conditions, that he has stated that he has definite plans in view for the construction of a new first class hotel in this city.

The statement came from Geller after he had recounted all the favorable conditions that make this the great tourist city that it is.

"I have been here for some days and I have been studying the situation," Geller said. "I cannot make a definite announcement but I am considering a certain proposition that will lead to the building of another big first class hotel in this city."

A number of sites were offered and although this is Geller's first visit to this city, he seemed thoroughly familiar with the topography of the town.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE PROMISED FOR VALE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vale, Or., March 6.—Through the granting of a franchise by the city council last evening Vale is to have a second telephone system within 60 days. The franchise was granted to H. S. Jackson, a new arrival in this city, whose petition was signed by 118 signatures of the business men and residents of the city. The new company is to be incorporated within the next few days and Mr. Johnson states that work will begin at once in this city.

The object of the new system is to bring all of the independent lines within the county into the county seat, while at present Ontario is the main central telephone station.

The Malheur Home Telephone company, which has been operating lines in Vale and vicinity for the past several years, is connected with the Bell long distance telephone lines, but does not connect with the independent lines of the county, and it is generally believed that independent telephone connections with very part of the county will benefit Vale to a greater extent on account of the help in securing much of the trade that is now going to Ontario.

FOUR INDICTMENTS BY GRAND JURY AT VALE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vale, Or., March 6.—Four indictments were returned Saturday by the grand jury, in a session in this city, true bills being placed on record against Tom Daley, L. Wagner and John Sullivan for stealing overcoats from the warehouse of the Malheur Mercantile company of Ontario. The three men pleaded guilty and will be sentenced on Tuesday by Circuit Judge Dalton Biggs.

A true bill was also returned against Harry DeMoss of Ontario on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. DeMoss will be tried on Monday. Charles Carlton of Watson was given his liberty as the grand jury failed to find a true bill against him. Carlton had been in the county jail for a few days on a charge of shooting at a man in the southern part of the county. As it was learned that the shot fired had been aimed high and had only been fired to scare his old enemy, no charge could be found against Carlton.

$194,000 Taxes for Malheur.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Vale, Or., March 6.—The assessment roll of Malheur county was turned over to Sheriff Kerrott the first of the month and shows that $194,000 is to be collected in taxes in this county this year. Of that amount $35,000 is for the road fund, $92,210 for state, county and school tax, and $32,200 for special city taxes. Of the special city taxes, the city of Vale with its levy of 10 mills will secure $200; Ontario with its tax levy of 12 mills will secure $210, and Nyssa, with a levy of 14 mills, $480.

Sues Railway for Damages.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., March 6.—Herman E. Breese, a brakeman on the Oregon & Southeastern railway, a short line running eastward from Cottage Grove 20 miles, has begun suit in the circuit court against the Wildwood Lumber company, operating a mill along the line of the railroad, for $5480 damages for alleged personal injuries. Breese says he was hanging to the side of a freight car which had been switched to a siding at the mill, when he was knocked off the car by a protruding pile of lumber at the mill dock. He says he fell to the ground and one of his legs was broken. He also received internal injuries, he says.

NEVADA MINER PAYS COURT TO HAWAIIAN LADY

Harry McMillan, Who Was Jilted by Edna Goodrich, May Be Stung by Bee of Love, Says Gossip.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
San Francisco, March 6.—If there were mines in Hawaii, gossip might not concern itself over the business that has taken Harry McMillan, Nevada miner and San Francisco society man, whom Edna Goodrich jilted for Nat Goodwin, to the sale of the mid-Pacific, but gossip gives the laugh to any talk of business and says that before many days straining ears may catch over the leagues of sea a whisper of romance that will couple the names of McMillan and the beautiful Princess Abigail Wahiakahuia Kawananakoa, widow of the late Prince David and heiress to a share of the Campbell millions.

Moved Healer Princess.

Shortly before the Junoesque Hawaiian left for her island home after a season of social activity at San Francisco McMillan gave up his apartments at the Palace and moved to the St. Francis, where the princess was staying. There he was seen much in her company.

Observant friends began to wonder if the man who was jilted by Edna Goodrich had been stung once again by the bee of love. Then the princess sailed for her home. The observant friends almost forgot all they had observed. Young McMillan was about the St. Francis as usual, apparently heart-whole and fancy free. But a few weeks ago he announced that business called him to Hawaii and was on the next steamer bound for Honolulu, whence come the tales that he is paying court to the princess.

Society Accepts Minor.

Honolulu society has accepted him frankly as the favored suitor of the island beauty and there is no thought of inviting Princess Abigail to a social gathering without inviting also the possible future Prince Consort Harry. He has become a notable figure in the exclusive Honolulu social set. He goes with the Princess to Waikiki beach, he motors with her over the grades of the Nuuanu Fall, and he rides with her along the tropical green slopes of the Tantalus mountains.

SOUTH BEND-RAYMOND TO GET PURE WATER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
South Bend, Wash., March 6.—A contract for nearly three miles of water pipe has just been awarded by the Raymond Water & Light company to the Pacific Tank & Pipe company. This pipe, when laid, will connect the water company's mains at Raymond with the fork of the Williams river where a supply of pure water sufficient to supply a large city will be tapped. A large force of men is now at work digging the necessary ditches for laying the pipe as fast as it arrives. It is the intention to eventually extend the system to this city, a distance of four miles, and the supply and the altitude are sufficient to furnish both cities with an ample supply of water for all purposes including fire protection.

WHITE SALMON TRAIN TO BECOME REALITY

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)

A locomotive with four cars and a five-ton capacity auto truck will constitute the rolling stock.

Boost for New County.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
White Salmon, Wash., March 6.—This place is burning red fire over the passage through the senate of the bill creating a new county out of the west end of Klickitat and a large delegation left for Olympia Saturday to boost the bill through the house. Goldendale is excited, claiming the bill is ruinous to them, and the citizens, too, are going to the capital en masse.

SPOKANE TO HOLD ELECTION TUESDAY

Commission Form of Government to Be Given Trial—93 Candidates in Field.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Spokane, March 6.—Spokane will hold its first election under the commission form of government tomorrow. Five commissioners are to be elected and there are 93 candidates in the field. The preferential system of balloting will obtain, and because of its intricacy and the fact that it is not understood thoroughly by many voters, it is expected that scores of ballots will be thrown out.

There are many tickets in the field the majority containing the names of 15 candidates. It is predicted that about 40 per cent of the candidates will poll no light a vote that they will practically be out of the running. Each voter has the right to cast five first choice votes, five second choice votes, and as many third choices as he desires. No candidate voted for on one choice may be voted for on another choice. The two highest will serve for four years and the next three for two years. The salary is $5000 annually.

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages, through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and otherwise acquired weaknesses. To reach the seat of stomach weakness and consequent digestive troubles, there is nothing so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, a glyceric compound, extracted from native medicinal roots—sold for over forty years with great satisfaction to all users. For Weak Stomach, Biliousness, Liver Complaint, Pain in the Stomach after eating, Heartburn, Bad Breath, Belching of food, Chronic Diarrhea and other Intestinal Derangements, the "Discovery" is a time-proven and most efficient remedy.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature
