

WILL MARRY GIRL WHO LOST FORTUNE

Philadelphia Man's Engagement to Beatrice Anita Turnbull Announced.

Beatrice Anita Turnbull.

Los Angeles, March 14.—An aftermath of the recent two months' bitter fight in the superior court here for Beatrice Anita Turnbull to establish her claims to a daughter's share in the $1,000,000 estate of the late E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin, the announcement of the engagement of Miss Turnbull to marry Warren G. Helma of Philadelphia has been made.

The announcement of the engagement, which followed a romantic courtship of only a few months, was made shortly before Miss Turnbull, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lillian A. Turnbull, and Helma, boarded a train for Boston. Helma was constantly at the side of the young girl during the trial of the will case and was very attentive. Before leaving Mrs. Turnbull stated that the defeat of her claims in the courts had not been a discouragement to either herself or her daughter. They will remain in Boston until the appeal from Judge Rives' decision is either affirmed or reversed by the state supreme court.

Little is known of Helma here. He is said to be of a prominent family in Philadelphia.

"T. R." M'GUIRE, AGED 8, COMES TO SEE MAYOR ABOUT SPRING BASEBALL

Everybody at the city hall thought it was too bad—for the mayor—that he didn't get a chance to see young Theodore Roosevelt McGuires, who called this morning at about 7:30 o'clock to interview the executive. Theodore Roosevelt McGuires said he was eight years old. He called to see the mayor to talk over that little matter of the kids playing "one-old-cat" in a vacant lot in the Sunnyside district. The trouble as he explained it, seemed to be that the lot was not large enough for a first class game with a dollar and a quarter ball, as they play it in the big leagues. He has been found necessary to place the fielders out in the street. "Spots" Murphy, the heavy sticker of the Sunnyside Scrubs, lammed out a three-bagger last week that "bounced off the cocoa of a guy that was walking down the street." Now this "guy" got the patrolman on the Sunnyside beat to order the future presidents of the United States off the street. So now almost anything over a single is a home run. "T. R." went to see the mayor because of the game on the lot Sunday for the Mount Tabor Holy Rollers beat the Sunnyside Scrubs 22 to 2. "Now is that fair?" appealed Theodore Roosevelt McGuires, "when we could 'ave beat 'em easy with some fielders?"

DAIRY COMMITTEE HAS BIG MISSION

Is Expected to Procure Harmony, Adjust Prices, Help Purity Campaign.

Three of the five members of the Commercial club dairy committee have been appointed. These represent the health authorities, the dealers and a "balancer," who is to be chairman. The committee members from the dairymen and the consumers have not yet been appointed. G. C. Chapman, manager of the Commercial club, said yesterday that as soon as the consumers and the dairymen had made their appointments the personnel of the entire committee would be announced.

The mission of the Commercial club committee is to procure a better understanding between all the classes interested or involved in Portland's struggle for a pure milk supply. Its first duty will be to devise a plan for harmony between the conflicting forces. A way must be found for inducing the dealers to pay more than 4 cents a quart for milk when they sell it for 10 cents, a profit of 150 per cent for delivery. A division of territory or routes so that dealers may deliver milk in the quickest and most economical way is also desired. The attitude of the health authorities and the consumers was expressed yesterday by an active member of the Consumers' league. "We have only one duty," she said. "That is to insist upon pure milk. We bear none of the dairymen's or dealers' responsibilities. As consumers it is our right to insist that we be properly served. We pay the cost, and without improvement is brought about by committee harmonization or by sheer refusal by consumers to accept any milk that is not known to be pure and healthful, we shall work only on the pure milk phase of the question. If the dairymen and dealers want to serve us clean milk and will honestly try, we will work with them, otherwise we will do as we have done, stand out against them all, if necessary."

"I believe the Commercial club started a good thing when we had the get-together dinner last Thursday evening," said Mr. Chapman. "We intend to follow the matter up. It cannot be denied that there has not been enough cooperation or understanding between all concerned. The dairy industry and its products affect all of us. Therefore we should work together and the Commercial club will certainly do all it can to promote the work-together idea." The names of the three members will be withheld for the present.

AEOLIAN COMPANY'S INJUNCTION MODIFIED

Attorney Miller Murdoch, representing Eilers Piano house, and Attorney W. C. Benbow, for the Aeolian company, appeared before Judge Wolverson in the United States court yesterday to seek a modification of the temporary injunction granted the Aeolian company last week restraining Eilers from selling any piano players or organ players or other instruments manufactured by the Aeolian company at less than the agreed price. According to Mr. Murdoch's statement to the court, several of the directors of the Eilers Piano house are directors in the Graves Music company and one other piano house in Portland, which was not mentioned. The injunction secured last week restrained not only Eilers, but all of Eilers' employees and officers from selling the Aeolian instruments at less than the price agreed upon. Judge Wolverson so modified the decree as not to allow any possible interference with the sales of these instruments in the other houses that share members of their boards of directors with Eilers. The temporary injunction secured by the Aeolian company was to prevent Eilers from selling their instruments at less than a price alleged to have been agreed upon between the Aeolian company and Eilers.

EDUCATED CHINAMAN IS ACCUSED OF FRAUD

Luke W. Ming, said to be a Chinese graduate of the University of California, was arrested in Portland yesterday morning at the request of the San Francisco chief of police, who charged him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Ming was connected with a restaurant in San Francisco, but after the dissolution of the partnership is said to have passed two bad checks at a bank. He was arrested at Twenty-third and Thurman streets at another Chinese restaurant and will be held pending the arrival of officials.

CANADIAN WARSHIP IS PRESENTED WITH PLATE

(United Press Leased Wire.) Victoria, B. C., March 14.—An interesting function took place on the quarterdeck of H. M. C. S. Rainbow, in Esquimaux harbor yesterday afternoon when Lieutenant Governor T. W. Paterson presented the handsome silver plate, the gift of the province of British Columbia, to the first warship of Canada to ply in the Pacific. The Rainbow was thronged with visitors and officers. Immediately following the presentation the Rainbow left for Comox, where she will spend three weeks in target practice.

DO YOU UNDERSTAND THIS?

That you can buy a five-acre orchard tract from the OREGON-WASHINGTON ORCHARD COMPANY for $112.50 cash. That they don't ask for another cent on the principal from you. That they will plant this tract in the desired fruit under the direction of the most experienced horticulturist and collect the balance of the purchase price by harvesting and marketing the fruit when it matures, deeding the tract to you when it pays for itself.

It costs us $100,000 to carry you. Does that sound as if we had confidence in our land? We give you the alternative of taking a deed or accepting $300 cash per acre from us. We believe it will be worth $1000 per acre.
