Pacific Coast Condensed Milk Company Announces Drop of 55c in Large Size and 35c in Five Cent Cans.

> local Wholesale Market. Sugar advanced 10c. Canned milk lower. Dressed hogs are lower. Dressed veal easier, Potato trade mixed. Eggs are higher.

Big banana shipment,

Poultry firm.

Canned milk prices received a bad bumping today when a cut of 35c to 55c a case was announced by one of the leading condenseries of the country.

The Pacific Coast Condensed Milk company, owners of the "Carnation," were the ones that threw down the gauntlet to other canned milk people. The decline is said to be due to two causes: the larger output of milk and the afforts to down competition.

The new price places the 10c size of "Carnation" at $3.60 and the 5c size at $3.50 per case. This is now the lowest price for first class canned milk on the market, while former quotations on that brand were the highest. The new prices show for various brands:

Carnation, per case. $3.60

Yellowband $2.75

Ploneer $3.85

Marigold $3.85

The cut in milk prices was first announced by the "Yellowband" people, who, although placing an advance of fic on individual cases, gave one case free with each 10 cases purchased. This deal was for only a limited quantity and has been called off.

EGGS ARE HIGHER

Twenty Cents Is Now General Market for Fresh Rauch.

Another advance is being quoted in the price of eggs locally. Sales of fresh local ranch are being made as high as 20c a dozen, although some dealers continue to offer in a limited way at 19c.

Withdrawals for storage are increas-

DRESSED HOGS LOWER

Market Down Again Owing to the Heavier Offerings.

Dressed hogs came forward to Front street so freely during the past 24 hours that receivers were forced to shade quotations in order to unload shade quotations in order to unlead promptly. Only the very best offerings brought lie even in a limited way and some were offered down to 10 ½ and slightly inferior stock sold at 10c. While dressed year is easier, prices show no changes.

FRESH SALMON SCARCE

Closing of Season Here Leaves Only Nominal Supply.

Holdings of fresh local salmon in the Portland wholesale market will very likely be cleaned up today as supplies are limited. The closing of the season slong the Willamette yesterday at noon left the trade here in a famished state but shipments can now be brought forbut shipments can now be brought for-ward from Sacramento. Emelt run continues heavy.

SEVEN CARS OF BANANAS

Two Extra Loads Ordered Owing to Recent Famine Here.

Seven cars of bananas were due to arrive in this market this afternoon from New Orleans. The special banana train left Ashland yesterday; fruit being reported in good condition. Two extra cars are on the train for this market; dealers ordering heavier cars. market; dealers ordering heavier owing to the famine of the past few weeks.

The entire market for sheep and lambs is firmer and sales have been made in all lines at an advance, although some of lines at an advance, although some of the sales are not made public by sell-

There was a heavy run of sheep and lambs in the yards today, but recent arrivals in that line have been so limited that holders of good stuff were able to squeeze the extra quarter out of buyers with little difficulty.

There was a liberal run of cattle in the pens today and that branch of the market is erratic. Sales are being made. market is erratic. Sales are being made at a wide range even for similar quality. Just why this is so not even the sellers are able to say.

Cattle Market Bearish.

With the wants of killers already over-supplied and with one of the leading packers a seller instead of a buyer, the cattle market is entirely void of improvement. One lot of steers that sold late yesterday afternoon at $6.35 are said to be fully as good as the lot that went at $6.50 during the previous 24 hours. Therefore the market really shows a decline of 15c.

There were no hows reported in the shows a decline of 15c.

There were no hors reported in the North Portland yards today, and therefore the quotations, as printed, may be considered nominal. There was a firmer tone for swine at middle west centers today. At South Omaha there was an advance of a dime, which put top quotations to $6.85. The landing price of Omaha hogs at Pacific northwest packing plants would therefore be $7.95. 	ool Wheat M

During 1910.

Cincinnati, Ohlo, March 16 .-Price Current says:

sugar this morning, the rise to take effect at once.

The advance is said to be due to the lack of product in the hands of the Federal company on the Pacific coast and a general agreement among the other refiners. While this is denied by sugar interests, the fact remains that recently the three refineries have been sending out the same sort of information regarding the market, while heretofore all ideas have been apart.

To some extent the advance in refined sugar here may be attributed to the better tone in the raw sugar market. Buying of sugar by fruit canners is likewise said to be responsible for an improvement in the refined situation along the coast. Wheat is generally in good condition but lowering temperatures are causing some apprehension, as the plant is unfavorable and dry cold winds will probably lower the prospects. Not much progress is being made in spring farm work.

New York, March 16.—Heavy selling pressure in Missouri Pacific on account of the continued Gould control, unsettled the stock market in gentral today. Closing was generally lower.

Missouri Pacific showed the greatest weakness and while the trading was not extensive, a loss of 1½ points was forced at the end of the day.

London was a seller of American securities today. The Mexican situation is viewed with more alarm there than in New York. London showed losses of 1½ to 1½ in the American group during the day.
