ORPHEUM AFFORDS GINGERY VARIETY

Burr McIntosh as a "Meller-drammer Feller" Works Off His War Energy.

By A. L.

Straight from the east to the Orpheum circuit comes Burr McIntosh, some time war correspondent, artist, writer and actor, in a melodramatic little skit of the west, "The Ranchman," with gun play, a villain and "the girl." There is atmosphere a-plenty, most realistic in spots, and action that moves along with relieving touches of comedy. Mr. McIntosh draws a big, hearty character picture with ease and fidelity. He is assisted by Miss Mary Moran, a distinct beauty, and Augustus Huse.

Mlle. Rianci Froelich, assisted by Ivan Bankoff, offers the most delightful and artistic number on the bill. Mlle. Froelich appears in a series of five dances, each differently costumed and each arranged with special scenery suiting the atmosphere. Young Bankoff is an agile and brilliant dancer, who pirouettes wonderfully. Mlle. Froelich is an exceedingly clever dancer, whose repertoire is thoroughly representative of terpsichorean art abroad. Her last dance, typical of the languorous Egyptian dances, was perhaps the most effective of the five, all of which bear the stamp of exceptional artistry.

A popular act is offered by Coakley, Hanvey and Dunlevy, who give condensed version of a good old minstrel show. There are jokes galore, all dear to the hearts of minstrel lovers, dancing and songs that get the applause.

Koners Brothers, hoop artists, bring to hand a good act which goes well. Their big score comes with their exceptionally clever diabolo work.

John Birch is back again with his unique act, in which he plays a hair-raising melodrama with hats and more than makes good with the audience.

The three Misses Weston are also back with their musical offering, made up of piano work, violin, cello, vocal and cornet. They won a generous recall and responded with a "difficult feat" of their own composition.

Russell and Devirne open the bill with a well mounted, well costumed and well executed contortion act.

DIVES INTO GLASS TANK AND INTELLECTUAL DOG PANTAGES' FEATURES

A splendid diving act by the Four Norrins; mystifying tricks by a small black and tan dog; some good singers and a comedy act, go to make up this week's bill at the Pantages.

The Norrins are really fine. The troupe, composed of two women and two men, perform a number of difficult diving feats from a spring board 20 feet above a glass water tank, and in addition do a number of entertaining stunts under water.

"Williams and Wright," billed as a "German soldier and military maid," open the show. They succeed in getting their lines over for a number of laughs, but some of their witticisms are old.

Bob Albright, "the man Melba," in his singing act is one of the evening's hits. His impersonations of various prominent songsters took well.

"Wise Mike, Foster's dog," ran a close second to the Four Norrins. The little animal had all guessing; telling the ages of persons by ringing a bell with her foot, and tolling off the number of spots on cards chosen from a full pack.

A continuous ripple of merriment marked the time consumed by Gilroy, Haines & Montgomery, in their singing skit, "The Good Ship Nancy Lee." The skit cannot be accused of having a plot, but none is necessary, as the members of the little company are natural fun makers.

AUSTRALIAN CIRCUIT SENDS LIVELY SKETCH TEAM TO THE LYRIC

The Lyric's new bill starts with a sketch by Mr. and Mrs. Meymott, a team from the Rickard circuit of Australia. It is full of life and English humor. Both are clever and received encores. After a short overture the Lyric Musical Comedy company continues the evening's performance in Dillon & King's version of "The Twins," a laugh producer. The musical numbers are excellent and are well received. Dillon and King as usual are the funmakers.

Ernest Van Pelt, late of the Max Dill company, is a new member with the company and cleverly portrayed the part of "Dr. Munion." Miss Hilda Graham, also a new face with the company, but not new to Portland audiences, was cast as the "doctor's wife." Frances Paon and Buster Williams rendered a couple of catchy song hits, assisted by the girlie chorus. This bill will run all week, with the popular chorus girls' contest on Friday night.

STOCKYARDS SHOW GIVES

west Livestock show made the dificit in hogs an argument for growing more of them in Oregon, so that the demand can be more readily supplied and the price lowered from its present altitude. Professor W. T. McDonald, from the Washington State college's department of animal husbandry, came today to act as judge of hogs, and Professor Carlyle, from the University of Idaho, to judge the sheep. The judgments are to be made later this afternoon and the awards made.

This was the second day of the Pacific Northwest Livestock show. The show ends tomorrow. Conspicuous in the attendance today were a number of Portland women who, from a specially constructed grand stand, looked admiringly upon the broad backs of the beeves and the fat hogs and long wooled sheep.

The judging today was of carload lots of livestock and single steers. J. L. Bush of Denver, representative of Clay, Robinson & Co., was the judge. From many parts of Oregon prominent cattlemen came to the show today, either to buy or exhibit. Among them were T. C. Oxman of Durkee, Baker Ball and George Thomas of Ontario, G. F. Bicknell and William Dubey of Baker, and Roe Grimes of The Dalles. W. O. Minor came from Heppner with a special exhibit of prize Shorthorn cattle. At the Denver livestock show Mr. Minor won first prize for a 2-year-old and a yearling bull and second prize for a cow and a yearling heifer. A specially good exhibit was made, too, by D. Dunn of Wasco, and Frank Brown of Carbon.

The information bureau instituted by the Union Meat company proved of particular value to visiting colonists. In it were obtainable all the facts concerning the livestock industry of the northwest, together with many other opportunities opening along similar lines.

The following awards were made this morning at the livestock show:

Three-year-old steers, carload lots:

First prize—S. H. Brooks, Antelope, Or.; Hereford steers.

Second prize—Brown & Carnahan, Baker, Or.; Shorthorn steers.

Third prize—E. T. Slayton, Prineville, Or.; Hereford steers.

Fourth prize—McKinnon, Sons & Chandler, Arlington, Or.; Hereford steers.

Two-year-old steers, carload lots:

First prize—McKinnon, Sons & Chandler, Arlington; Herefords.

Second prize—Goodale & Cafedy, Gazelle, Cal.; Shorthorns.

Third prize—Carter & Miller, Baker; Shorthorns.

Fourth prize—Bales & Jones, Wisdom, Mont.; Herefords.

Yearlings, carload lots:

First prize—Carter & Miller, baker, shorthorns.

3-year-old singles:

First prize—Eagleson & Sons, Eagle, Idaho; Aberdeen Angus heifers.

Second prize—E. W. Coles, Haines, Or.; shorthorn steer.

Third prize—Brown & Carnahan; shorthorn steer.

Fourth prize—J. C. Lonergan; shorthorn steer.

Best single 3-year-old heifer—Aberdeen Angus heifer, owner and bred by Eagleson & Son of Eagle, Idaho.

Best 2-year-old heifer — Shorthorn, owned by E. H. Cole of Haines, Or.

Reserved champion—Black Aberdeen Angus heifer, owned by Eagleson & Son of Eagle, Idaho.

Yearling singles:

First prize—W. O. Minor, Heppner, Or., Shorthorn steer.

Second prize—Brown and Carnahan, Baker, Or., Shorthorn steer.

Third prize—Frank Brown, Carlton, Or., Shorthorn heifer.

Fourth prize—Carter & Miller, Hereford steer.

The champion Hereford carload lot prize went to McKinnon, Sons & Chandler, of Arlington, Or.

WAR WOULD BE NEW TOPIC

try is in any danger from Japan," said Mr. Foraker. "If we do have a war it must be largely a naval encounter. Japan might take some of the Pacific coast cities, but she could never get over the mountains. But I wouldn't begin selling property because of it, as did some of the Atlantic City cottagers at the time of the Spanish war. How on earth do these people expect Japan to land 200,000 men on this coast? Do they know how many men a transport carries and how long it takes to steam from Japan to America?

"Wolf" Cry of Conservation.

"But as to the conservation matter, seriously I think the public has exaggerated it and has cried 'Wolf' because it has had nothing else to talk about. The danger of our coal supply being used up in the immediate future is pretty slight. They talk so much about Alaska's coal—West Virginia alone has more than Alaska and it will last for 200 years or more. Before it knows what it's about the government will have tied up all the coal land and someone will have invented something to take the place of coal—when the government will find a lot of useless black mineral on its hands. We are doing a lot of conserving for the benefit of our grandchildren, but it is making things hard for us. Most of us can't afford to have grandchildren because of this wholesale tying up of what should be cheap development resources."

Speaking of the political situation in Ohio Mr. Foraker said he believed Judson Harmon is the strongest candidate the Democrats could put up for the presidency. Woodrow Wilson he considers the other possibility and he is also a strong man. It is almost certain that Taft will be the Republican candidate and for that reason, he said, he thought Harmon would be considered the better man to oppose him.

Chances Hinge on Tariff.

As to the Democratic chances for victory at the next election, Mr. Foraker said he thought they depended largely upon what sort of a tariff bill the Democrats pass at the next session of congress.

"The Democrats are going to put up a tariff bill of their own, and probably will force its passage," said he. "Taft has committed himself to so many reductions that they can almost certainly count upon his signing it unless it is an out-and-out tariff-for-revenue-only law. If it is too radical it may frighten the 'interests,' which would bring about another financial flurry, perhaps, and thus lessen Democratic chances. But however it goes, I can't see where the insurgents in the Republican party and the radicals of the Democrats are going to get off at. It might be said that both Harmon and Wilson are 'corporation' men. Certainly the conservative part of the Democratic party is in control and no one of Bryan's stamp can be nominated. And with Taft as the certain nominee of the Republicans, I don't see whom the insurgents are going to support."

Mr. Foraker is traveling with P. E. Bradshaw of Butte. They have been spending a vacation in California, and are now homeward bound. The last time Mr. Foraker was in Portland was 16 years ago, and he was naturally astonished at the growth of Portland and of that part of the state that he passed through as well.

TRIAL MARRIAGES TABOOED

the price paid for the wife—was also eliminated and all that needed to be done was to tear up the marriage license. They have been proceeding on that theory with a vim that shocked the Klamath superintendent and that has resulted in a number of them being brought here.

The Indians and their squaws hung around the Morrison street front of the Federal building all morning and attracted a good deal of attention. The ladies are gaudily if not neatly attired and seemed much delighted with their glimpse of metropolitan life and little sobered by their chances of having to go to jail just because they lived with someone else's husband.

H. O. STICKNEY HOME WITH PROSPEROUS LOOK

H. O. Stickney, manager and part owner of the Railway Exchange building, after an absence of three months in the far south, returned yesterday and was in his office today opening a long accumulation of mail. Mr. Stickney went first to Arizona and spent a month at one of the big hotels near Phoenix. From there he went to Coronado Beach for January and February.

"The whole of Southern California is immensely prosperous," said Mr. Stickney today. "A great amount of building is going on in Los Angeles, San Diego and smaller towns. They have but two crops down there, the citrus and the tourist, and the harvesting of the tourist crop is now in full swing. Everybody seems to have plenty of money."

Mr. Stickney looks the picture of health, having gained over 20 pounds during his outing. He came up from San Diego to San Francisco with J. D. Spreckels on board the steam yacht Venitia, which Mr. Spreckels recently purchased from George W. Elkins, the Philadelphia traction magnate.

The number of wage earners in Michigan has increased from 81,930 in 1909 to 89,472 in 1910, while, according to the same statistics, there has been an average increase in wages from $1.99 to $2.04.

Dancer Called Home

Mme. Anna Pavlova, the sensational Russian toe dancer, and member of the imperial Ballet of St. Petersburg, who has suddenly been called to Russia by a special order of the Czar to testify in the graft charges against M. M. Dandre, who is believed to have squandered some of the millions he is accused of stealing from the government on presents for the dancseuse. Dandre held a prominent place in the company constructing the famous Manchurian railway, and is accused of participating in graft which amounted to almost a billion dollars.

A Physician's Report on Tuberculosis Medicine

"Have used Eckman's Alterative in several cases of tubercular glands of the neck, with excellent results every time. In one case it cost me $50, for the girl was put on it only until she could arrange to be operated, and in a short time an operation was not needed. I suppose your records are just as fine as of old. You know my faith in it."

Eckman's Altdrative is effective in other forms. Read what Mrs. Garvin says:—

Lima, Montana.

Gentlemen: "I have gained twenty-two pounds since last February and my baby is in perfect health. She is now four months old. I have been waiting since she was born to see how I would get along. I am now doing all my work, have been ever since she was four weeks old, and I am steadily gaining. I do not cough or raise anything at all. I believe my lung trouble cured."

(Signed Affivadit) Mrs. M. H. Garvin.

Note—Mrs. Garvin is the mother of seven children.

Eckman's Alterative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Affections. For sale by The Owl Drug Co., and other leading druggists. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to Eckman's Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence.

Famous "Pint of Cough Syrup" Recipe

No Better Remedy at any Price. Fully Guaranteed.

Make a plain syrup by mixing one pint of graulated sugar and ½ pint of warm water and stir for two minutes. Put 2½ ounces of pure Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup. This gives you a family supply of the best cough syrup at a saving of $2. It never spoils. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

The effectiveness of this simple remedy is surprising. It seems to take hold instantly, and will usually stop the most obstinate cough in 24 hours. It tones up the jaded appetite and is just laxative enough to be helpful in a cough and has a pleasing taste. Also excellent for bronchial trouble, throat tickle, sore lungs, and asthma, and an unequaled remedy for whooping cough.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup (or strained honey) is a prime favorite in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has been imitated, though never successful. If you try it, use only genuine Pinex, which is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this recipe. Some of the best known Portland druggists, such as Laue-Davis Drug Co. (distributors) and others, think so well of the above recipe that they guarantee it to give satisfaction or refund the purchase price.

FOR YOUR HAIR

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course it is understood that in none of these cases were the hair roots dead nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

When the roots of the hair are entirely dead and the pores of the scalp are glazed over, we do not believe that anything can restore hair growth.

When Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will do as above stated, it is not strange that we have such great faith in it and that we claim it will prevent baldness when used in time. It acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet necessity, is delicately perfumed and will not gum nor permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it.

We lend our endorsement to Rexall "93" Hair Tonic and sell it on this guarantee, because we believe it is the best hair tonic ever discovered. It comes in two sizes, prices 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain it only at the Owl Drug Co., Inc., corner 7th and Washington streets.
