

HOPE TO PREVENT REFERENDUM ON SCHOOL MONIES

Commercial Bodies Will Oppose Rumored Movement Against U. of O., O. A. C., Normal Maintenance Bills.

Cooperation of all the commercial organizations of Oregon has been invoked by the Salem board of trade to forestall what is called an abuse of the referendum in connection with the appropriations for the Oregon Agricultural college, the University of Oregon and the State Normal school.

Word has been received at the Portland Commercial club from time to time that property owners of Cottage Grove and McMinnville were planning to attack the educational appropriations by petitioning for a referendum. Filing a petition of this kind would tie up the appropriations until the next general election, temporarily wiping out the revenues of the three institutions, and forcing them to exist for nearly two years without authorized income.

A. F. Hofer, secretary of the Salem board of trade, writes:

"We feel sure that not only will the educational interests of Oregon be seriously injured if these appropriations are held up for two years, but also that the state will be brought into unenviable notoriety throughout the Union, and that we shall lose many good people who are at present looking toward Oregon as a future home. A condition of educational unrest in the next two years would certainly not prove attractive to possible immigrants, and they might easily be diverted to either Washington or California."

If the commercial clubs of Cottage Grove and McMinnville could be shown the dangers which these movements are bringing upon the state, they might be persuaded to use their influence with their fellow townsmen against the movements which have been inaugurated. I am inclined to think that at ready there is some wavering at McMinnville. The situation at Cottage Grove seems rather more threatening, as there apparently is a determined feeling there to invoke the referendum against the university.

JAPANESE SPY STORY DENIED AT PRESIDIO

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, March 21.—Branding as a "lie" a sensational report that two Japanese spies, one carrying a miniature camera concealed, had been arrested on forbidden ground at the Presidio, Colonel Wisner of the coast artillery declared today that the statements were based solely upon suspicion.

"The Japanese were not arrested," said Wisner. "The only unusual incident was that the officer of the day concluded it was best that I should see and talk with them. They told me they had lost their way and were allowed to go. They had no camera or any other object that would have aroused suspicion."

"They were not on forbidden ground, and the precaution taken of having them examined by the adjutant and myself arose from the recent discussions in the press of the war maneuvers."

DOROTHY ARNOLD NOW FOUND IN OKLAHOMA

(United Press Leased Wire.) Muskogee, Okla., March 21.—Confident that she is the much sought New York heiress, police have traced the New York authorities that Dorothy Arnold is in Muskogee. According to the police the girl admitted that she was Dorothy Arnold, after much questioning. The police say she was known here as Mrs. De Loach, and is with her husband, who gives his name as J. Winifred De Loach. He refuses to admit that his wife was Miss Arnold. A trunk in the possession of the couple had a letter "A" almost obliterated from it by grease. Neither had any money, and they are living with the secretary of the Muskogee Commercial club.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON MAY DROP ASSAULT CASE

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 21.—Although Booker T. Washington expected to appear this afternoon to prosecute Henry Ulrich, his assailant, it was rumored early today that there was a strong probability that the case would be settled out of court. Many of the friends of Dr. Washington believe that Ulrich was somewhat justified in suspecting Washington when he was seen loitering the new school laws enacted by the last legislature. He showed that the law doing away with county certificates was not intended to work increased burdens upon the teachers, but that its effect would be to make better teachers and, also, that any certificate will be honored in any county of the state.

MEDFORD WILL PRINT TON OF LITERATURE

Manager C. A. Malbough of the Medford Commercial club writes to Secretary C. C. Chapman of the Oregon Development league that Medford plans to get out 300,000 pieces of literature for the coming year's publicity campaign, much of which is to send to people whose inquiries for information about the state and its resources are received by the inquiry department of the Portland Commercial club. The literature will be sent only to those apparently interested in lines of agriculture or horticulture to which the country surrounding Medford is especially adapted.

Worms

"Cascarets are certainly fine. I gave a friend one when the doctor was treating him for cancer of the stomach. The next morning he passed four pieces of a tape worm. He then got a box and in three days he passed a tape-worm 48 feet long. It was Mr. Matt Freck, of Millersburg, Dauphin Co., Pa. I am quite a worker for Cascarets. I use them myself and find them beneficial for most any disease caused by impure blood." Chas. E. Condon, Lewistown, Pa. (Millin Co.)
