

ANTI-TREAT LAW HANGS IN BALANCE

Tacoma Women Expected to Confirm Mayor's Pet Measure.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Tacoma, Wash., March 21.—As a result of the election in progress here today, Tacoma may soon enjoy the distinction of being the only city in the country where it is an infraction of the law to buy a drink for a friend. If the ordinance, already passed by the city commission, is ratified by vote of the people, it is expected to prove a sad blow to the activities of the resourceful "moocher" whose habitat is the saloon and whose victim is the "easy mark."

Early indications today are that the vote on the anti-treat proposition will be close, although claims as to the outcome are widely divergent. Mayor Fawcett is supremely confident that his pet measure will carry, mainly by virtue of the favor with which it is regarded by the thousands of recently enfranchised women, who are flocking to the polling places eager to cast their first vote.

Lined up on the opposite side of the question are the liquor interests, represented by the Royal Arch, and the fight they have waged has been desperate and unceasing. Saloonists claim the strict enforcement of the no-treat ordinance would put scores of their places out of business. Mayor Fawcett declares he will surely enforce the law if it receives the endorsement of the people.

The result of the election admittedly hinges largely on the woman vote, and in view of their recent municipal house-cleaning achievement at Seattle, the liquor people here are viewing the matter in a dubious light.

Some unthinking persons regard the anti-treat measure as a joke. It is not. Any saloonkeeper will take oath that it is a serious matter, and will prove it by reading the ordinance.

"Upon conviction," the measure says, "the owner or agent of any saloon shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $100 for each offense."

It therefore behooves the purveyor of spirits to be on the alert to see that no man purchases at his bar more than one drink at a time, and that some one else doesn't drink it.

AD MEN ARE RALLYING FOR TONIGHT'S BENEFIT

"Japan and Her People" and their attitude toward the United States, is to be discussed by Burr McIntosh at the Ad club luncheon in the Richards at noon tomorrow. Mr. McIntosh is a seasoned oriental traveler and the opportunity to hear him tomorrow upon a subject of great present interest has been announced as an Ad club event extraordinary.

W. F. Woodward of Woodard, Clarke & Co. and J. K. Gill of the J. K. Gill company are also to address the Ad club tomorrow and altogether the program is one of the most interesting yet presented. W. L. Campbell is chairman of the day.

Tonight the admen are to have their benefit performance at the Baker theatre. They announce that nearly all the tickets have been sold to their friends and that they are sure of making enough to charter a private car in which to send representatives to the National Ad Club association when it meets in Spokane the week following the Rose Festival. In that same special car the admen of Portland expect to bring back the assurance that the national association will meet next year in Portland; consequently preparations for the event, including appropriate banners for the car, are being made.

After luncheon tomorrow the members of the club will go in a body to see the fat stock at D. O. Lively's show down at the Union stockyards. A special car is to carry the admen to and from the show and special attendants to call attention to particular points are to be provided.

FINDS SISTER AFTER 17 YEARS' SEPARATION

Los Angeles, March 21.—Guests at the Hotel Lankershim were shocked when they saw Henry MacGinn, another guest, plunge over the railing at the hotel telephone booth, seize the operator in his arms and kiss her violently several times. They recovered somewhat a moment later when he introduced the girl as his sister, from whom he had been separated 17 years and whom he had just located by accident.

MacGinn, with his parents, came west 17 years ago, leaving his sister, then 2 years old, with an aunt in Nina, Wis. The two never saw each other until MacGinn yesterday went to the booth and left a call.

"Name, please," said the operator. "Henry MacGinn," he replied. Explanations followed, and then the plunge.

YOUNG MAN TO WED RICH WIDOW, AGE 57

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 21.—That April will see a reversal of the usual May and December wedding was intimated today by friends of Mrs. Clifford Barney, who at 57 is reported to have accepted Christian D. Herrick, 26 years of age, of Washington.

Mrs. Barney, whose husband left her $500,000, has two daughters, Laura and Natalie, both artists. The Barneys achieved notoriety here recently when it was reported that the statue of a nude Diana, placed on the grounds of their Washington home, had been posed for by one of the Barney girls.

Prineville to Get New School. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Prineville, Or., March 21.—Plans have been selected for the new $26,000 school building for Prineville and the directors will advertise for bids within a few days.

The building will be of brick, with a concrete basement, and will contain nine class rooms with a capacity of 50 pupils each. Modern heating and ventilating systems will be installed and the building will be up to date in every way.

There are at present almost 300 pupils enrolled, and eight rooms are in use, all of which are crowded to the limit.

COL. ROOSEVELT IN LOS ANGELES

Crowds Gather About the Station to Greet the Ex-President.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, March 21.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt's arrival in California today was unostentatious. At an early hour today his train arrived at Needles, the first town in California. Roosevelt had been in bed since 10 o'clock, and a dozen or more railroad hands who were gathered on the platform contented themselves with gazing at his car windows.

Roosevelt arose early in order to be prepared to meet the Los Angeles reception committee, which met his train at San Bernardino. Long before the colonel's train was scheduled to arrive crowds began to gather.

The police took ample precautions to safeguard Roosevelt during his stay here. Owing to pressing business in Sacramento, Governor Johnson was unable to be present, as had been planned. A telegram expressing the governor's regrets was handed Roosevelt upon his arrival.

Colonel Roosevelt will be the guest of Arthur H. Fleming at Pasadena at 8 o'clock tonight. At 9 o'clock Roosevelt will deliver his lecture, "A Zoological Trip Through South Africa," at Throop institute. Colonel Roosevelt will remain in Pasadena tonight, returning to Los Angeles tomorrow morning.

"Dr. Miles' Nervine Raised Me From the Grave"—Mrs. Taylor

This is a strong statement to make, but it is exactly what Mrs. Thomas Taylor, of Blum, Texas, said in expressing her opinion of this remedy.

"Dr. Miles' Pectorative Nervine raised me from the grave and I have much confidence in it. I can never say enough for your grand medicine. If anyone had offered me $100.00 for the second bottle of Nervine that I used I would have said 'no indeed!'"

WARY CANDIDATES FILE PETITIONS

St. Johns Men Take No Risk of Primaries Being Found Defective.

Tomorrow is the last day for candidates at the St. Johns municipal election to get their names on the official ballot by petition. In spite of the many protestations of those responsible for the procedure at the recent primary election that it was carried out in proper form, every candidate whose name will appear on the ballot will have filed a petition whether he obtained the party nomination or not. The nominees say they want to take no chances, filing petitions as independent candidates, and using the party nomination as a recommendation for their candidature.

Unless an unexpected petition is filed at the eleventh hour, there will be no contest for mayor or city treasurer with K. C. Couch and W. Scott Kellogg, respectively. For city attorney, C. A. Esmon has filed a petition and O. J. Gatzmeyer is filing today. Three councilmen at large are to be elected and F. W. Valentine, Charles Brodeur and Frank Horstman have filed petitions and will be elected without opposition unless J. F. Hendricks enters the field instead of running only in his own ward. Two councilmen are to be chosen for the first ward, and Randolph Graden has already filed a petition, while A. A. Muck and J. W. Davis are circulating petitions. Four petitions bearing the names of J. F. Gillmore, Pascal Hill, Rudolph Markwart and A. T. Holden have already been filed for the two vacancies for councilmen from the Second ward, and W. E. Bassy will file before the time limit is reached.

The committee appointed by the council to make arrangements for the public library has decided to rent a room in the McChesney block at the monthly rate of $20 and is selecting the necessary furniture and fixtures. The librarian and the books will be supplied by the Library association of Portland, and it is understood that although the necessary volumes have been ordered they will not be ready for circulation until May 1 next.

The St. Johns really board held its regular weekly meeting yesterday afternoon in the office of the president, O. P. Wolcott. Mrs. Carley, a civic booster, made an address. A prospective settler wrote that the only information about St. Johns he could ob-

UNRULY SALOONMAN MUST GIVE UP LICENSE

The Liquor License Committee of the City Council Yesterday Afternoon Ordered Paul Sprawkins, Owner of a Saloon at Fourteenth and Pettygrove Streets, to Transfer his License to Another Man Within the Next Two Weeks or Have it Revoked.

The liquor license committee of the city council yesterday afternoon ordered Paul Sprawkins, owner of a saloon at Fourteenth and Pettygrove streets, to transfer his license to another man within the next two weeks or have it revoked. Councilman Lombard learned that Sprawkins had been arrested for selling liquor on Sundays, assaulting a police officer and for other offenses, and brought the matter to the attention of the committee.

What might have proved a serious accident was narrowly averted yesterday afternoon when a runaway horse drawing a Portland milk wagon knocked over Ernest Tyler, aged 15, the wheels of the wagon just missing his head. The boy was considerably shaken but was able to return home.

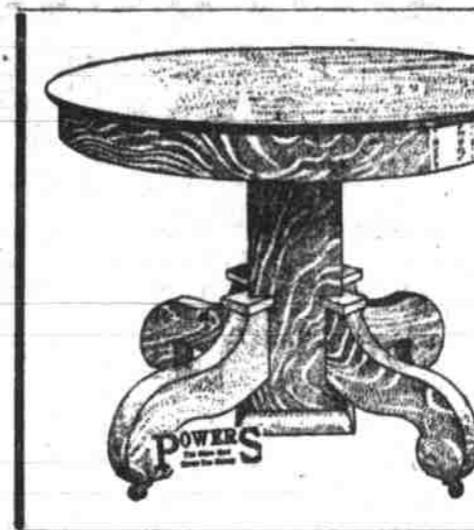

A boarding house belonging to W. C. Francis, who is now in California, caught fire this morning and sustained $200 damage. The property is in the same block as the Douglas planing mill and opposite the Tobes flouring mill.
