IN SOCIETY

The annual Kappa Sigma dance at Eugene this year was of unusual interest in that it was something of a house warming for the handsome new fraternity home of the Kappa Sigmas. The dance was held in the gymnasium and among those in the receiving line were President and Mrs. F. L. Camp, Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. J. V. Beach, Mrs. Homer Nelson, Mrs. Rockey Mason, Mrs. D. C. Green, Mrs. Irving M. Glenn, Mrs. Burton, Mrs. Wait and Mrs. Charles D. Latourette. The color scheme of the dance was yellow carried out with an abundance of jonquils, yellow bunting and pennants. Jonquils also decorated the fraternity house where supper was served following the dance. Among those who went down from Portland were Mrs. Zera Snow, Mrs. J. V. Beach, Mrs. Clark, Miss Delta Watson, Miss Ella Doble, Miss Winnifred Abbott, Miss Wilma Fiske, Miss Irma Moorhouse, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon C. Moore (Miss Jessie Hurley), Mr. and Mrs. Larkin Shell, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Stowe, Varnel Beach, Dudley Clark, John Latourette, Robin Nelson, Richard Hathaway, Edward Murray, John Hickson, Kenneth Fentop, Mr. Street, Robert McMurray and Ted Piper. A few of the other out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Homer Nelson, Miss Frances Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Rockey Mason, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Green, all of Albany, and Mrs. M. J. Latourette of Oregon City.

Mrs. William Esterbrook Jones returned Sunday to New York and on to her home in Boston, after a visit of some weeks with her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Duran, at Riverside.

Honolulu has recently passed through the joys of a kirmess which was a most successful affair. A number of prominent San Francisco women were largely responsible for its success. Mrs. Ross Kingsbury (Miss Josephine Elliott) was an active participant.

Among Portland guests registered at the Palace in San Francisco, yesterday, were Mrs. R. F. Prahl, Mrs. H. M. Haller and Mrs. R. F. Prahl.

Seven bridesmaids at a recent fashionable wedding walked in single file up the aisle of the church. All wore gowns of cream messaline over rainbow silk. Their short lace veils were caught with half wreaths of flowers. One wore moss rosebuds in her hair and carried a muff of the same blossoms. Next came a girl decked with sweet peas, violets, yellow roses, and orchids also bloomed in the piquant decoration of the brides attendants.

Cards have been received announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel Wickham to Edward L. Ritter of this city, formerly of Portland. The ceremony was performed March 10 in Salem, Or. Mr. and Mrs. Ritter will make their home in this city—Seattle Monday Times.

Crooks and Wood are in the railroad hospital at Los Angeles in a critical condition. Both engines were demolished and traffic was blocked for more than an hour.

R. B. Hayhurst, an electrician, started action this morning in the circuit court to recover $25,000 from Dr. J. G. Grim for mistreatment in attending a broken leg. Hayhurst alleges in his complaint the physician removed the plaster cast too soon, and advised him to walk.

A HEALTHY, HAPPY OLD AGE

May be promoted by those who gently cleanse the system, now and then, when in need of a laxative remedy, by taking a desertspoonful of the ever refreshing, wholesome and truly beneficial Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, which is the only family laxative generally approved by the most eminent physicians, because it acts in a natural, strengthening way and warms and tones up the internal organs without weakening them. It is equally beneficial for the very young and the middle aged, as it is always efficient and free from all harmful ingredients. To get its beneficial effects it is always necessary to buy the genuine, bearing the name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—plainly printed on the front of every package.

THE PASSING SHOW

By Darra More.
TIME: 9:15 Tuesday evening. Place: a Portland streetcar. Other data: The usual streetcar, the "first business men," the late shoppers who have tarried downtown for tea and muffins, the "working girls," and the straphangers. Men discovered with heads tucked low behind the evening papers, the "working girls" the same. The late shoppers have a worried look and are counting every second lost through stops, lest "hubby" or "father" reach home first. Straphangers, with papers in one hand and straps in the other, are clinging tenaciously to both. An air of absorption pervades.

Car stops. Breezy young feminine with "military" and few petticoats fluffs in. Business of looking at gray-haired man with injured air until gray-haired man reluctantly gives up seat. A pleased expression passes over her hand-painted countenance. She sits down like a conquering hero and looks over the field of faces in search of adventure. The dark-haired man on her left apparently appeals. She smiles divinely. The assailed man ducks behind paper. Breezy feminine digs under his elbow. Man frowns, but continues to be polite. Girl arranges anatomy so man cannot read paper. Man, distinctly angry, is about to speak, when large man with red tie, who has edged way from front of car, taps Breezy feminine on shoulder.

Man with Tie (in loud tones): "Hello, Carrie. Why haven't you been over lately? You're getting stuck up." Breezy Feminine (in high-pitched voice, which brings every head from behind its paper): "Hello, Jim, I'm awfully glad to see you. It is so stupid on this car. I'm coming over soon—I've been going out a lot lately. Waiters in town, you know. How's everybody?"

Man: "The baby has the measles and Clara has had her hands full. Amy

MINISTERS PROTEST AGAINST EXTRA HOUR

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., March 21.—A delegation of local ministers presented petitions to the city council last night bearing nearly 1000 names protesting against a change in the ordinance allowing seasons to remain open till 12 o'clock instead of 11 o'clock as at present. It was stated by a number of councilmen that the saloon keepers requested that the ordinance be killed as they did not want to open their places of business open till midnight. The petitions were ordered filed and the matter was not taken up.

A written request was made by Mrs. Lydia Miller for the return of $5 alleged overpaid as cemetery pay during the regime of City Clerk Judge Harris. Her receipt for $30 was attached to the request and she stated that she had afterwards learned that the price of the lots was $25. Councilmen Tunny said that there must have been some reason for charging $30 and moved that the matter be referred to the cemetery committee which was done.

A permit was granted the Star Brewery company to use Columbia and West Eighth streets on which to pile material to be used in the erection of a two-story brick building at the southeast corner of the intersection of the streets.

A protest against by eight property owners against the improvement of Fourteenth street west of Kauffman was presented and referred to the street committee.

Plans and specifications were adopted for the improvement of the St. Johns road as an estimated cost of $1,095.75.

Resolutions of intention were passed to improve the following streets: East Sixth from Main to reserve by hard surfacing at a cost of $11,088.53; Jackson from Main avenue to Connecticut at a cost of $3,944.86; Fifth from Hidden's brick yard to railroad at a cost of $10,530.33; East Fifteenth from Main to Reserve at a cost of $6,616.75; Tenth from Main to Reserve at a cost of $13,269.98. East Sixth and East Tenth are to be paved and the therads graded, graveled with cement walks and curbs.

The city attorney was instructed to proceed to open East Ninth street from East C to Reserve.

An ordinance providing for building permits and a fee of $1 for every $1000 of cost, was read for the third time and passed the council last night. A book is to be kept showing all buildings erected with their estimated cost.

EDWIN LORD SCALDED TO DEATH; TRUTH OUT

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, March 21.—After futile efforts to conceal them, the facts as to the death of the aged Edwin Lord, intimate friend of Andrew Carnegie, J. P. Morgan and John W. Gates, came out today. Lord was scalded to death in his rooms at the Republican club. He was found dying in his bathtub, with the hot water faucet turned on. SEEK FRAUD WHO HAS OBTAINED MONEY AS A JOURNAL COLLECTOR

Authorities in various counties have been asked to look for a man using the name of C. M. Ward, who has been posing as a representative of The Journal and collecting money from unsuspecting persons. The man was last heard from in Echo, Or. He signs his receipts "C. H. Jackson, by Ward." "Ward" is about five feet four inches in height, weighs 140 or 145 pounds, is of dark complexion, hatched faced, smooth shaven, and has dark brown hair and brown eyes. He is about 30 years old and wears a blue suit and black stiff hat.

Man: "Mary Nichols has lost her job. The boss said she smoked so many cigarettes that she couldn't take dictation. Have you noticed how nervous she is?" Breezy: "Oh, Mary's always been a little dippy. One of the boys in the insane asylum, you know. It's in the family."

Much more of the same brand. After what seemed to fellow passengers an interminable time, Breezy wheezes: "Here's my car. I don't know what I should have done if you hadn't been on this car. I get so lonesome. Goodby."

The few inmates of the car who had been able to stand the strain heaved sighs of relief, but inwardly cursed the fate that had denied them automobiles, that they might wend their way home in peace.

Intervention Prospects Dwindle.

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Antonio, Texas, March 21.—Chances for American intervention in Mexico are believed here today to be more remote than they have been in three weeks, army officers generally expressing the opinion that the probability of their seeing foreign service is not now great.

Members of the revolutionary junta here assert the insurgents are awaiting word from Mexican Finance Minister Limantour before making further moves. They assert their belief that America is preparing to recognize the insurrection against President Diaz and will then interfere diplomatically to restore peace.

General Murray on Duty on Coast.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, March 21.—Major General A. Murray, who recently ceased to act as chief of coast artillery, will soon be sent to take charge of the coast artillery department of California, according to unofficial report today. General Murray is temporarily assigned to command the department of the lakes. His knowledge of fortifications makes him invaluable on the seacoast, and it is believed he will proceed from California to the Panama canal zone when the fortifications there are ready for manning.

G. A. R. Veterans Offer to Serve.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Denver, Colo., March 21.—Advising American men and boys to keep away from the Mexican revolution, H. C. Converse of Glendora, Cal., who has just reached here from Juarez after a visit to his son at the jail there, declares that both the federal troops and the insurgents are hostile to Americans. Converse believes that his son Lawrence and Edwin Blatt of Pittsburg, confined on a charge of participating in the revolution, will be released in a few days.

Crossed in Love; Shoots Self.

Los Angeles, March 21.—The carelessness of T. Catterall in not securing a license to discharge firearms within the city limits before attempting to commit suicide, very nearly cost him his liberty. Judge Rose today imposed a term of 20 days in jail and then suspended sentence. Catterall shot himself through the right shoulder yesterday after a quarrel with a girl.

Improve Woodland Streets.

Woodland, Wash., March 21.—During the coming year Woodland will do considerable street work, the first of which will be done being the filling in and graveled of Davidson avenue from the depot to the river. The street will only be partially filled at the present and will leave enough to be surfaced with graded rock which will make of the street a macadamized thoroughfare that will last for a great many years.

I Am Stranded

My house failed. I am stranded here without a dollar. I must sell the contents of my ten big sample trunks to raise money to pay my motel bills and get back to New York. My house, which was one of the finest on Broadway, made nothing but men's high class clothing to sell from $15 to $25. There are 256 high grade custom tailored suits and 63 overcoats in the entire sample outfit and in order to raise sufficient cash with which to defray my expenses to New York I will sell these garments at 80 cents on the dollar of actual cost of production—a true confession. I have tried to sell the samples to merchants, but as they know of the predicament I was in the advantage they tried to take was outrageous. Therefore I decided to retail these high grade suits direct to the public at 50 cents on the dollar. Come, if only to look. You will profit by your trip. Following is the price. Read it carefully and come assured to get every suit as advertised. $15 suits and overcoats for $7.50; $20 suits and overcoats for $10; $25 suits and overcoats for $12.50. Sale begins today and will end Saturday night. Sale takes place in sample room, next to the Oregon hotel, 85 Seventh, between Stark and Oak streets.
