NORTHWESTERS IN HARD WORKOUT

Williams Dismisses Men When They Grow Weary; More Arrivals Registered.

Those youngsters who emerge from the strenuous training prescribed by Nick Williams, sound of mind and strong of limb, will be labeled "The Goods" and carried along with the club, for a spell at least.

Nick kept his men at work for five hours yesterday, and when they finished they were about as tired a looking lot as ever went off a training field. They chased flies and batted to the in and the outfield until they were leg and arm weary. And even after the usual hard batting, infield and outfield practice, they were not allowed to go in. Nick has made arrangements to play a practice game with George Orr's Columbia students, and the affair took place between 4 and 5 o'clock. Nick says he is going to keep up these twilight exhibition games until he can split his squad into two teams and have some real workouts, which will be about tomorrow.

Harris and Anderson Here.

The squad was increased this morning by the arrival of Catcher Harris from his home in Detroit, and Anderson, the infielder, on whom Toledo has strings. Pitcher Lanline is due here tomorrow or next day. "Babe" Hollis, the pitcher Nick secured from Sacramento; Outfielder Gloncke, Catcher Snooks, Outfielders Thompson, Morgan and Speas, and Pitcher Jesse Garrett and his bride arrived yesterday. It was not known here that Garrett had taken unto himself a wife in the Lone Star state last Christmas, and congratulations were showered upon the little giant when Billy Speas, who met them in Omaha, passed around the intelligence.

Garrett and Speas did not put on a uniform yesterday, while Gloncke pitched around the park for a spell and then went in. Snooks, who is a second edition of "Dutch" Armbruster, did the catching for the Williamsites in the exhibition game, and handled himself pretty well. By the way, the leaguers had an easy time with the collegians, in a four inning game.

Southern Work Haviest.

The veterans and the eastern arrivals were kept down yesterday, but Manager Nick put the Californians and those who have had a ball in their hands this spring before training, were put through some hard paces. Nick says he intends to let the youngsters go pretty early, for he doesn't want to show around upon the little giant when Billy Speas, who met them in Omaha, passed around the intelligence.

The grounds are so rough now that it is almost dangerous to get after hard-hit ground ball, but workmen have been leveling off the surface as rapidly as conditions will permit. In a week or so the field should be in good shape.

With Williams on first base, Casey had an easy position on second, Eddie Mensor at short and Bill Waters, whose face will be remembered by the fans who followed the 1906 Portland Beavers and the 1909 Tacoma Tigers, alternated at third with a little Californian, Clothier.

For a while in the infield practice Hollis set the spectators a-gossiping by his clever work, and they wondered why he didn't try out as a regular instead of a pitcher.

Fates, Allegarte and Hollis did the twisting in the game yesterday after noon. Yates is a good-looking pitcher, with a nice, free delivery and a "kidding" disposition, while Allegarte is a trifle small, but may have something up his sleeve to spring later on. Hollis also showed well on the mound.

Morgan, Thompson and Clothier looked well in the outfield, but of course no line can be gotten on their work for a few days.

Mundorf was not allowed to work hard yesterday, but what little he did do shows Williams that he is a fixture on the infield.

Buzukos Wins Match.

Roseburg, Or., March 28.—Before 500 people here last night Peter Buzukos, Portland lightweight wrestler, won from Emmett Hall, 145 pounds, of Oakland, Or., in two straight falls of 62 and 57 minutes respectively. Both were made with head scissors holds. It was Hall's first defeat and nearly $2000 changed hands.

Live Contenders Fight.

New York, March 28.—Two live contenders for the middleweight laurels of the late Stanley Ketchel, in the persons of Hugo Kelly of Chicago and Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh, will go 10 rounds here tonight before the Fairmount Athletic club. The men will meet at 155 pounds, and the winner probably will be matched with Montana Jack Sullivan.

Silverton Team Winner.

Silverton, Or., March 28.—Although quite late in the season for such sport, a very interesting game of basketball was played in this city last Saturday evening between the Monmouth girls and the girls of this place. Silverton fully maintained her old record of victories, holding the visitors down to a score of 3 to 12 in favor of the locals. A return game will be played at Monmouth Saturday evening of this week.

The Piedmont Stars and Montavilla Cubs lined up for the first game of the season Sunday with Piedmont coming out on the long end of a 11-4 score. Gravelle, formerly with the Villas, pitched a pretty game for Piedmont, and held his former teammates safe at all times. Garner and Gravelle, together with McFarland, who will captain the team, have strengthened the Piedmont Stars a great deal. Brown, last year's clever twirler, is again with the team, and will take his turn regularly in the box with Gravelle. Piedmont, with Brown pitching and Link catching, will lineup against the Popcorn Kings for the second game of the season next Sunday.

GROSS WINNER OF 6 DAY MARATHON

Two Racers Finish Long Event; James Gives Underwater Exhibition.

The six day Marathon race, which has been in progress at the Y. M. C. A. ended last night. Frank Gross captured last night's leg and the Marathon trophy. Gross covered a distance of 5515 yards during the six nights swim, while McDonald, the second swimmer, went 5490 yards. Myers, the third entrant, failed to appear last night. His distance for the five nights was 4475 yards.

The Y. M. C. A. as an association originally was to give the six day race, but on the night of the start when the association officials found that four swimmers would enter, they declared they would give no prizes and called the race off. However, the swimming club came forward and offered gold, silver and bronze medals for the first three swimmers.

Each swimmer in the race was required to swim 15 minutes without stopping each night. The longest distance covered in one swim was 950 yards, or 47 1/2 laps of the tank, made both on Tuesday and Saturday nights. The race was a handicap event and the time of all the swimmers was taken before the race. The swimmers handicapped according to the time made. Seymour Myers received a handicap of 10 laps of the tank every night of the swim and Pete McDonald in turn had two laps the best of Frank Gross, scratch, each night. The distance covered during the six nights by the swimmers follows: Gross, 3 miles and 187 yards; and Pete McDonald, 3 miles and 192 yards. Seymour Myers in five nights covered 2 1/2 miles and 35 yards.

Shortly after the finish of the six day race, Walter James, the crack underwater swimmer of the Seattle Athletic club, made an appearance and went through all the stunts commonly done by underwater swimmers. He ate several bananas under water. His longest stay under the surface was 1 minute and 40 seconds and the farthest distance he swam was three laps of the tank, or 150 feet. James also gave a fine exhibition of the breast stroke, of which he is a great exponent. An exhibition in fancy diving followed.

A short water polo game between the seniors terminated the program.

Two Pugs Are Afraid.

San Francisco, March 28.—Because Pat Bradley and Rufus Williams were each patently afraid of the other, a draw is the decision today after their scrap here last night. Williams nearly copped Bradley in the first. After that both kept away. Eddie Hanlon refereed.

SPORTS RUBAIYAT

(By Omar Phann.)
When Soft Winds blew All Things that slept to wake
How blithe was I the Winter's Sloth to shake!
How fain was I to boost for Gentle Spring—
Give her a jolly with a Garden Rake!
And fain was I to smite the vibrant String
Of my good Lute and lift my Voice and sing
Of All Outdoors and Garden Saws and Stuff—
And many a yorful vernal Gag to spring.
But of such Tommyrot there's soon
There comes the day you cast it like a Slough;
No more the Vernal Song; the Lute no more!
Tellwitt and with all that Bluebird Guff
While all I may be, or have been before,
Mals and runs down to this: "Say, What's the Score?"

HARRY FORBES MEETS CHAMPION PUG TONIGHT

Kenosha, Wis., March 28.—Whether Harry Forbes, the old time bantam crack pug, has really "come back" will be shown here tonight when he goes against Champion Johnny Coulon. The two boys will weigh in at 116 pounds at 6 o'clock. If Forbes gets as good as a draw he will go to England, where Hugh McIntosh has promised to pit him against Digger Stanley.

MT. ANGEL HORSE EXHIBIT SATURDAY

Much Rivalry Exists Between Marion Towns Over Championship Trophies.

Mount Angel, Or., March 28.—From all indications the third annual horse fair of the Mount Angel Horse Breeding association, which will be held here next Saturday, April 1, will be the greatest since this event was inaugurated. Interest is being manifested by all Marion county towns.

A big list of special prizes, which will be awarded besides the premiums, have been subscribed by the business houses of Mount Angel. First, second and third premiums will be awarded on all classes. St. Benedict's abbey this year contributes the sweepstake, a handsome and finely engraved silver cup. Much interest centers around this valuable trophy, as local breeders are determined they shall be spared the humiliation of having it carried away by a Salem man, as it was last year.

An elaborate program has been arranged for the day by the program committee, consisting of Mayor Schwab, Max Mattl and Lawrence Stupfel. The showing will begin promptly at 9 o'clock and will terminate in a grand parade at 3 p. m.

The Mount Angel band will provide music throughout the day. Governor West will address the assembled farmers after the parade, as also will Rev. Father Williams, superintendent of the large Benedictine farm, and considered an authority in that field, and by William H. Kaiser of Salem. A baseball game between the college and the town teams, and other amusements and sports will find places on the day's program.

The grand marshal of the day will be Charles Hartman, and the judges will be Frank Kroneberg, V. D. S., of Mount Angel; E. E. Chase, V. D. S., of Silverton, and John F. Daw, of Mount Angel. The officers of the Mount Angel Horse Breeders' association, under the auspices of which the show is being held, are Dr. J. E. Webb, president; John W. Ebner, vice president; G. D. Ebner, secretary; Joseph J. Keber, treasurer.

FANS FLOCKING TO SEE MORRIS FIGHT

Expected Twelve Thousand Will See White Hope Battle Today.

(United Press Issued Wire.)
Sapulpa, Okla., March 28.—Anxious to see whether Carl Morris is a real "white man's hope" or merely a "false alarm with a cracked bell," fight fans from all the southwest are flocking into Sapulpa today to witness the Oklahoma man's battle this afternoon with Mike Schrock of Cincinnati.

Schrock, while he is admitted to be far from a champion, is a rugged scrapper who is believed to be a strong enough "trial horse" to show how fast Morris can go. In their 15 rounds it is expected that it will be clearly demonstrated whether Morris can stand the gaff.

Fully 12,000 persons are expected to witness the fight, more than three quarters of that number of seats having been sold for the big arena, which was especially erected for the event. Morris is a heavy favorite in the betting. The fight is scheduled for 4 p. m.

BOTH SCRAPPERS ARE TROUBLED BY WEIGHT

San Francisco, March 28.—With Ad Wolgast at 129 1/2 and his opponent for Friday night's bout here, Anton Lagrave still sticking at 132, the two scrappers today are working to different ends. As the weight is 133, Wolgast is trying to build up and Lagrave has his nose on the grindstone to take off the superfluous meat. Wolgast is a strong favorite, for it is doubted if Lagrave can make the weight and be at his best.
