

MAYOR LACHMUND THREATENED WITH RECALL BY LEAGUE

Wm. Robinson, Head of Law Enforcers, Attacks Him Before Salem Council, Which Takes No Action, However.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—Threatening to start petitions for the recall of Mayor Louis Lachmund at once, unless the city council shall appoint a committee to investigate the mayor for his alleged misconduct of last Friday night in the bar of the Marion hotel, William Robinson, president of the Law Enforcement league of Salem, addressed the council in the presence of the mayor and many citizens last night. At the conclusion of Mr. Robinson's remarks the mayor arose and said he was perfectly willing that the council should appoint a committee to investigate him, but no action was taken.

Mr. Robinson, who is a retired minister, has been active in a crusade to purify Salem. He came to the council meeting accompanied by Rev. Davis Errett, pastor of the First Christian church of Salem. He asked that he be given the privilege of the floor and upon the request of one of the councilmen was tendered the privilege by the mayor himself.

The speaker said charges had been made against the mayor through the Portland papers, so grave that the Law Enforcement league could not overlook them. He said it was the duty of every member of that league as well of every citizen of Salem, to see that the law was enforced against the weak and the mighty, the high and the low, equally. It was demanded of the council that an investigation be made, that if the charges were found baseless, the mayor should be exonerated; but if they were found true, the mayor should be impeached. If the council takes no action, said Mr. Robinson, the Law Enforcement league will see its duty to endeavor to bring about the recall of Mr. Lachmund.

Just what the grounds are upon which the recall would be supported, was not divulged by Mr. Robinson. It is alleged that the mayor, with three friends, Kola Neis, Conrad Krebs and Julius Pinus, were expelled from the Marion hotel bar at 1 o'clock Saturday morning by Chief of Police Ira Hamilton; that they had refused to go upon the request of Manager W. H. Doolittle of the hotel, and at the request of the policeman on that beat and that Chief Hamilton was finally called and threatened them all with arrest before they would leave the place. Manager Doolittle pleaded guilty Saturday evening for keeping his bar open after midnight and paid a fine of $50.

The council last night did not seem to care to start an investigation. It will not meet again until next Monday evening. No one has been mentioned who would oppose the mayor in a recall election.

JOHN MINTO, JAS. LINN, NAMED ON PAROLE BODY

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., March 28.—Governor West has appointed John Minto of Portland and James R. Linn of Salem members of the newly created parole board. They will act with Superintendent James of the penitentiary, who is a member of the board by virtue of the position he holds. John Minto has been chief of police and postmaster at Portland. Mr. Linn is a member of the firm of hop dealers of Catlin & Linn of Salem, and is a close friend of Governor West. The duties of the board do not begin until after May 20, the date upon which the new law goes into effect.

IRRECONCILABLE BOERS WOULD STARVE AND ROT

(United Press Leased Wire.) Hamilton, Bermuda, March 28.—Boer "irreconcilables" who, 10 years after Great Britain's victory in South Africa, still declare that they will "starve and rot" before they will take the oath of allegiance to King George, are at last to be permitted to return to the veldt. With the exception of two or three men, who have married here, the colony of war prisoners have accepted the British government's offer of passage and expense to Cape Town and will leave for their old homes this week. Most of the Boers brought to Bermuda at the time of the war have long since taken the oath and gone home. Only these stubborn ones remained. Now it is believed the British government is so well satisfied with African conditions that they don't care whether the "irreconcilables" are irreconcilable or not, feeling confident that the day when they might have made trouble has passed.

YAMHILL CIRCUIT COURT AND GRAND JURY WORK

McMinnville, Or., March 28.—The spring term of the Yamhill county circuit court commenced yesterday, with Judge Percy Kelly of Albany on the bench. The grand jury was immediately put to work on some cases bound over from the justice court and what bills it may find will constitute about all the criminal cases on the docket. The docket this term is a short one. Several cases for naturalization were heard yesterday and most of the applicants granted papers.

Candy by the Yard Portland's Latest Fad.

Mr. W. L. Caswell of the "Immense" Chewing Candy company of Boston, Mass., has secured the Skidmore drug store, 151 Third St., large show window and is manufacturing his celebrated candy by the mill and is selling it by the yard. Mr. Caswell opened a few days ago and his candy has become a very popular fad already. It seems most everyone in Portland has tried a yard or so of it and they all say it's well named "Immense." It is made in several flavors. The vanilla cream is the leader, but the old fashioned molasses, chocolate, butter scotch, strawberry, lemon, lime, anise, peppermint, wintergreen and birch flavors are all very much liked. This candy is made of pure cane sugar and is cut so you can buy two kinds in one yard for 10 cents.

LOMBARD RESIGNS; TO RUN FOR MAYOR

Councilman at Large Is Determined to Make a Winning Fight.

Gay Lombard resigned as councilman at large yesterday so that the people may elect his successor at the June election.

"I have entered the race for mayor to win," said Mr. Lombard today. "Whether elected or rejected, I should in any event resign from the council. If I desire my resignation from the council, not the people, would elect my successor. This would defeat my own deep desire that the coming council shall represent only the interests of the people who elect them."

Mr. Lombard's immediate successor will be appointed by the council. He will serve until the municipal election, but not longer unless he should be re-elected by the people at that election, to serve the remaining two years of Mr. Lombard's term.

Refers to Record. "I have served as councilman for two years," continued Mr. Lombard in an interview. "I have served the interests of the people in the best way I could, and as fearlessly as I believe my record speaks for itself. I became a candidate for mayor because I honestly believed the city needed a chief executive that could care for the city's business honestly and fearlessly. I have pledged myself if elected to just such a service, and I shall make no promises that I shall not keep."

"In becoming candidate for mayor I did so entirely at my own volition. No private conferences preceded my announcement, and I had no private calls. For a long time Portland has needed an administration by a mayor who transacted all the city's business in full view of the people. I have entered the race to supply that need."

Will Not Withdraw. "I shall give my full time to the campaign, and in setting before the people what I consider are the great and fundamental issues for us to deal with, I shall not withdraw from the campaign. I shall make no truces or agreements with any other candidate. I have so arranged my business that I may give at least two years to the service of the people of Portland and a bigger or more important service just at this time I cannot conceive of."

Mr. Lombard added that he intended during his campaign for the mayoralty to make a special issue of a clean council free from corporate influence. As councilman he has always stood against any transaction that seemed to give special interests special advantage at the people's expense and injury.

FRATERNAL PARADE TO BE FESTIVAL FEATURE

The fraternal parade, a feature of the Rose Festival, will be given on Thursday night of festival week, on the east side. Nearly a dozen fraternal organizations will participate. Each will have its own distinctive scheme of illumination and costume. The pageant is planned to be one of the most gorgeous and interesting of Rose Festival week. Arrangements for the fraternal parade were reported by C. A. Bigelow and C. G. Hall at a special meeting of the East Side Business Men's club last night. The Spanish war veterans are the last enlisted. Four hundred of the veterans will attend the encampment at Vancouver Wednesday night of festival week. They will come over to Portland to participate in the parade Thursday night. The parade committee reported that other participants would be the Woodmen of the World, the Modern Woodmen of America, the Maccabees, the Oddfellows, Red Men, German societies, Knights of Pythias and Knights of Columbus. Four committees are today soliciting among east side business interests for the funds with which to meet the cost of the elaborate part which the east side will this year have in the Rose Festival.

$500 NEEDED FOR NEW CHINESE FUND

WANTED — TWENTY-FIVE MEN TO GIVE $20 EACH FOR THE RELIEF OF THE CHINESE FAMINE VICTIMS. This plea was issued today by Ben Selling. Yesterday the appeal was identical, save that where the words "twenty-five men" appear today, yesterday it was 50. Mr. Selling said this morning that during the day he had received $400 in contributions. This leaves but $500 of the second $5000 which he is raising for the relief of the famine sufferers in China. If the amount be entirely received today the $5000 will be at once forwarded to Hongkong, where it will be used for the purpose of buying food with which to help the starving Chinese. From the Y. M. C. A. came $37.15, given by young men who could not afford to make large donations, but who gave what they could. From the Christian church at Mosier came $5.25, and from the King's Workers, a society of young people at Chehalis, Wash., came $2, each donation representing many small gifts given by those who have little for those who have less. "I think it a splendid mark of this city's spirit, that we are able here to raise $10,000 for the Chinese in so short a time," said Mr. Selling. "It demonstrates the ready generosity which characterizes our people."

CONSTRUCTION IS BEGUN ON CHEHALIS & COWLITZ

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Chehalis, Wash., March 28.—The first work on the construction of the Chehalis & Cowlitz railroads began yesterday. A camp is being made on the Ritchey place, two and a half miles south of town, where men and equipment are being assembled. The first carload of equipment, including wheel scrapers, etc., has arrived. George Robinson, who is in charge, states that he has all the help he can use at this time. There is no trouble to get teams locally, and as far as possible local men will be employed.

LOGGERS ARE NOT UNIT FOR FOREST FIRE LAW

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Aberdeen, Wash., March 28.—Prominent loggers on Grays harbor have expressed themselves as greatly opposed to the forest fire protection law passed by the recent legislature. Former Senator Alexander Polson of Hoquiam calls it a "vicious piece of legislation," and a class measure. He declares if loggers attempted to obey its provisions it would practically put them out of business. Loggers declare they have equipped their camps with all kinds of apparatus for fighting fire, that their men are instructed to put out any fire they may find at any time, that they are as vitally interested in keeping fire out of the timber as anyone possibly can be.

Loss a Certainty.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Brisbane, Australia, March 28.—Stray bits of cargo from the steamer Yongala, which washed ashore here today, have caused almost a certainty that the vessel with her crew of several sailors and 68 passengers, is lost. It is believed the Yongala foundered at sea with all on board.

Two Deaths in Lewis County.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Centralia, Wash., March 28.—Albert H. Tucker, a well known business man of Lewis county, died at his home in Ethel yesterday. He was born in Lewis county 38 years ago, and lived there all his life.
