

EGG MARKET DOWN TO 19 CTS. ALONG FRONT ST. TODAY

Receipts Are Heavy and for That Reason Prices Show Further Concession; Retailers Are Bearish.

Egg market is down 1/2 to 10 a dozen along front street. Sales are being made from 19 to 20¢ a dozen generally, but most of the transactions are around the 20¢ mark.

Receipts of eggs are very liberal, and as outside markets are generally lower than Portland, the surplus must either go into storage or else be quoted out at lower values.

At San Francisco, California extras are quoted at 18¢ a dozen, which means 18¢ to land at Portland. The average retailer is not able to handle more than a case or two of eggs at one time, therefore when he receives a shipment of 10 or more cases he is demoralized. The surplus is sent down to front street for sale, and this action is in itself sufficient to cause a lower range.

Storage operations are heavy, but some of those who were putting liberal supplies in the icehouse at higher prices have quit, owing to anticipation of lower figures.

MOHAIR MARKET FIRMER

Speculators Are Bidding More Eagerly for Supplies.

Finner tone is showing in the local mohair market, the result in speculative buying by certain interests. Mills are buying fairly well, but not as heavily as expected. In the country purchases are being made from 31 to 32¢ a pound.

Wool market is quiet, with no business passing so far as can be seen. The price of eastern Oregon clips ranges from 10 to 14¢ a pound, according to quality. Eastern business slightly increased, but price is stationary.

MORE BUTTER COMING

Country Creamery Supply Is More Liberal Along Street.

Better supplies of country made creamery butter are reported in the local market by local handlers. The supply of cream is increasing, and handlers are able to fill all orders. There was some talk among certain creameries of forcing an advance in price, but with increase of supplies a lower range may be looked for after awhile.

ADVANCE IN CHEESE

Market Is Half Cent Up With a Scarcity of Fresh Stock.

An advance of practically a half cent a pound is being quoted in the price of cheese by wholesalers. Fresh cheese continues scarce, although the schooner delivery arrived from Tillamook with a supply. Handlers are now asking 14 to 15¢ a pound for new make, and from 13 to 14¢ for storage.

MORE LAMBS OFFERING

Spring Stock Is to Become More Pictorial in Near Future.

A liberal increase in the offerings of spring lambs may be expected on front street during the coming week, according to advice from the Tillamook country. Quotation ranges from 14 to 15¢ a pound with pelts.

Dressed meats in general are not so firm; hogs being down another fraction.

LARD TO DROP QUARTER

Drop to Be Shown Monday; Other Provisions Same.

A decline of 1/4 a pound is to be shown in the price of lard on Monday morning. A new list to that effect will be issued. Hams, bacon and other provisions will show no change.
