Topics of Interest in the Realm Feminine

IN SOCIETY

Miss Marshall, who is the guest of Mrs. Arthur George Dunn, in Seattle. was the complimented guest at a lunchson given last week by Mrs. William D. Porkins. An artistic arrangement of jorquile graced the table, about which were marked covers for 10. Bridge counded out the afternoon.

All committees on arrangements for the tea and bridge to be given Friday, April 21, at the Hotel Portland for the Fruit and Flower Mission will meet tomorrow to perfect final arrangementr. The affair is moving along well and present indications are that it will be a great success.

Colonel and Mrs. Cornellus Gardner were guests of honor at a reception tendered them last might at the Officers' club by the officers and women of Vancouver Barracks. About 200 called during the hours. Colonel Gardner is actcommander of the department of the Columbia during the absence of General Marion P. Maus on the Texas order. Assisting in receiving were Colonel George K. McGunnegle, Miss Imabel McGunnegle, Colonel and Mrs. J. P. Rogers, Colonel and Mrs. G. S. Hingham and Major and Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Among the guests were many who went over from Portland.

The bridge in Mrs. Gustave E. Bruere's series, to have been given the last of this week, has been postponed owing to slight illness in the family.

Mrs. Max Hirsch has as her guest her mother, Mrs. Seller.

An interesting programme as follows will be given Thursday evening by the Daughters of the Confederacy at their annual Shiloh tea, at the home of Mrs. H. H. Duff, 135 North Twenty-second street: Piano solos by Mrs E. ker; vocal numbers by Mrs. Fred Olson, Mrs. Baltes Allen, Dr. R. L. Emerson and Miss Maud Dammasch, reading Mrs. Sylvia McGuire; paper, Mrs. H. H.

Mrs. Louisson, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gus Simon, returned last week to her home in San Francisco.

Mrs. O. N. Clark made Mrs. Edward Lucas, the Minneapolis visitor of Mrs. Leon H. Peters, her guest of honor at an attractive bridge luncheon yesterday Daffodils, violets and maiden hair fern centered the table, over which was cast the glow from a candelabra shaded in yellow. Covers were laid for Mrs. Jucas, Mrs. Leon H. Peters, Mrs. George B. Cellars, Mrs. Charles L. Boss, Mrs. John F. Toft, Mrs. O. H. Fithian, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. Charles E. Runyon, Mrs. William Reid, Mrs. Willis L. Straugh, Mrs. Louis Shelk, Mrs. R. P. Graham, Mrs. Frederick Stinson, Mrs. John W. Sifton, Mrs. F. C. Knapp, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. George Shoemaker and the hostess. In the card games Mrs. George B. Cellars, Mrs. Charles ss and Mrs. John Toft captured the Miss Persis Sargent was complimented with an afternoon of bridge yesterday silk. They are not, on the whole, good by Mrs. Norris Gregg, who asked guests shapes for summer wear, since many for six tables of the game. Score prizes drop low over the hair or cap the head fell to Mrs. Scott, Miss Mabel Beck. Decorations were of pink carnations.

Mrs. J. H. Fox has sent out invitations for a bridge affair in a fortnight.

Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Wheeler (Dr. Anna spiral masses of straw, or heaped-up Regan) have returned from their honey- folds of it, or tall, melon-shaped affairs moon trip spent on the sound cities with some close trimming laid against and have taken apartments at Fourteenth the walls of the hat, if I may use the and Clay, where they will be at home term. Walls the plain straw hats cer-

BRIDE OF INDIAN GETS WARM WELCOME IN ANGEL SOCIETY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, April 5,—Although society was not let in on the wedding of Miss Annabel MacFarland, pet of the exclusive Arroyo club, and Hart Schultz, a Blackfoot Indian, it will welcome the newlyweds. The first event in their honor will be a linen shower for the bride. Schultz is a full-blooded Indian, six feet 2 inches in his stocking feet, black haired, and with the stamp of the plains fining their qualifications. It is expected that the opening of these training schools will introduce the employer and *************

SEVEN YEARS OF MISERY

All Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

for four or five days at a time every month, and so weak could hardly walk. cramped and had backache and headache, and was so nervous and weak that I dreaded to see anyone or have anyone move in the room. The doctors gave me medicine to ease me at those times, and said that I ought to have an operation. I would not listen to that, and when a friend of my husband told him about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegeable Compound and what it had done for his wife, I was willing to take it. Now I look the picture of health and feel like it, too. I can do my own house. work, hoe my garden, and milk a cow. I can entertain company and enjoy them. I can visit when I choose, and walk as far as any ordinary woman, any day in the month. I wish I could talk to every suffering woman and girl." -Mrs. DEMA BETHUNE, Sikeston, Mo.

The most successful remedy in this country for the cure of all forms of female complaints is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

is more widely and successfully used than any other remedy. It has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, in-fammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, the surface has undergone some special treatment.

that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and ner yous prostration, after all other means and failed. Why don't you try it?

the surface has undergone some special treatment.

"In buying, one should examine not alone the surface of the ruy, but also the back. See if the weaving be firm tiny things are to have a drop to drink, unhealthy parts of the cities. And, to or a fig leaf to cover their nakedness, this class only would "bountles" appeal, or a decent up-bringing there is an-other hue and cry going up over the increased criminality is perfectly clear er a drunken brute, a thief or what not drunk,

—and with the poor wraith of a mother A bo degenerates, who, in turn, breed another sickeping output of weeds. From these father. wildernesses where there are no laws, these grim caves of death where disease ing.

up to the light and see if the texture Pour into felly glasses and set away to looks firm as on the surface. If you cool. This is a tried and reliable recipe. looks firm as on the surface. If you find an old rug, even with holes, but with much pristine charm, do not hes-litate to buy it, for it can be beautifully SAYS WIFE TRIED TO mended. There is, however, a difference between holes in old rugs and those in nodern ones. In the latter, they are often caused by the rotting of the dye. If such he the case, do not on any account buy the rug 1 wish I could give some certain test for this, but, it takes experience to understand the difference."

In Others' Cars. The make of the machine Is naught to us, Touring or limousine, Electric—gasoline, Small or commodious Once we are placed inside, No trifle mars, We who elect to ride In other people's cars.

Honorable Mrs Wilkinson, sister of Lord Decies, who recently returned to

New York from the west, where she toured following her brother's marriage to Miss Vivien Gould In speak ing of her trip, Mrs. Wilkinson said: "I have traveled considerably in my life, but your people are a revelation

don't think England and the English can ever be good enough in return.

The sister of Lord Decies is a pronounced suffragist, but disclaims that she is a suffragette. In England she says a vast distinction is made be-tween the two words. The suffragette believes in militant measures, while a suffragist believes in con-

New Paris Hats

By Marie Oliver in Harper's Bazar.

straw, very light in weight and soft in fects here and there to offset them and an occasional one in stretched gauze or

Some of the smartest of the models are tainly have, with a mere tiny-leaved vine or smallest of silk flowers plastered up against them, as if the de-signer were loath to cover in the least the high and actually ugly structure.

Solution of the Servant Problem.

Club women of Montclair, N. J., have arted a movement for the solution of the servant girl problem, one of the most aggravatingly puzzling prob-

New York and its suburbs. The plan of these women is to establish throughout the state training and cooking schools for servants and girls who wish to be-come servants. In these schools the girls are to be taught every branch of housework and cooking under the direction of competent teachers. The stu-dents will be classified and upon graduation will receive diplomas, clearly de-employe upon a common sense basis and enable them to cooperate intelligently. It is planned to establish such training schools in two or three cities, if the experiment should prove successful, to organize branches in other cit-

A Pure Food Menu.

fare. Should the measure become a law, frequenters of public eating places may as well expect to see a menu like the following:

Clam chowder (clams missing).
Olive oil (75 per cent cottonseed).
Chicken pot pie (veal instead of chicken)
Fresh eggs (four years in cold storage).
Apple butter (vinegar, licorice and flour)
Spring chicken (spring of 1905).
Black pepper (ground shoes and acid).
Creamery butter (oleomargarine).
Frankfurter sausage (made in Chicago).
Swiss cheese (from Wisconsin).
Fried potatoes (cottolene used).
Coffee (brewed from chicory).
Milk from our dairy (and hydrant).
Green apple pie (dried two years ago).
Green peas (from a can).
Blue points on the half shell (placed on shells in the kitchen).
There are many devices for deluding the appetites of gourmands such as he appetites of gourmands such as mock furtle soup minus the turtle and mock duck made of pork tenderloin instead of the fowl. Many may prefer to revel in the delusion that they are living on the delicacies for which sub-stitutes are so often supplied.

How to Buy Oriental Rugs.

"In selecting a rug, we must look carefully to be sure the design is perfect in its entirety, and harmonious, says Rosa Belle Holt. The old vege-table dyes were famous. There are, however firms with factories in the orient which are doing their utmost to establish vegetable dyeing for their rugs

"My advice is to buy before it is too inte, the old rugs, dyed with the pure vegetable dyes. When I say old rugs. I do not necessarily mean antique ater than the early part of the eight-enth century. I think that we may classify those rugs as old which have woven more than 50 years. Twen-

-five-year-old rugs are often exam-es of pure vegetable dyes, and come in loyely colorings.

"If you want a modern rug, be care ful to get a color that is genuine. Ex-amine the wool, and notice if it he the same shade away inside as on the surface. Often the top is very attractive in a rug, but by peering down you will see a much brighter color, showing that the surface has undergone some specia which are, to my thinking, not

An Illinois legislator is preparing to introduce a bill applying the pure food label to hotel and restaurant bills of ies throughout the state.

ems confronting the housekeepers

The new hats are largely of soft sath

with fine Tagel and Milan ef-to me in kindness and hospitality.

The bursting of a tire But wakes our mirth; Let others in the mire Drag, hammer and perspire Prone on earth, They but arouse our wit.
These trifling jars.
We who elect to sit In others' cars.

We are a folk serene Of mien benign; We buy no gasoline. Though justice intervene We pay no fine. Let some their wagons hitch Unto the stars

We still prefer our niche In others' cars. —Theodosia Garrison in Life. Orange Marmalade.

Slice very thin, rind and all, three large oranges and one lemon. Pour over the sliced fruit 11 tumblers of cold bonnet fashion, which is always a trywater and let stand for 24 hours. After ing style of hat to wear in the warmer boiling slowly for one hour, add four Another noticeable feature in them is pounds of granulated sugar and set away for another 24 hours. Then boil vided and planted to orchards. the absence of fluffiness in trimming.

istalks unmolested, where ignorance is T the same time that T. R., Presi- rampant, and morality a missing partdent-Emeritus Ellot, the Illinois sovereign citizens of reform and regenlegislator and other diffident and eration would recruit the ranks of huextremely shy reformers, are manity. For, statistics invariably rec-clamoring for "babies, babies, ord that the big families, the riot of everywhere," regardless of whether the babies are to be found in the squalid,

The other day an 11 year old boy country on account of the startling in- was found who had been out of school crease in criminality. Think it over. It more than three years, never having seems to me the relation of indiscrimi- progressed farther than the second nate and ill-assorted child culture to glade. The boy's mother, a widow, took in washings, and forced the boy to do all the work while she herself remained Does not humanity too often list to in a saloon a short distance from her the call of the heast" under ex-home, spending the lad's earnings for sting conditions? With prizes of drink, Upon returning from the saloon, fered for the return of man and it was the habit of the mother to beat women to the habits of the animal, what the boy brutally, in reward for his work. a shining incentive is provided for the unscrupulous? To what lengths would charged with cruelly beating his chil-not vicious mothers go to reap a har-dren and driving them from the house vest of gold? What is to become of the at all hours of the night. In less strenbrood of eight or 10 children raised in nous moments, he plied the children filthy, ill-smelling alleys, with the fath- with liquor to observe their antics when

A boy was sent to an institution for going out by the day scrubbing office incorrigibles last week, after the judge floors and cleaning cuspidors? From had found him guilty of beating his such rank soil issue sickly, misshapen sister brutally and stealing from freight

I just thought I'd mention it in pass and not loosened by the dyes. Hold it one and a half hours or a little longer.

POISON HIM BECAUSE HE WENT TO SCHOOL

Alex Haberman charges in his . divorce sult just filed in the circuit court that his wife attempted to poison him because he attended night school. Haberman works in the daytime, and was going to the school at the Y. M. His wife objected, and wanted him to stay at home. He wanted to get a better education. He does not explain how she attempted to poison him. He also charges his wife would go out at night with other men. These visits were usually when he was in night school, he declares.

The Habermans were married August 16, 1910, in this city, and he charges specifically she went out with a stranger on December 24 of the same year. *************

EASTERN SYNDICATE BUYS STARR'S RANCH

The C. B. Starr ranch, one of the oldest settled farms in Benton county, was purchased yesterday by R. C. Keeney of Eugene, who was acting for an eastern syndicate. The place comprises 734 acres and improvements, and is located in the town of Monroe. It was sold for $39,000 cash, the Gowen-Ide Trust company of Portland handling the transac-

The property lies in the southern Oregon fruit belt, and is to be subdi-

NORTH PLAINS CLUB

More Than 30 Business Men Attend First Meeting of New Organization.

More than thirty business men of North Plains gathered at the town hall Monday night for the first meeting of the North Plains commercial club, since its organization two weeks ago. At that leading business men of Portland lourneyed to North Plains to assist the ousiness men in the organization of the booster club.

Much enthusiasm was displayed at the meeting and the large number present indicated great interest in the new club. Dr. D. J. Murphy was elected president of the organization with Marion Mays vice-president and D. W. Bath, secretary. The executive committee consists of Thomas Connell, A McCoy, J. H. Lang and J. R. Wilson.

One of the first things the members of the new club propose to do is to seure permanent quarters for the club 'ntil then, Secretary Bath will maintain headquarters at the office of the North Plains Sentinel, the new weekly paper of which he is editor. It is also proposed to maintain an exhibit and publish several descriptive pamphlets on North Plains and the Tualatin valley and the commercial club will now have every assistance of the Oregon Development

Weekly meetings will be held and a special program will be carried out. Next week speakers from Hillsboro will be present and later it is hoped to have prominent men of Portland attend the meetings and speak on subjects of interest to the residents of the new com munity.

The officers of the new club propose that North Plains will be among the live members of the Oregon Development league and a canvass is to be made at once for members.

Dispensation for Wedding. Washington, D. C., April, 5.—Cardinal diobons has granted a special dispensation for the marriage about to take place of Miss Cecelia May and Robert L. Bacon, Jr., son of the ambassador to France. The bride-elect is a Roman

Madam--

You and "G-W" Bookcases should be friends.

You will be when you investigate. Why not do so tomorrow?

See our attractive window display.

The J. K. Gill Co., 3d and Alder.

Miss May is the youngest daughter of lumbia. She made her debut a little over a year ago, since which time she has been prominent at many social func-

Robert L. Bacon, Jr., was graduated com Harvard last June, and is now

He lived for several years in attached to the state department with a view to entering diplomacy as a profes-

Washington when his father was assist-

Mechanism to count passengers passing through a gate of a railroad station

momentarily obstruct, causing it to reg-ant secretary of state.

tions here and in London and Paris.

Catholic, and was much averse to a Lenten marriage, but as Mr. Bacon's parents are obliged to return to Paris by Easter. It was deemed necessary to have the wedding take place without delay. The difficulty was solved by the courteous act of the cardinal in granting a special dispensation. Society is much interested in the wedding. BRINGS PREMIUM OFFER

Colonel and Mrs. Henry H. May, the latter formerly a Miss Coleman of San Francisco. She has lived all her life (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Hood River, Or., April 5 .- At a special meeting of the Hood River city in Washington, where her father's fam-ily has been socially prominent since the establishment of the District of Cocouncil last evening bids for the purchase of the $90,000 municipal bond issue were opened. That of Ulen & Co. of Chicago was accepted. They offered a premium of $2250 for a 20 year issue and a premium of $650 on a 10 year issue, on condition that the legality of the bonds be approved by their New York attorneys or their legality assured by the supreme court of this state. The Investors' Security com-pany of Des Moines, Iowa, made a bid to take the bonds at 51/2 per cent, but it was understood here that their attorneys would not approve them. If the first proposition is accepted the interat Pittsburg will employ a current of est on the $90,000 issue will amount compressed air, which each person will to $108,000.

Moonlight skating. Oaks rink tonight.*

Is the Ideal Residence district for the business and professional man. It is in a delightful section of Portland, is reached by four car lines and is only 15 minutes from the office and shopping center on the west side. Laurelhurst has every improvement made—not promised. The streets and sidewalks are paved and parked-gas, water and sewer systems installed, shade

Laurelhurst lots are the lowest in price of any of the exclusive residence additions in Portland-$900 and up-10 per cent cash, 2 per cent a month. If you are contemplating building a home, see

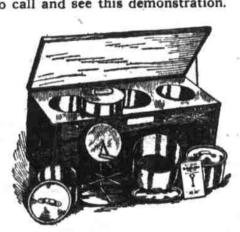

MEAD & MURPHY, Sales Agents for Laurelhurst 522 Corbett Bldg. Phones-Main 1503, A-1515

COMMENCING TODAY AND DURING THE BALANCE OF THIS WEEK WE WILL

> Demonstrate The "NEW JEWEL" Fireless Cooker

Mrs. Baker, an expert, will show and explain how the Cooker operates. We extend a cordial invitation to the ladies to call and see this demonstration.

Honeyman Hardware Co. Headquarters for

GARLAND AND CLARK JEWEL GAS RANGES. Fourth and Alder Streets.

Low Rates to California

LOS ANGELES, $10.35, $20.50, $22.50, $25.50

Fare to San Francisco, $5, $10, $12, $15.

SS. "ROSE CITY" Sails 9 A. M., Saturday, April 8th

J. W. Ransom, Agent, Ainsworth Dock H. G. Smith, C. T. A. 142 Third St. Phones-Main 402, A-1402; Main 268.

mending the R & G Corset as the most comfortable I have ever worn. The combined style and easy comfort of the R & G should be a delight to every well dressed woman, as its flexibility is a quality particularly sought by dancers.

Lass to Pare.

Foreigners invariably remark on the superior figure and grace of American women as compared with European.

Grace of figure being a matter of corseting we know from the millions annually sold of R & G Corsets that they have so much to do with this impression.

On Sale Everywhere

"I take pleasure in recom-