"HAM" CORBETT TRIES PROMOTER GRIFFIN IS OUT FOR HARVARD TEAM

enforced yesterday afternoon by the appearance of "Ham" Corbett, who enrolled with "Pooch" Donovan for the sprints, says the Boston Globe of recent date. For four years Corbett has been a fixture in the back field in Harvard football, first on his freshman team and later on the varsity. With his football career at an end he has determined to try himself out in the track department of Harvard athletics.

Corbett has never been engaged in this sport while in scollege, but speed in football leads "Pooch" to beieve that he has the making of a sprinter. His only appearance on the rack took place at the Harvard winter carnival in Mechanics hall, where he ran two laps in good time on his class relay team from the scholarship offer of a Harvard graduate.

BASEBALL FANS PUT TEARNEY IN OFFICE

Chicago, April 5 .- Baseball fans wer today given credit for the election yesterday of Al Tearney, president of the Three Eye Baseball league, to Chicago's aldermanic board. Tearney, who is a Defiocrat, was pitted against Milton Foreman, Republican, and one of the strongest men on the city board. The defeat of Foreman was a great surprise to the Republicans, who believed that he would be returned an easy victor over the baseball magnate.

Thousands of basecall fans, regardless of political faith, cast their ballots for Tearney, and the completed returns today show that he won by a comfortable plurality. Baseball magnates, players and fans all over the United States today snow ered congratulations upon Tearney. COMISKEY INSURES MEN AGAINST INJURY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, April 5.—To protect himself from total loss of money when his players become ill or injured, Charles A. Comiskey, owner of the Chicago Americans, has had each of them insured by a St. Louis company. Comiskey first considered this plan when Catcher Sullivan was injured in California last year, and later when Blackburn was put out of commission with a bad knee, the question was settled. Each player is insured for $5000 in case of death from accident or illness. Should any of his men sustain injuries he will receive $25 a week on each policy as long as they are unable to play

BEN HENDERSON IS ON BLACKLIST AGAIN

Readers of The Journal's 5:39 o'clock sporting extra were apprised last night of the telegram from Secretary Farrell of the National Association of Minor League Baseball clubs, announcing that Ben Henderson's permit to play in the Coast league had been canceled. It stated that the reinstatement had been made under a misapprehension of facts in the case and that the blacklist against the former Portland twirler who is again with the Beavers would be con-McCredie will probably appeal to the Holman Defeats Ainsworth. One of the first games between teams in the Grammar School league was played yesterday in South Portland, between the Holman school and the Ainsworth school, the former team being victorious by a score of 7 to 6. The game was closely contested from start to finish, the Holman team showing cal league class at all times.

Raiph Thomson, the star performer of the Holman aggregation of tossers, was injured in the seventh inning, hav-ing his thumb split by a hot one behind the bat, which post he held down yesterday, but, displaying his usual gameness, was unwilling to quit and remained in the game until it was cinched for the Holmans.

BILL BLOOMFIELD JOINS BALL SQUAD

Multnomah Game Postponed -Nicks Play Rupert's Rubes Next Sunday.

Billy Bloomfield arrived this morn ing from the south and joined the Fortland Northwestern league squad, and the bronze-faced slabster reports himself in excellent condition to begin training. Bloomfield had his first workout this morning but did not smoke any over the plate, preferring to take more time to get his salary wing in condition.

Manager McKenna of the Multroman lub has asked Manager Williams of the league to postpone the game this afternoon until next Wednseday after-noon owing to the visit of Colonel Roosevelt to Multnomah field, where he lays the cornerstone of the new building.

Next Friday afternoon the Nicks will go up to Corvallis to play the Aggies and on Sunday they will play Rupert's Rubes. Monday afternoon the Lincoln High school tea mwill be met in a practice game at the scholastics' request An admission of 25 cents will charged to any part of the field to the Multnomah game and that with Ru-pert's team. If a game is played with Whitman college the same price will prevail.

Frink, the soldier, was cutting them through again yesterday and this morning and appears to have everything on the ball. He will probably be used in part of the game against the Aggles. Glencke, Yates and Sieeny will probably work Monday. Glencke and Lamline are now in good shape and have shown Williams that they know The Nicks got in a good days' work resterday, desptie the rain.
