IN SOCIETY

One of the very interesting dances of the kirmess promises to be the dance of the seasons, with the personnel made up from the sub-debutante set. Chaperones are Mrs. David C. Lewis, Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett, Mrs. S. M. Meigs, Mrs. Jay J. Morrow, Miss Elizabeth Cadwell, Mrs. Gus Simon and Mrs. F. W. Leadbetter. The dancers are: Spring, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Miss Isabelle Macleay, Miss Katherine Graham and Miss Elizabeth Jones; summer, Miss Nancy Zan, Miss Margaret Malarkey, Miss Martha Barnes and Miss Ruth Marvin; autumn, Miss Nan Russell, Miss Katherine Laidlaw, Miss Genevieve Hales and Miss Charlotte Laidlaw; winter, Miss Helen Laid, Miss Jean Morrison, Miss Esther Tucker and Miss Mary Brownlie. The Hungarian dance is chaperoned by Mrs. Helen Laid Corbett, Mrs. Robert W. Lewis, Mrs. A. L. Miller, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Miss May Felling, Mrs. Renae S. Joseph, Mrs. Virginia Wilson and Mrs. Julius Meier. Mrs. Elliot R. Corbett, Mrs. John Thomas Jr., Mrs. Leslie Smith, Mrs. Evelyn Wilson, Miss Anita Burns, Miss Frances Foster, Elliot R. Corbett, Frederick Wilson, Kirk Smith, Kurt Koehler, Jordan Zan and Captain John R. Thomas Jr., U. S. A., appear in the dance, which will be one of rare beauty.

The reading of "The Pied Piper" given at the Hotel Portland yesterday morning by Miss Edith Clins Ford of New York was the magnet which drew a smart assemblage of women. Miss Ford has just come down from Seattle, where she gave a course of six readings at the Washington hotel. Tomorrow morning she will read Maeterlinck's wonderful "The Blue Bird," which promises to be even more popular than her first reading. Patrons for the affair have been Mrs. Helen Laid Corbett, Mrs. A. E. Rokey, Mrs. K. A. J. Mackenzie, Mrs. J. E. Bingham, Mrs. Evelyn Allen, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Solomon Hirsch, Mrs. H. W. Corbett, Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mrs. H. C. Cabell, Mrs. A. A. Morrison, Mrs. Henry L. Corbett, Miss Felling, Miss May Felling, Mrs. C. H. Lewis and Mrs. William M. Ladd.

Dr. and Mrs. Clarence L. Nichols are planning to leave for Hood River on Easter Monday in the hope of benefiting Dr. Nichols' health. They have taken a house and expect to remain six months. During their absence their Portland home will be occupied by Mrs. E. P. Nichols and Miss Fay Nichols, who will return from their European travel about the first of May.

Mrs. John H. Hall entertained the New England Conservatory club and their guests with a matinee musical yesterday at her home on Lovejoy street. Miss Marie Page, violinist, and Miss Edith June Chapman, pianist, were the soloists. Mrs. Hall was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Rudolph Prael, president of the club; Mrs. J. L. Schultz, Mrs. E. C. Goddard, Mrs. Edgar Piper, Miss Constance Piper, Mrs. W. B. Mann and Miss Mildred Boulton. Mrs. Prael and Mrs. J. M. Barz served at the table, which carried attractive decorations of red and yellow tulips with greenery. Red carnations decorated the hall and in the drawing room and music room, palms predominated. About 75 guests were present.

Mrs. William H. Skene, accompanied by her two children and her mother, Mrs. Donald Mackay, will leave in the morning for Hood River to pass a fortnight there.

HEAD WAS SCALY HAIR ALL CAME OUT

And Baby's Face Broke Out in Red Bumps. Spread on Hands and Arms. Got Worse All the Time.

Mother Says, "I Don't Think Anything Else Would Have Cured Him Except Cuticura."

"When my first baby was six months old he broke out on his head with little bumps. They would dry up and leave a scale. Then it would break out again and it spread all over his head. All the hair came out and his head was scaly all over. Then his face broke out all over in red bumps and it kept spreading until it was on his hands and arms. I bought several boxes of ointment to treat him, but he got worse all the time. He had it about six weeks and I was told to use Cuticura. I sent and got a bottle of Cuticura Resolvent, a cake of Cuticura Soap and a box of Cuticura Ointment. In three days after using them he began to improve. He began to take long naps and to stop scratching his head. After taking two bottles of Resolvent, two boxes of Ointment and three cakes of Soap he was sound and well and never had any breaking out of any kind. His hair came out in little curls all over his head. I don't think anything else would have cured him except Cuticura. I have bought Cuticura Ointment and Soap several times since to use for cuts and sores and have never known them to fail to cure what I put them on. Cuticura Soap is the best that I have ever used for toilet purposes." (Signed) Mrs. F. E. Harmon, R. D. 2, Atoka, Tenn., Sept. 10, 1910.

Sold everywhere. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 138 Columbus Ave., Boston. Mailed free, samples of Cuticura Soap and Ointment, with 32-p. book on skin treatment.

The announcement that Miss Oden has been appointed an official of the Moline, Rock Island & Davenport railroad, widens the range of woman's activity by adding still another profession to the already long list which she has been found capable of filling. Not only has she demonstrated her ability as a practical and proficient railroad agent, but her promotion to the post of general passenger agent, makes her the first woman to occupy an official position on a railroad in the United States. Miss Oden has for years been employed as chief clerk in the office of the general agent of the road at Davenport.

250 PREPARE FOR SOCIETY KIRMESS

Miss Margaret Webber. Some 250 girls and young men have been working hard for the past week, and will work even harder for the next three weeks, practicing the fancy steps and intricate figures of the beautiful spectacular dances that are to be given at the society kirmess on the evening of April 27, 28 and 29, with Saturday matinee.

The society young folk have flung themselves with energy into the task of perfecting these brilliant costume dances, abandoning every other form of amusement and social pursuit, so they may bring the standard of the "show" up to the high quality of Portland's magnificent society kirmess of two years ago, which netted more than $2,600 for charity.

The fact that the approaching kirmess is given for the benefit of the Portland Open Air Sanitarium for consumptives and that good friend of the children, the People's Institute, is an appeal to the general public that is repeated upon bringing a long line of ticket purchasers to the box office window as soon as the sale of seats opens.

Every afternoon and every evening the kirmess dancers are practicing almost continuously, and the project is now well on its way to success. In the accompanying picture Miss Margaret Webber, one of the graceful young girls in the beautiful mirror dance, is shown in a pretty pose caught by The Journal's camera at a rehearsal.

SUPPOSED HOLDUPS AT KALAMA QUICKLY CAUGHT

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Kalama, Wash., April 7.—R. B. Tatum, a blacksmith for the Mountain Timber company, at Kalama, was held up by three men, it is alleged, named William Colman, Charles Clark and William Lopez, while coming from his work Wednesday night. Tatum reported the holdup to Chief of Police Kauffman at once, and he, together with Sheriff Carline and Deputy Sheriff Coloss, captured the highwaymen near Carroll's within an hour after the holdup. They were arraigned before Justice Wicker and placed under $2,000 bonds awaiting the next session of the superior court.

A WAIL FROM MRS. DOOR MAT

By Darra More.
"D EAR Miss More—Will you advise a broken hearted wife what to do with a neglectful husband? For 10 years I have been a faithful, devoted wife. I keep a clean house, do all my own sewing, washing and ironing. In fact, do everything to save a dollar. Work many times when I can hardly stand. I am a nervous wreck from worrying over this man. When I am ill as is often the case, I can't get after day, and he never even asks how I feel. He is seldom at home, and takes his pleasures down town.

"A TROUBLED ONE"

I have little patience with the sobbing, weeping and tramped brigade. This "neglect" business is often the wife's own fault. It is the nature of humanity to treat its slave, its menials with disdain and contempt. The recital of woes, pains and aches is extremely irritating, after a nasty day down town. Tired lines under the eyes and a martyred expression were never calculated to please the interest of a sweetheart or husband and sated and careless garb, with unkempt hair, invariably rob the ardor of the most devoted, these are just a few of the reasons why married men leave home.

PRaises FOREST FIRE SAFEGUARD IN OREGON

D. P. Simons, chief fire warden for the state of Washington, commends very highly and enthusiastically the progress being made in this state for the protection against forest fires. Mr. Simons was in Portland today on his way home from the annual meeting of the Western Forestry and Conservation association just closed at Spokane.

"The appointment of F. A. Elliott to the office of state forester will mean a great deal," said Mr. Simons. "Mr. Elliott is thoroughly acquainted with the subject and understands the importance of working in harmony and with the closest cooperation with bodies organized to solve the forest fire problem. This will mean good results.

"More timber can be destroyed by fire in one year than can be grown in a thousand, so you see it is well worth while to guard against fires in these forests of the Pacific northwest, which forests are the district's greatest natural resources."

Automobiles were used to good advantage by the Washington wardens in making their inspection rounds among the rangers, and warden Simons says several autos will be added to the equipment for the coming summer.

RATE REDUCTIONS SHOULD CUT PRICES

(United Press Leased Wire.) San Francisco, April 7.—Declaring that the work of the new state railroad commission would go for naught unless public sentiment causes shippers and jobbers to reduce their prices in proportion to freight rate reductions, President John P. Eshelman, president of the commission, in a statement today urged that the people insist on fair dealing.

Eshelman pointed out that it would profit the general public but little to take money from the railroad offers by means of freight reductions, only to put it in the hands of middlemen. As an example, Eshelman pointed out that if the freight rate on hay were lowered and the jobbers got the advantage of the reduction without in turn lowering the price to the consumer, the cost of hay still would remain inflated.

Alabama Christian Endeavorers.
Selma, Ala., April 7.—This city is today teeming with enthusiastic young people from all over Alabama, who have come to participate in the annual state convention of Christian Endeavor societies. Beginning with a big welcome meeting in the Alabama Avenue Presbyterian church tonight the sessions will continue over Saturday and Sunday.

F. P. Ballard of Birmingham is the presiding officer and among the speakers are some of the most eloquent divines and ablest Sunday school workers in the south. The local branches of the society have provided elaborate entertainment for the visitors.

FORESTRY MEN TO MEET IN PORTLAND

Western Association Selects This City for Convention to Be Held Next Year.

Portland has been selected for the next annual meeting of the Western Forestry and Conservation association. Heretofore all the association meetings have been held in Spokane, although the offices of Forester E. T. Allen are permanently located in this city.

The selection of Portland was made at the annual meeting just adjourned in Spokane, but which was rather of a formal character and therefore not as largely attended as it is expected the Portland meeting will be, for it is planned to arrange a very extensive and elaborate program for the next meeting.

Reviews Year's Work.

One of the features of the meeting just closed was the report of Forester Allen who reviewed the association's success in securing legislation for the protection of the forests and other dangers. This excellent report led to further steps in that direction and a resolution was passed urging railroads and logging concerns to use oil fuel in engines during the dry summer months. Among other resolutions passed were these:

Urging the war department to appoint a commission to confer with the forest service concerning the stationing of troops near national forests to serve as a reserve fire force in emergencies.

Recommending extension of private cooperative patrol as more efficient than individual effort by forest owners.

Appreciating the increasing attention given forest protection by state officials and legislators.

Officers Chosen.

Officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, A. L. Flowering, Spokane; treasurer, A. W. Laird, Portland; secretary, G. M. Cornwall, Portland; vice presidents, G. W. Millett, Kallispell; F. J. Davies, Coeur d'Alene; E. G. Ames, Seattle; A. P. Sprague, Portland; Miles Standish, San Francisco; trustees, J. R. Toole, Missoula; T. J. Humbird, Sandpoint; George S. Long, Tacoma; F. C. Knapp, Portland; J. H. Quail, McCloud, Cal.

Forester Allen returned yesterday. On his way home he stopped off at Moscow, Idaho, and spoke to the students of the state university on the future prospects of forestry and private employment of trained foresters and the progress and trend of state forest legislation.

MORMON PRESIDENT ATTACKS POLYGAMY

(United Press Leased Wire.) Salt Lake, Utah, April 7.—Denunciation of polygamy was the remarkable feature here of the opening of the Mormon conference. President Joseph Smith addressing the gathering, declared that no Mormon would hereafter be permitted to perform or to contract plural marriages. Hereafter, he said, the church would conform strictly to the laws of the United States in that particular.

REVOLT IN CAPE VERDE ISLANDS IS REPORTED

(United Press Leased Wire.) Lisbon, April 7.—The Diario Noticias, a newspaper, prints today dispatches saying that a revolt has broken out in the Cape Verde islands and that Governor Campos is heading the insurgents. Troops will be rushed to the islands at once.

The Latest Player Piano

The latest 88-note player piano provides the ideal instrument for every member of the family because it meets all requirements of both the piano and the player. The player mechanism is contained within the compass of the ordinary piano case, and in no way interferes with the regular playing of the piano.

For the piano student or the artist the player mechanism is shut off by a single movement of one lever, and the instrument is instantly at his command; for those of the family who do not play, the 10-year-old sister to grandfather, the one movement is so simple and easy of operations that it is at once available for entertainment for the individual or for a company.

The Wily B. Allen Co. is restricted to no single agency, bound to represent no particular product, under obligations to no manufacturer; therefore, we buy only that in pianos and in player pianos which years of experience has taught us to be the best possible at the price, and we do not hesitate to back our judgment with absolute guarantees as to the quality of our goods. Our line of player pianos is consequently many times larger than that of any other house, offers better opportunity for comparison and a much wider choice in type, style and design. We urge you to inspect and test before you purchase, the HARDMAN, KRAKAUER, FISCHER, KNABE, EMERSON, HOBART M. CABLE, HARRINGTON, THE ANGELUS, THE AUTOTONE, MILTON and HENSEL PLAYER-PIANOS, as each represents the best in its respective grade.

We court investigation. If we cannot prove every claim we do not deserve your patronage. Easy payments.
