PORTSMOUTH WINS

IN GRAMMAR MEET

Give Portland Another Victory.

Los Angeles, April &-Portland has made it three out of four so far with the 4 to 3 victory yesterday over Vernon, Steen and Koestner beating Carson and Stewart. Portland made one of her runs in the third inning and put three more across in the sixth frame. Manager McCredie exercised excellent judg- perfect, Steen, when the latter showed slight country and the early spring had also signs of weakening.

Portland made a run in the third inning after Ryan and Krueger had fanned. Sheehan was safe on Burrell's error and promptly frisked second. Tommy came across the plate on Rapps' Kuhn closed the inning by single walking and being out stealing.

northerners took a commanding lead in the sixth inning, when, after Sheehan was retired, Rapps singled and stole second. Kuhn's dandy double brought him home. Then Peckinpaugh pumped out a sizzling three bagger that brought Kuhn across the pan. Rodgers. walked but was out stealing, and Steen prize, silver cup valued at $20-Mayor put his mates beyond reach by singling and driving in Peckinpaugh. Chad-bourne's out closed the inning.

Vernon fussed along until the seventh, when Steen grew wild and walked both Carlisle and Burrell. This was followed by Ross' long triple that scored Kinney, M. Putnam, Salem. the pair ahead of him. Sheehan took care of Brashear's popup, and later tossed Ross out at the plate on Pat-terson's grounder. Steen and Rapps zel, E. F. Rodgers, Salem; third prize disposed of Coy.

when Steen walked McDonald at the start of the eighth inning, he promptly placed the skids under "Big Six" and Best mare, 2 years and under 4. First put Koestner in. Koestner tightened up and fanned Carlisle, but Burrell came through with a single that scored McDonald and placed Stewart on third. Rodgers captured Ross' fly and the jig was off.

Rapps, Rodgers and Peckinpaugh made spectacular catches for Portland. while Carlisle robbed Krueger of a hit in the ninth with one on base, when he turned a complete somersault after nabbing his fly. The score:
