

PUBLIC ENTITLED TO KNOW ABOUT ARMY MANEUVERS

Democratic Senator Asserts That if Japan Negotiated for Coaling Station, American People Should Be Told.

Washington, April 13.—Discussing the Monroe doctrine and the Mexican situation today, Senator Rayner (Democrat, Maryland) unburdened himself in the Senate of a few thoughts with reference to the mobilization on the Mexican frontier.

"I am willing to admit," he said, "that if Japan were negotiating for a coaling station and bases for military and naval purposes in Mexico, we are entitled to know what the negotiations are. And I am satisfied that whatever the president does is not only proper and necessary, but will be, in my opinion, for the best interests of the country."

Situation Threatening. "It is stated that the situation in Guam is threatening and gives evidence of an intention by Japan to prepare for hostilities. Guam is one of our princely volcanic possessions. It is one of the Ladrone Islands. Guam is a charming spot. Its principal products are sugar, snakes, lizards, wild swine, rats and castor oil. If offered at auction, beyond its value as a military point and as a cable relay station, it would not bring a dollar and a half. But if ever possessed it would be cut off from communication with the Philippines."

In his speech Rayner insisted that the Monroe doctrine did not apply to Mexico. He said that policy had been confused with the Roosevelt policy which was the policy of the gentleman at Donnybrook Farm—to hit a head wherever they saw it, and added:

Attacks Corporations. "What right have our citizens to engage in enterprises in these countries, to charge them exorbitant prices for the construction of public works and then to demand that the United States nominate itself receiver of the revenues of the government that have driven into bankruptcy? If any of these syndicate mineowners, rubber companies or the Standard Oil suffer injury to their possessions they have no greater right to redress than the humblest individual whose property has been injured or destroyed."

Cummins (Republican, Iowa), introduced a bill requiring that the monetary commission, which was created by former Senator Aldrich, submit its final report on or before December 4 next.

United States Senator John D. Work of California today notified the senate that he would discuss the initiative and referendum as applied to state legislatures on next Thursday.

Generally speaking Rayner expressed confidence that there would be no war with either Mexico or Japan. He spoke to the Berger resolution demanding that American troops be withdrawn from the Mexican border, and broadly defended the action of the administration. He intimated, however, that the reported activity of the administration in enforcing the collection of American trade accounts was open to criticism.

WOODBURN MAKES NO CASE AGAINST CARTER

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Woodburn, Or., April 13.—The case against James Carter, arrested on the charge of throwing glass in the street, was dismissed this morning on motion of City Attorney Overton, on account of lack of evidence. Walter L. Toose was attorney for the defense.

MAN IN PRISON FOR DEBT SEEKS RELEASE

Petition for a writ of habeas corpus for J. E. Murphy, in the county jail for debt, was filed in the United States district court today by Attorney W. L. Cooper. The writ was made returnable tomorrow and Sheriff Stevens is ordered to bring the prisoner before Judge Bean. His accusers will be asked to show cause why Murphy should not be released.

Murphy, it is claimed, was arrested on a warrant from a judge following the granting of a body judgment for non-payment of a bill. He has been in jail since March 11. April 5 he filed a petition in bankruptcy in the United States court, in which the debt for which he was imprisoned is said to be listed.

Indian Is Murdered.

San Diego, Cal., April 13.—The body of Mandel Salazar, an Indian wood chopper, lies at the morgue here today and Robert H. James and Ernest Ferris, privates in the Thirtieth infantry, U. S. A., stationed at Tia Juana, are held charged with his murder following a drunken brawl. It is believed that Morales was a Mexican citizen. Ferris and James protest their innocence.

BREAKFAST BY PRESS CLUB IS ENVELOPED IN A DEEP MYSTERY

Just what is going to happen at the Press club breakfast in honor of candidates for municipal office Sunday, April 23, savors of mystery. President Vincent of the club is keeping a discreet silence, while D. O. Lively, "tyee" of the proposed jinks, with a lively committee is working hard on a set of plans which it is said will cause much hilarity, and incidentally give the people of Portland a glimpse into the inner workings of politicians' minds. At a meeting of the committee yesterday subcommittees on arrangement were appointed and preliminary plans of the breakfast stunts discussed. The meeting was secret, but it has leaked out that the political writers on the various newspapers are taking an active part in the preparation of the program. President Vincent will preside at the breakfast, and the jinks will be directed by Hi-muck-a-muck, Tyee Lively.

COMING TOO EARLY FOLK MISSES BAND

Reception Committee Prepares Fireworks for 11; He Arrives at 7 o'Clock.

Joseph W. Folk.

While the brass band was rehearsing "Hail to the Chief," while the chauffeurs were oiling and polishing their machines, while flags were being unfurled and appropriate speeches of welcome were being prepared under the direction of a large reception committee, all in readiness for the arrival of ex-Governor Joseph W. Folk of Missouri at 11 o'clock today, the ex-governor himself quietly slipped into town at 7 o'clock this morning and in plenty of time to pass personally on the preparations for his welcome.

There were three welcoming committees; one from the Kappa Alpha Greek letter society, composed of Judge Sam White and Morris Dunne; another from Portland Democrats, with Richard W. Montague, John Montague and R. D. Inman on it, and the third from the Missouri society, composed of some of the most enthusiastic Missourians who ever left their native state, namely W. M. Davis, Judge Thomas Jefferson Cleston, Alex. Sweek and Olesby Young.

It had been intended that the welcome to ex-Governor Folk should even surpass that accorded ex-President Roosevelt last week, and at first there was much disappointment because of the lost opportunity. Then came a resolution to make the entertainment indicate the welcome, so that Mr. Folk was entertained at luncheon today by the Kappa Alpha; he is being taken for an automobile view of Portland's beauties this afternoon; this evening he is to be entertained at a dinner by the Democrats, and tonight he will be introduced to the people of Portland at the Masonic temple by Judge Cleston, who is a native of Schuyler county.

Ex-Governor Folk is to speak under the auspices of the Collegiate Alumnae association at the Masonic temple to night and seats have been reserved for the ex-Missourians, who will attend in a body.

NAMED FRAZER HOME IN HONOR OF FOUNDER

What has heretofore been referred to as the "Detention home" will now be known as the "Frazer home." This change in names was brought about by the workers in the juvenile court, and county court, and is to be a memorial in honor of the late Judge Frazer, who was instrumental in establishing the home for delinquent and dependent children.

The home is under the control of the county and juvenile court. It is located at Fifty-second and Hassalo streets. The home was not given a name, other than that of "detention." This has been carried with it an idea of being a place of imprisonment, and the juvenile court workers feel it is too harsh. The object of the home is to offer aid to children who are in need, and is more of a home for the inmates.

DOG LEADS SEARCHERS TO BODY OF MASTER

(United Press Leased Wire.) Grass Valley, Cal., April 13.—The body of Prosper Ladue, a watchman at the Prospect Hill mine, who fell from an elevated walk, was found by miners as the result of a dog leading them to an adjoining mine. The dog was named "Ladue" and was known to the adjoining mine and investigation disclosed Ladue's body lying under a walk with his lantern by his side.

BLISS COMPLAINS OF DEPREDATIONS

Does Not Think Federals Active Enough in Protecting American Property.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Calexico, Cal., April 13.—General Tasker H. Bliss, commanding the department of California, has made formal complaint to the Mexican consul here concerning the failure of the federal army of Mexico to stop the depredations of the insurgents upon American ranch owners.

General Bliss stated to Enrique de La Sierra, the retiring Mexican consul, and to Angel Aguilar, his successor, that he believed Colonel Mayot was not making sufficient efforts to accomplish the purpose for which he was sent to Mexico. The Mexican officers were reminded that seven days had elapsed since Mayot and his force had gone into camp at Little Rock, and that up to that date no practical effort had been made to furnish protection for the government canal works or to stop the depredations constantly being made by the insurgents upon the livestock, wagons, equipment, supplies and other property of the residents of imperial valley.

General Bliss coupled his statement with the declaration that Mayot had a sufficient force to do all that was required of him, even to the re-taking of Mexicali and the restoration of peace in Lower California.

LA VOIE MUST FACE TWO FEDERAL CHARGES

(United Press Leased Wire.) When Assistant United States District Attorney Walter Evans started to arraign La Voie on a white slave charge before Judge Bean this morning he discovered that not only had La Voie been indicted by grand jury on the white slave charge, but he had also been indicted for sending improper matter through the mails. He was arraigned on both accusations.

It is claimed La Voie induced Myrtle Lovelace to accompany him from Portland to Camas, Wash., for improper purposes, and in violation of the interstate commerce clause of the white slave act. La Voie was a cook in a logging camp and met the woman there, it is said.

His trouble over the improper mailing matter was also brought about through Myrtle Lovelace, it is said. He is alleged to have sent Roy Turner, a liverman at Fifth and Montgomery streets, an unmailable postal card as a result of trouble between himself, and Turner over Mrs. Lovelace.

OREGON "U" BASEBALL TEAM BEATS WHITMAN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., April 13.—The University of Oregon baseball team won the first game of the conference series yesterday afternoon, defeating the nine from Whitman college by the score of 5 to 4. The game was played on a diamond of mud and fast fielding and base running was an impossibility. The Oregon team showed superiority in all departments of the game and should have won more easily. Roberts, a freshman from Salem high school, was the star of the game. His ready work on the bases was a feature of an otherwise listless game. Oregon worked two new pitchers, Houck and Cousins, former Washington high school men. The two teams will meet today when they leave for a tour of the northwest college.

PRICE OF POTATOES SOON TO BE HIGHER; CALIFORNIA BUYS

The entire Pacific northwest is in the grip of a potato famine. While the three states produced more than their usual share of tubers, the buying by California has been so great that the three states of the north coast do not hold a sufficient amount to feed their people until the new crop is ready. The price of potatoes has already advanced to 2 1/2 cents a pound in the wholesale market here, making the probable general retail price from 3 to 3 1/2 cents a pound. Even these high prices are expected to be lifted before many days have passed.

SAY LUMBER CONCERN IS BLOCKING NAVIGATION

Complaint has been forwarded United States District Attorney McCort by the United States engineers department that Yaquina Bay Lumber company is blocking navigation in Depot slough which empties into Yaquina Bay near Toledo. The slough is used as a highway by the farmers in the district during high water. There are few roads near that part of the coast and gasoline launches and rowboats are the favorite means of transporting the farmer and his produce to town and market.

The lumber company is said to have been using the slough for floating logs to the bay. They are dammed to await high water when all are driven down to the mill. But the damming process is alleged to deprive the farmers of their means of reaching town and their complaints have induced the government to investigate the matter.

TRAFFIC IN GIRLS CHARGED TO MAN

Six Young Women Say McCarty Proposed to Send Them to Alaska.

A fashionably dressed man giving the name of William McCarty was arrested this morning at 2 o'clock by Sheriff Stevens upon the charge of six girls, who said he had arranged to take them to Alaska for immoral purposes.

The six girls were to have left Portland in time to reach Seattle on April 17, on which date they were to take a steamer for Alaska. Their expenses for the journey were to have been paid at this end and the girls were then to repay the man who advanced the money. When the arrest of McCarty, Sheriff Stevens clears up the last feature in the case of Morris Weiser, who is in the county jail on three charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He is the auto driver caught last Friday night by the sheriff in rooms at the Empress hotel, where three girls were arrested with him. McCarty was arrested this morning in a Washington street hotel. He claims to be an agent for an eastern weekly. The arrest was made solely upon the statements of the girls, whose three are now in the custody of the sheriff. Two of the girls are under 18 years of age.

They told the sheriff and Deputy District Attorney Fitzgerald that they became acquainted with McCarty in lodging houses. H. McCarty, who is about 35 years old, is in the county jail. Just what part, if any, Morris Weiser has taken in the case is not definitely known, as some of the girls implicate him and some do not. Weiser was taken into custody yesterday evening upon the charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He does not appear on the tax rolls to have enough property to qualify. D. Weiser, M. J. Weiser and A. Wolfman went on his surety. Deputy Sheriff Bulger and Hunter rearrested Weiser last night, and Sheriff Stevens with Deputies Beatty and Bulger arrested McCarty.

Before his "fraud" trial, Hillman was summoned into U. S. District Judge Donworship's court and placed on trial for tampering with the jury, and convicted. Sentence of 20 days was passed on him after he had been tried and convicted on the principal charge. Hillman has served 10 days of this last sentence and will stick out the remainder, it is announced, while planning his main fight before the court of appeals. The $215,000 bail was put up by E. S. Gill, a Tacoma real estate man, and three surety companies.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) The woman claims her name is Marian Murry, wife of George Murry of Spokane, formerly a decorator of Des Moines. Hahn has been living with her four months. They met at Spokane. Hahn assumed the name of Fred Murry and later at Portland took the name of Fred Richards. He has a pawn ticket in his grip issued to Fred Richards by a Portland pawn-broker. ORCHARD WEALTH SEEN BY ROBNETT

Four Lewiston Bank Directors Relate Discovery of His Alleged Shortage.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Boise, Idaho, April 13.—The story of Clarence W. Robnett's Spokane orchard scheme was told to the jury in the trial of Frank W. Kottenbach and William F. Kottenbach, charged with abstraction of $137,000 of the Lewiston National bank's funds, today.

Robnett, the evidence disclosed, at the time he was bookkeeper of the Lewiston National, launched a scheme for the planting of an immense orchard 20 miles north of Spokane and the sale of the land in small tracts. For the purpose of launching this enterprise, it is claimed he took $91,000 from the bank. Four directors of the bank took the witness stand today and told of the discovery of Robnett's alleged shortage and of the steps taken to prevent injury to the bank because of it. The directors placed on the stand were: William A. Libert and Dr. J. B. Morris, of Lewiston; O. E. Guernsey of Spokane, and O. A. Kjos of Seattle. E. H. Apton, a juror, yesterday afternoon told the court he had formed an opinion of guilt and was therefore disqualified. Judge Rasch excused him and another man was drawn.
