KOESTNER IS EASY FOR OAKLANDERS

Beavers Drop Second Game of Series With Most Hated Rivals.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) San Francisco, April 13.—Wolverton's crew made a runaway race on the elongated Mr. Koestner of the Beavers yesterday and when the last man was out in the ninth, the score read 7 to 1.

Koestner was battered for 13 bingles, four of them being made in a row in the fourth inning. Portland made a noise like winning in the second inning when after Krueger singled and forced at second by Kuhn, the latter reached midway station on Peckinpah's out. He scored when Warren booted Rodger's grounder.

BEAVERS WILL RAISE PENNANT TUESDAY

Portland will raise the championship pennant won last year at the opening ceremonies of the Coast league next Tuesday afternoon at the Vaughn street park, thus adding interest to the greatest spring event in the sporting affairs of the city. Judge W. W. McCredie has ordered a 25 foot streamer with the figures "1911" spreading across it, and it will probably be unfurled to the breeze by Governor West, who will also pitch the first ball in the initial exercises.

Portland is quite distinctive in her flag day ceremonies. All of the other Coast league clubs wait until mid-season before holding "flag raising day." After Portland had won the 1906 championship, the Beavers filed their flag the first day of the following season in Portland, and that will be the case so long as Judge McCredie is the ruling spirit in baseball affairs in the Rose City.

"We always have our greatest crowd out on the opening day," explained the judge this morning, "and I want all the people to rejoice with us over the pennant raising ceremony. Somebody might regard flag raising on the first day as an ill omen when it is recalled that we finished last in 1907, following on the heels of our championship, but that was because we tried alone to live up to an emergency salary limit and never happen again and we shall have fighting teams as long as the game lasts in Portland.

FREDDIE WELSH PUTS IT OVER PAL MOORE

New York, April 13.—Freddie Welsh, the clever English lightweight, proved a stumbling block to Pal Moore's championship aspirations and the Philadelphia champion today has a popular decision credited on the wrong side of the ledger. Not only did Welsh outgeneral the American, but he also outfought and outpointed him. Welsh's footwork and blocking were a revelation. Time and again Moore jabbed wicked rights and lefts only to find Welsh's elbows in the way. The first two rounds were even, but Welsh was master in the others.

Detroit, April 13.—The opening of the American league season here yesterday was postponed on account of rain.

Washington, April 13.—Nearly 16,000 people watched the locals defeat the Boston Red Sox in the opening game here yesterday in a ragged contest by the score of 8 to 5. President Taft started the game when he tossed the first ball to Dolly Gray, ex-Coast league pitcher. The score: R. H. E. Washington 8 12 2 Boston 5 13 7

THE SOUND SLEEP OF GOOD HEALTH

Can not be overestimated and any ailment that prevents it is a menace to health. L. S. Sonthers, Eau Claire, Wis., says: "I have been unable to sleep soundly nights, because of pains between my back and soresness of my kidneys. My appetite was very poor and my general condition was much run down. I have been taking Foley's Kidney Pills but a short time and now sleep as sound as a rock, my general condition is greatly improved and I know the cause of my urinary irregularities. Try them. "Iron Man," Joe McGinnity, owner and manager of the Newark baseball club of the Eastern League, who has fractured his arm—the one which made him famous as a pitcher. While cranking an automobile the handle flew back and hit him just above the right wrist, fracturing a bone. It is not known definitely to what extent he has been injured, but it is believed that he has reached the end of his pitching career. This is a severe blow to the Newark team, as McGinnity was their mainstay in the box.

NICK'S PITCHERS WHO LOOK LIKELY

Camp Follower Segregates Men He Thinks Will Be on Staff.

Who will make the Portland Northwestern league pitching staff out of all the recruits Manager Williams has gathered together? Manager Nick isn't quite ready with his decision yet, but one of the camp followers who has watched all the pitchers in action thinks he sees the staff that will support the Nicks in their race after the class B pennant.

First of all, the camp follower places the veteran Jesse Garrett, who has rounded to in grand shape, and who has never felt better in his life. In fact the critic thinks Garrett ought to be over with the Coast league club from the amount of stuff he has on the ball now.

Then comes "Soldier" Frink, who can show the same stuff in a game that he has in practice. Frink has tremendous speed, a nice hook and good control. He has a natural talent for pitching, and if he possesses the required nerve will make Williams a good man.

Billy Bloomfield is showing up nicely, and his work reminds one of the days of the California State league, when he led the crack pitchers in that circuit a couple of years ago.

Lamine is coming around splendidly, and has all sorts of crooks to hurl at the batters. He looks like a good man. Babe Hollis will undoubtedly be carried.

Danny Sheehy is another of the camp followers who looks pretty well, and so does Williams. Danny looks as if he might be wild in practice, but in a game he is as steady as a veteran.

Tonneson and Berger are also showing well, but seem to be troubled a bit with control and condition. If Portland loses Glencie, Tonneson is reasonably sure of a job. Glencie is still working with the

HARVARD TRACK TEAM OPENS LONG SEASON

Boston, April 13.—Harvard's track season opened today with the interclass meet and will extend to May 27, the date of the intercollegiate final, and during this period not a week will pass without some activity for the Crimson athletes.

On April 29 Harvard will send men to the Pennsylvania relay games on Franklin field, Philadelphia. Dartmouth will come to Harvard for a dual meet May 6. The dual games between Harvard and Yale will be held at New Haven, May 13, and one week later the Crimson quarter milers will compete for the Wells cup.

The intercollegiate championship will be held in the Harvard stadium May 26 and 27. Nicks, and says even though he is finally awarded to Adrain he might conclude to remain on the coast and pitch semi-professional. Glencie's contract with the Portland club was registered months ago, and Judge McCredie is going to make a fight for the dandy little southerner.

Yates, Dorland, Allegaert and Baldwin are hardly ripe for the fast class B company according to the camp follower. He thinks Yates too erratic, Dorland too clumsy, Allegaert too small and Baldwin too inexperienced.

Of course the camp follower may be all wrong, but then his line of argument is interesting. oods merchant. His connection with Stewart brought him more publicity in after life, when he made affidavits setting forth that the body of fr. Stewart had been stolen by ghouls and also charging that Mr. Stewart's will had been tampered with in the interest of the
