

10,000 CHILDREN'S TEETH EXAMINED IN FREE CLINIC

Report of Dental Association Committee Shows Extent of Benefits Accomplished—Many Donate Services.

Calling attention to the excellent work being done by the free dental clinic for school children at present being maintained one day a week at the city hall, the committee of dentists appointed by the Portland Dental Association to look into the feasibility of establishing and maintaining a permanent free clinic for the benefit of the children of the worthy poor who are enrolled in the city schools have submitted an interesting report.

The matter of featuring the teaching of proper care of the teeth among children has been under consideration among local educators for a long time and the clinic idea has been taken so that the children of the poorer people may have their mouths put in proper shape and taught how and why to care for them themselves. The report follows:

First Ascertained Sentiment.
"To the Portland Dental Association: After interviewing the mayor of the city, members of the city council, newspaper, the board of health and various prominent citizens in order to ascertain the sentiment for the desire of a clinic and also to give publicity and create a demand for same, your committee found that some members of the board of education had previously given this matter some thought and your committee was encouraged to establish a clinic and given permission to have an examination of the mouths of the school children by the ethical dentists of the city.

A sum of $1000 was voted by the board to equip the free clinic, but as our local supply houses and several members of the profession very generously donated the use of much of the equipment, the board of education amended their vote to include maintenance for the clinic.

Your committee soon found it to be too much of a burden to supervise the examination in the schools and also to properly handle the free clinic, and another committee was appointed to cooperate with the original committee in supervising the examinations.

Many Donate Services.
"This committee secured the services of 117 dentists in the city and the mouths of 10,000 school children were examined. This included only those from the first to the seventh grades. Considering that this was one of the first examinations of this character to take place in the west, a very satisfactory examination was made.

Through the kindness of the mayor of the city a large room in the city hall, together with the plumbing, janitor service and laundry was given free to the clinic; the water board gave free the use of water and the Pacific States Telephone company gave free use of telephone.

"So as not to interfere with the attendance at school and not to put too great a burden on the members of the profession, the clinic was open one day in the week, Saturday, with two dentists in attendance in the morning and two in the afternoon. The first few Saturdays our clinic was greatly overcrowded, but with additional equipment and working by appointments only the clinic has been able to care for most of those making an appearance.

The clinic has now been opened 13 Saturdays, in which time the following services have been rendered: Total number of patients 293

SAYER READY TO START LONG TRIP

Will Spend Six Weeks in Aiding and Organizing Commercial Clubs.

James J. Sayer.

James J. Sayer leaves tomorrow morning on a tour of eastern and central Oregon for the Portland Commercial club to gather information and to give pointers on how to most successfully conduct publicity campaigns for settlers.

Mr. Sayer is one of the assistants to Manager C. C. Chapman, of the club's promotion committee, and will visit the various smaller organizations, to explain to them more fully than can be done by correspondence how the work can be made most effective.

In places where there is no club, Mr. Sayer will take the initiative toward organization.

Perhaps the most important feature of Mr. Sayer's trip will be the gathering of information on the resources of the various sections and general conditions there, this information to be used by the Portland club's inquiry department, which is daily in receipt of all kinds of questions pertaining to every part of the state.

Mr. Sayer will be gone about six weeks.

Miss Flossie Shambrook Quits Benson's Late Office; Governor Says Jobs Are Up to Olcott, Who Won't Talk.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., April 15.—Insisting that he has not yet been appointed and therefore is in no position to give interviews on questions relating to positions at the disposal of the secretary of state, Ben W. Olcott, Governor West's choice for that office, will give no intimation of his action in the choice of assistants until he takes office Monday morning.

When asked if he would retain Chief Clerk H. H. Corey, Mr. Olcott petted his splendidly bred Irish setter and said he had given the matter of those appointments no thought at all.

"I have not given the matter three minutes' thought," said Mr. Olcott. "I am not yet secretary of state and may never be."

Olcott is a great lover of dogs. He is said to think more of the new Irish setter presented to him the day Governor West had a chance to stay on, than of his "Governor" in honor of the occasion—than of any political job that could be offered him. Today he was exhibiting a telegram received from A. W. Sanborn of Roseburg in which the latter said he felt like giving Olcott his prize winning Alredale because he felt so good over the probable appointment of Olcott as secretary of state. Olcott was much pleased with the prospect of getting the famed Alredale.

Corey Very Likely to Stay.
It is the general belief that Olcott will retain H. H. Corey, though no intimation of such action can be obtained through Olcott himself. What others will remain in office is entirely a matter of conjecture, though it is believed Nicholas Haas, who is custodian of records and files; A. C. Nye, mailing clerk; and J. E. Allison, assistant auditing clerk, have a chance to stay on, but he has been employed at the statehouse for 24 years and knows every corner and nook in that structure from dome to basement.

Allison was appointed by Secretary of State Dunbar and Nye by Mr. Benson. Among those who will get at once are Frank T. Wright, clerk of Salem, C. A. Ziegler of Douglas county and C. E. Rockwell of Multnomah county who was made head janitor by Mr. Benson.

Miss Shambrook Out Already.
Miss Flossie Shambrook, who was head stenographer to Mr. Benson during all the time he was governor and also stenographer to Acting Governor Jay Bowerman, has already resigned, having delivered her resignation to Chief Clerk Corey today, and departed for Roseburg.

Governor West says he has not discussed the matter of positions to be filled by the new secretary of state and that those matters will be left entirely to the new appointee, who he now makes no pretense of being other than Mr. Olcott, who has been a lifelong friend of Governor West. The governor has confidence in Olcott and says he is excellently equipped for all duties that will be required of him in his new position.

IF OLD SOL GRINS TODAY ALL GOTHAM WILL DON FINERY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, April 15.—Five hundred thousand New Yorkers with Easter finery to display, and 500,000 others who have no finery of their own but like to gaze on the trappings of others, are praying for a fair Sunday for the annual Fifth Avenue parade may pass in all its glory.

Fifth avenue's Easter parade is one of the features of the old town, as New York merchants report the heaviest eastern buying on record, tomorrow's display, if skies be bright, is expected to be one vast moving pageant of color, representing the last word in the art of the modiste, milliner, tailor and haberdasher.

Special details of police handle the throngs, for a congestion would result disastrously to frocks and hats and other sartorial effects. Thousands of excursionists have come to the city for the celebration. Three thousand are registered at hotels tonight from Canadian points alone.

Plans for the reorganization of the better highways movement in Oregon include an effort to secure membership from all classes whose interests are advanced by scientific and permanent good roads construction. In the list are included the transportation agencies, the farmers, the commercial organizations and the motorists.

That the attitude of the commercial clubs of the state may be learned, Walter L. Priest, secretary of the Oregon Good Roads association, has been sending this letter to all the clubs in the state during the last week:

association, on a very much more effective, state wide and systematic basis, at a meeting which will be held in this city on or about April 25, and it is the purpose of the new association to organize a branch of the state association in every county in the state, each member of which will become a member of the state organization.

"In order that we may obtain all the aid possible in the securing of a widely distributed membership this letter is written to ask if you will give the movement your hearty cooperation and active support, not only for the benefit of your own county, but also for the benefit of the state at large.

"The membership fee in the new organization will not be excessive, but it will be expected that each member of the same shall help us carry forward the work by individual action.

"An immediate reply to this letter is respectfully requested in order that we may read your answer before the reorganization meeting above referred to."

PRAYERS WILL OPEN COUNCIL'S SESSION
La Harpe, Kan., April 15.—Religious services at the opening of each session of the city council is the unique innovation planned by Mayor-elect Peter W. Jury, to begin as soon as he takes the oath of office, next Thursday night. The form of the services has not been prepared, Jury said tonight.

MATE, ILL, UNABLE TO ATTEND DYING SPOUSE

Unable to travel because of illness, Holton Parker, a pioneer of Washington, who is living at 163 Seventeenth street, North, was obliged to remain in Portland while his wife, Mrs. Laura Belle Parker, died and was buried in Walla Walla. Mr. Parker directed the funeral arrangements by letter.

Mrs. Parker was a former resident of Salem and Portland and a sister of the late Dr. John Glen, a Portland pioneer. She and her mother and brother came west from Ohio and first settled near Salem in 1871. Later the family moved to Walla Walla, where Mrs. Parker remained until a few years ago. She and Mr. Parker then moved to Portland, but afterward returned to Walla Walla. Mrs. Parker had been ill for some time, but her condition did not become serious until recently. Besides her widower, a son and a sister of other relatives survive.

Mr. Parker is 79 years old. He settled in Walla Walla when it was a village and formerly owned 40 acres, which now form part of the townsite.

MUSCATINE STRIKE SITUATION SERIOUS

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Muscatine, Iowa, April 15.—The situation here tonight is more serious than ever because the manufacturers promise to open the button factories Monday morning with non-union workers and the 3000 strikers charge Governor Carroll with playing into the hands of their enemies by ordering Burr companies of state troops here to preserve order.

Strikers and soldiers had words earlier tonight, but so far there has been no violence. The strikers are under control of President Frank of the State Federation of Labor and the union men are circulating a petition for the recall of Sheriff Van Atta because he asked for troops. They also charge Mayor Hill with being party to a plot to have their leader, E. T. Flood, arrested for rioting early Friday morning.

MT. HOOD LINE WILL BEGIN POWER SERVICE

The Mount Hood Railway and Power company will begin distributing power on the west side of the river at the steam-electric plant of the Monarch Lumber company on the peninsula tomorrow. The plant was recently purchased by the new power and lighting corporation.

The first customers to secure power on the west side from the new company will be Albers Brothers and Balfour, Guthrie & Co., the former operating a mill plant and the latter a grain warehouse on the waterfront near the steel bridge.

To temporarily convey the power across the river transmission wires are being strung over the steel bridge, but the company will at once begin to lay a submarine transmission cable across the river. A special permit has been secured to temporarily string the wires across the bridge.

AGAIN IS HEATHEN CHINEE PECULIAR

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, April 15.—Bret Harte's old phrase that "the heathen Chinese is peculiar," was exemplified here today when Patrolman Kelly found Yee Wo and Yee Kin, the same street laundry men, standing in the rear of their wash shop, hands held up. Fainting from exhaustion, but too frightened to give way to their tired muscles, the Chinese had stood in the same position since midnight, when they had begun to hold him up. Before the doctor could kill him he shot the negro three times, wounding him dangerously. The news spread, and a mob started for the hospital. The officers took the wounded negro out the back door to the county jail and put him under heavy guard to prevent a lynching.
