

VACCINATION FOR ALL PASSENGERS TO ALASKA PORTS

Travelers on Bertha and Dolphin Protest Vainly Against Federal Order; Are Told to Submit or Stay Aboard.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., April 21.—Government physicians boarded the steamers Bertha and Dolphin before sailing and shocked passengers by announcing that none could land in Alaska unless vaccinated, owing to smallpox in the north. Mining men and tourist women protested that the order was an abridgment of their personal rights, but the only concession granted was to permit the women to have their limbs instead of their arms scratched. Past Assistant Surgeon M. H. Foster will go to Alaska to investigate health conditions. The vessels will touch all Alaskan ports and no passengers for any port will be exempted from vaccination, although smallpox is confined principally to Port Townsend and Juneau.

ARRESTED FOR ILLEGAL FISHING; BOATS TAKEN

Added by the 15 days' extension of the closed season that became effective last year, a great run of chinook or king salmon has entered the Willamette river and are reported by Deputy Fish Warden S. L. Rathbun to be ascending the fish ladder at Oregon City by the hundreds daily. It is the first time since the closed season was extended from April 15 to May 1 that the salmon have gotten this far. The number of would-be violators of the fishing law balance the unusual salmon run, said Deputy Rathbun today. Already 20 nets have been confiscated. Twenty water bailiffs are constantly on duty watching the Willamette and Columbia. At St. Johns yesterday Fred Strong and Fred Girard were convicted of gill netting in the Columbia before Judge Downs, and, unable to pay a fine of $50 each, were committed to jail. Their nets and boats were confiscated. The fishers were caught by Water Bailiffs Ed Martini and C. Tennant. The nets and boats of G. Rosentretter were confiscated at Oregon City by Water Bailiffs Arthur Mendell and G. Gustifson, and a warrant was issued today for Rosentretter's arrest. Other violators of the fishing law are being sought by the deputy fish warden and his assistants. They propose to enforce the law rigidly until the open season commences May 1.

Celebration in Italy.
(United Press Leased Wire.) Rome, April 21.—Commemorating the centennial of Italian unity and the birthday of the Eternal City, an international ethnographic exposition was opened here today. The fine arts exposition here was opened last month. Spain has marble quarries which have been operated by the same methods since the time of the Moorish dominion.

KELLY AND HIS LAWYER TAKEN TO COUNTY JAIL

San Francisco, April 21.—Attorney J. W. Cochrane and S. Foster Kelly were taken yesterday to the county jail to begin serving the sentence of five days' imprisonment imposed by Judge Mogan for contempt of court in seeking to evade a court order regarding the children of Mrs. Iva M. Henry. The appellate court refused to grant a writ of certiorari with which Cochrane and Kelly, expected to keep out of jail.

PETER J. LYNCH, DISTRICT PHONE MANAGER, IS DEAD

(United Press Leased Wire.) Seattle, Wash., April 21.—Peter J. Lynch, district commercial manager of the Sunset Telephone company, is dead following an ear operation. He began his service with the Bell company in California 20 years ago in a humble position. He was manager at Oakland when he was promoted to Seattle to direct extensions preparatory to the Alaska exposition. He took an active part as a member of many organizations.

New York, April 21.—The man from Texas, of whom there is a goodly number in the metropolis, will take possession of the Plaza hotel tonight to celebrate the famous victory of the Texas pioneers over the Mexicans at the battle of San Jacinto. A "battle of flowers" such as is held in San Antonio every April 21, will be reproduced on a smaller scale by the Lone Star expatriates tonight.

1000 NEW SUIT PATTERNS

ARRIVED TODAY, WHICH WERE ORDERED FOR THE EASTER TRADE.

These woollens were shipped from Glasgow, Scotland, and should have arrived in Portland and been delivered to Robert Douglass in time for the Easter trade. Owing to bad weather at sea, the steamer was late and the woollens have just arrived. Here they are for you to choose from—1000 beauties. Not one pattern was made to sell for less than $40, and from that to $60.

Here you will find anything you desire—homespun made in a hand loom, each an exclusive pattern; the finest quality of Scotch tweeds, chevots, worsteds and serges in all colors and mixtures.

This stock must be reduced at once, as no tailor in the world can afford to carry so many woollens at this time of the year, and to turn these woollens into cash at once we will give

"It will surprise the average individual to learn that WE IMPORT about one-quarter of the potatoes used in this country."—Arthur Chapman in the April issue of the Technical World Magazine.

In the same article the writer says the little country of Germany, alone raises nearly 1,700,000,000 bushels of potatoes each year, one-third of the world's potato crop.
