Weather Conditions.

A small low pressure area has made its appearance over British Columbia and the North Pacific high pressure area has moved south to the Great Salt Lake Basin. The barometer is now rising rapidly on the North Pacific coast. A large high pressure area is central over the Red River valley of the north. During the last 24 hours showers have occurred in southern Idaho, northern Utah, the upper Lake region, and in the middle Atlantic and New England states. It is warmer in Oregon, eastern Washington, Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota, and cooler in northern California and the South Atlantic states. Elsewhere in the United States the temperature has remained nearly stationary. The conditions are favorable for fair weather in this district Saturday, preceded this afternoon and tonight by showers in northern Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It will be warmer tonight in southern Idaho.

FORECASTS.

Portland and Vicinity—Showers and cooler this afternoon; showers tonight, Saturday fair. Westerly winds. Oregon—Fair south, showers north portion tonight. Saturday fair, except showers extreme northeast portion. Westerly winds. Washington—Showers and cooler this afternoon; showers tonight, Saturday fair. Westerly winds. Idaho—Showers tonight; warmer south portion. Saturday fair.

Verdict for Barker—After an all night deliberation, a jury in the circuit court returned a verdict of $2000 this morning in favor of H. J. Barker against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company for the death of William Barker. Ten men signed the verdict. The jury was divided on the amount that should be awarded the plaintiff. Three jurors held out for the full sum asked for, which was $7500. William Barker was killed last August at Commercial avenue and Falling streets. He was with a wagon load of people returning from a picnic, when a streetcar going south ran into the wagon. Barker was 23 years old and an engraver.

Twenty-one years ago (April 18, 1890) I started the business I am now running as E. H. Moorhouse & Co. Today I sold my lease at 411 Washington, which was but a short one, and will soon retire from the retail, though I probably continue the manufacturing part for a period until sold. I thank you kindly for the good will shown and the patronage given me. On or about May 15 we must give possession. During this time our stock and some fixtures are for sale in whole or in part. Our prices, as our customers know, always were low. Nothing need now stand in the way of a sale. E. H. Moorhouse, 411 Washington street.

Will Read "Madame Butterfly"—"Madame Butterfly," the story that, as an opera, was a remarkable success both in Europe and America, will be read at the men's meeting in the auditorium of the Portland Young Men's Christian Association next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The reader will be Miss Mabel Ferris, who recently came to Portland from Washington, D. C. The reading will be accompanied by instrumental music, played by Mrs. J. W. McMichael, J. W. Kramer, baritone, will sing.

Tried Suicide, Failed—Charles Newman, being refused a drink in a saloon at 878 Sherlock street yesterday, went into the yard back of the saloon, found a clothes line there and hung himself to the fence. Somebody cut the rope and Newman fell in a heap. He picked himself up, saw the rope was too short and in disgust started down the railroad track. Policeman Walter Padrick arrested him. Judge Taxwell gave Newman a 30 days' sentence on the rockpile.

Can Accommodate Women—Judge Morrow of the circuit court has discovered that Attorney Geneva Fouts misrepresented conditions at the state prison and facilities for detaining women there in regard to the case of Mrs. Carrie Kersh, who has been sentenced to 15 years for her part in the murder of W. A. Johnson. The judge recently listened to the plea of Attorney Fouts that the prison had no facilities for handling women prisoners.

Congregational Association—The fifteenth annual meeting of the Portland Association of Congregational churches will be held with the University Park Congregational church April 25 and 26. The association's theme is: "For Better Things." Many delegates will be in attendance and an interesting and instructive meeting is looked forward to.

Negro Assaulter to Rock Mile—John Morrison, who was arrested at Fourth and Everett streets yesterday afternoon after an assault on Lee Fou, a crippled Chinese, and a chase in which more than a hundred persons took part, was sentenced to 90 days on the rock pile this morning by Judge Taxwell. He was said to have been caught in the act of robbing the Chinaman's room several days ago.

Church of Nazarene—Special meetings will begin in the First Church of the Nazarene, East Seventh and East Couch streets, this evening, continuing every day until May 1. Services week days, 2:30 and 7:30 except Saturday afternoon, Sunday services, 11 a. m., 3 and 7:30 p. m. Rev. C. W. Ruth, of Indianapolis, Ind., will have charge.

Dedicate Church Sunday—The newly constructed Sunnyside Congregational church, built at the corner of East Thirty-second and East Taylor streets at a cost of $40,000, will be dedicated Sunday, April 23, at 11 a. m. Rev. Luther H. Dwyot will deliver the dedicatory sermon. Farewell services will be held at the old edifice next Sunday.

Sentence Suspended—The jury which yesterday heard the case against the Geneva association, which was raided by officers last Sunday night while the members were lined up at the bar in the club rooms, found the defendants guilty, but recommended leniency and Judge Taxwell suspended sentence.
