

REBELS REPORTED TO BE MARCHING ON MEXICO CITY

Despite Extension of Armistice for Five Days Ambassador Wilson Says Fighting Continues Near Capital.

(United Press Special Wire.)
Washington, April 28.—Despite the fact that Francisco Madero and representatives of President Diaz agreed to an extension of the armistice for another five days while peace is discussed in the vicinity of Juarez, reports from Ambassador Wilson at Mexico City today say that the fighting in the territory contiguous to that city is in full blast.

Five thousand rebels, it was reported today, have left Cuernavaca and are marching toward Mexico City. A report which has not yet been verified says that Diaz intends to resign June 26, the anniversary of his election.

El Paso, Texas, April 28.—As a result of the first general review of Madero's army, Pascual Orozco, who once tried to take Juarez, today is second in command to Madero, with the rank of brigadier general. Commissions at the review, which was held last night, were also distributed to the other chiefs of the revolt, Garibaldi, Blanco, Villa and Eduardo Hay, now a prisoner at Casas Grandes, were made colonels. Raul Madero and Roque Garza were made majors of the army of liberation.

Despite Madero's wartime review, the armistice was today extended for five days to permit the peace commissioners for the Mexican government and for the insurgents to arrive here. Dr. Vasquez Gomez, head of the Washington Junta, and Francisco Madero Sr., it is expected, will represent the rebels. Gomez is expected to arrive here Saturday night. Governor Ahumada of Chihuahua will arrive here tonight. He will be one of the federal commissioners when the treaty making commences.

T. W. DAVENPORT, HOMER'S FATHER, DIES AT PASADENA

remembered. He leaves a wife and three daughters of Pasadena, the son, Homer, of New York, two brothers, John of Washington and Eben of Silverton. Mr. Davenport was not identified with any lodges. He was elected county surveyor in 1864 and in 1866 and was a member of the house of representatives in 1868 and 1870. He was nominated for congress by the independents in 1874 but was not elected. He became state senator in 1882. He married Miss Flora Geer, daughter of R. C. Geer, in 1852. She died in 1870 and Mr. Davenport married again, in 1872, Mrs. N. E. Wisner of Linn county. He will probably have the largest funeral in the knowledge of Silverton.

DAVENPORT'S FIRESIDE WAS RALLYING PLACE FOR ALL HIS FRIENDS

T. T. Geer, 470 East Fifty-third street, was a lifelong friend of T. W. Davenport. Mr. Geer says Mr. Davenport came to Oregon overland in 1852 and settled in the Waldo hills, near Salem. For the first few years all attention was given to farming and surveying, in which latter profession he was well versed.

On November 17, 1854, he married Miss Florida Geer, cousin of T. T. Geer. She was the daughter of Ralph P. Geer.

In 1874, when the friends of Mr. Davenport urged him to make the race for congress upon an independent platform, Richard Williams was running for the Republican party and George Lodow of Umatilla county represented the Democratic party. Davenport and Williams held joint debates throughout the state, and interest ran high in these discussions. They were frequently referred to as the Lincoln-Douglas debates. The Democratic candidate was elected, however.

Mr. Geer says Mr. Davenport was a great conversationalist, and well informed on all subjects. Being an extensive reader and student, his fireside was a general place for his friends to meet. His library was large and included many medical books.

In politics, he was somewhat changeable, but usually independent. In an early day, the Whig party claimed him, later the Republicans claimed him, and upon a few occasions, his vote was cast for Democrats.

Governor Lord appointed him land commissioner during his term in office, at the close of which he returned to Silverton and retired. His first wife died in 1870. Homer Davenport, the artist, was the only child of this union. Five children were born to the second marriage, a few years later.

CROWD JOINS IN CHASE FOR ROBBER SUSPECT

The neighborhood in the vicinity of Milwaukee and Karl streets was enlivened yesterday afternoon by a man chase in which several hundred men, women and children participated and which resulted in the arrest by Patrolman Swensen of Robert Robinson, a bartender at East Twenty-sixth and Tibbets streets, on a charge of assault with intent to rob.

Short after 6 o'clock a small boy ran to the patrolman's home and stated that some man had walked into a little store conducted by William Smith, aged 71 years and had struck the man in the face with his fist knocking him down and then robbing him of $1 in cash and attempting to rob him of $140 which was in the store. The patrolman, who was changing his clothes, grabbed his gun and star and started in pursuit, and after chasing him for nearly a mile in which a bicycle was pressed into service he overtook the fugitive. When accosted, Robinson drew a gun but after a fight the officer overcame the obstreperous man and he was brought to police station.

This morning in police court he asked for a continuance until Monday. He insists that it is a case of mistaken identity and that he only ran when he saw he was pursued, and feared that he might be lynched.

RICH CATTLEMEN WILL NOT RECEIVE PARDON

(United Press Special Wire.)
Washington, April 28.—The department of justice today notified Bartlett Richards, William Comstock, Charles Jameson and Aquila Tripiett, millionaire cattlemen of Nebraska, who were convicted of having induced homesteaders to fraudulently claim thousands of acres of land in that state, that President Taft had positively refused to consider their applications for pardon.
