DARKNESS CLOSES 13-INNING GAME

Portland Fights Great Uphill Battle Against Sacramento Pennant Chasers.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Sacramento, Cal., May 17.—Darkness brought yesterday's game between Sacramento and Portland to a close at the end of the 13th inning with the score 6 to 5. It was a great game and the Beavers displayed a fighting spirit that the Sacramento fans were compelled to admire.

O'Rourke Scores Two. O'Rourke brought in Lerchen and Thompson with a single in the second inning and the Senators made another in the third when Danzig got on third and two outs. Peckinpugh dropped Murray's throw to catch Jimmy Lewis at second on his steal.

Portland made a run in the fourth when Rapps singled, took second on Sheehan's out and registered on Peck's single.

In the fifth Krueger singled and Rapps was safe on O'Rourke's error. Sheehan filed to Van Buren, but the pair on base scored on Peck's single to left.

For Sacramento Lewis scored on a wild throw to third to catch him napping.

Portland tied the score in the seventh when Rodgers singled, took second on a passed ball and scored on Ryan's single.

Both Score in Tenth. In the tenth each made a run. Rodgers got on base on Shinn's low throw and took third when Thompson threw to the fence to catch him napping.

Ryan's single scored him. Van Buren's double, Lewis' infield hit and Hunt's single scored Van for the tying run.

LONGANECKER HURTS NORTHWESTERN GAME

Umpire Longanecker did more yesterday afternoon to hurt the reputation of the Northwestern league in Portland than a hundred poorly played, bone-headed affairs, when he called the game at the end of the fifth inning on account of "wet grounds."

Worse Than O'Connell. Longanecker's action yesterday was more palpable than the now famous game that Umpire Jack O'Connell called in the thirteenth inning in one of the Coast league games "on account of darkness," when the afternoon sun was shining with almost its midday brightness.

The footing of the Northwestern league in Portland is precarious at any rate and its standing should not be endangered by such an action as that of yesterday. One of the largest weekend crowds of the season was present. Pitcher Tonneson had not allowed a hit to the Spokane club, while Bonner was being freely called and the northwestern evidenced a disposition to quit cold at the first raindrops.

Portland should have had a run in the fifth canto of yesterday's session but Bradley stumbled rounding third base, delaying his sprint long enough for Zimmerman, center field, to make a perfect heave to the plate of Mundorf's single. "Jawn," you must keep together when runs mean something.

A very funny incident occurred in the fifth inning when the umpire did not know whether to proceed with the game or not. Casey walked out to the pitcher's box and grabbed some dirt that was dry and showed it to the umpire, telling him the field was dry enough to play ball.

Casey wants to know whether or not the Ort to wear mens- or boys garments when he is trying to stow away the wood in his cellar. Pantky, let it bay go by in a crowd.

Jack Bradley showed the fans just how good he can nab foul balls with one hand in the first inning. Frisk fouled off a high one and it appeared as though Bradley had misjudged it. It had him going around in circles like a merry-go-round until it neared mother earth and then he copped it with an ungloved hand.

The only thing the Indians secured that resembled a hit was the one that Eddie Mensor sent over behind second base after tossing Ostdeck out at first base. The captain of the Indians slaps

Tonneson Enigma, While Bonner Is Batted Very Freely by Nicks.

With big Bonner, the Philadelphia turnback, being clouted for seven hits in five innings, and Lefty Tonneson holding the champions without a hit in that period, Umpire Longanecker called the game on account of wet grounds. Bonner was no enigma to the locals and only the veriest look-alikes vented them from scoring a run in the fifth, when Bradley was nipped at the plate. Tonneson had everything and the Champs were helpless.

Double Steps Chance. Portland got two hits in the third inning, Mundorf starting with a blow to right field. Then Casey sacrificed and Mundy tried to make third when that bag was momentarily unguarded, but was out by an eyelash on a quick relay from Cartwright, who took Netzels' throw to morgan Casey. Stovall then singled, but was out when a hit-and-run play was fussed up by the champions, Bonner to Ostdeck to Nerdyke.

Miller started the fifth inning by walking and Bradley was safe on a scratch hit to Nerdyke. Tonneson hit to Bonner, who forced Miller at third, Bradley going to second. Then Mundorf poked his secondarily clean single into center field and Bradley lost his bearings turning third, being out by a yard at the plate on a beautiful peg from Zimmerman to Ostdeck. Tonneson was on third and Mundorf on second, when Casey fouled out to Ostdeck.

After the Portland players took the field in a comparatively gentle shower, Longanecker called the game on account of "wet grounds."

San Francisco, May 17.—Reports received here today from Los Angeles that the Al Wolgast and Pucky McFarland had been matched to meet in that city on Labor day by Tom McCarey were flatly denied here by Tom Jones, manager of the lightweight champion. The story said that McFarland was to weigh in at 154 pounds five hours before the fight.

"The whole thing is bosh," said Jones. "No such arrangement has been made. Why, the weight alleged to have been allowed McFarland is absurd. It would allow him to enter the ring at about 140 pounds. No if Pucky McFarland meets Wolgast it will be at no such weight. There is nothing to the story."

DAN O'LEARY SPONSER OF WALKING CONTEST. Chicago, May 17.—Dan O'Leary, champion walker, is here today arranging a 500 mile walking race to begin in Indianapolis June 12. The race will be held in the baseball park, as the home team will be on the road at that time. The winner will receive $500, with $250 for second, $125 for third, $75 for fourth and $50 for fifth prize.

"KNOCKOUT" BROWN TO MEET MURPHY AGAIN. (United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, May 17.—Negotiations were completed today for a return match between "Knockout" Brown and "Harlem" Tommy Murphy. The affair is booked for May 25, Danny Morgan, Brown's manager, plans to keep his man busy, as he has matched "Knockout" to meet Abe Attell June 8. "Nothing would suit me better," said Morgan today, "than for Brown to take Owen Moran's place against Wolgast July 4. He is going better now than ever before."

WET GROUNDS SAVE SPOKANE'S CHAMPS

For the first time in the history of the Amateur Athletic union the national wrestling championships will be held in a western city, opening tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in the Heilig theatre with entries from practically every prominent wrestling club in the United States.

The wrestlers are instructed to be at the stage door of the Heilig theatre tomorrow night at 6:45 o'clock to weigh in and draw lots. It is announced that the matches will positively start at 8 o'clock in order to prevent them from running up to midnight. There will not be a moment's delay during the entire evening, so complete are the arrangements which have been made under the direction of Edgar Frank, chairman of the wrestling department of the Multnomah club, under whose auspices the meet is being held.

The seat sale has even exceeded the expectations of the Multnomah club officials and the largest crowd that ever saw an amateur championship bids fair to be present. There will be some 30 six minute bouts tomorrow night and about the same number of matches Friday night. The wrestling will be just as good on the first as on the last night.

Instructor McIntyre of the Vancouver, B. C. Athletic club, arrived this morning from the north with Walker, a middleweight, and Hatch, a welterweight. Walker will leave immediately after the championships for London, England, where he will be one of the representatives from the colonies in the great coronation athletic meet in June.

WALSH AND DELMONT FIGHT ANOTHER DRAW

Boston, May 17.—Fight fans were unanimous today that it will take more than 10 rounds to settle the question of supremacy between Jimmy Walsh and Al Delmont. In their tenth encounter here they fought 10 fast rounds to a draw. On five previous occasions they have fought each other to a standstill. Walsh has won three of the ten combats and Delmont one.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN.

Well say, we had "some" brand of baseball all to ourselves for a few moments yesterday. Any time the Nicks hold their opponents from scoring a run or securing a hit for five innings that is some baseball.

Tonneson had everything and only one Indian reached first base and he was a "big" injun chief named Zimmerman. He went there through the courtesy of Tonneson, who gave him a base on balls. That's all.

Rain started falling in the first inning out not enough of it to stop the game. Later on, about the third inning, it started teasing us again. Finally it fell so hard the ump's had to stop the battle twice and then—he shouted "Game called on account of wet grounds."

Jack Grant said it was the same rain the southwest winds blew up here two weeks ago and that the northwest winds were blowing it back again. Does that sound logical. It must be because Adolf Rebe concurred in the argument. Whoop!!!

M'ALEER SELECTS TIGERS AS CHOICE

Washington Manager Points Out Great Infield as Encouraging Sign.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, May 17.—Believing that Manager Jennings of Detroit has picked up some clever puching material, Manager Jimmy McAleer of the Washington Americans today picked the Tigers to win the American league pennant.

"Detroit," said McAleer, "won three pennants with a bum infield, one pitcher and a decrepit first baseman. One year the pitcher was Mullin and another it was Donovan, while Rossman and Tom Jones, never first class basemen, were on first."

"Just look at the infield this year. Jim Delahanty is a splendid second baseman and Bush is as good a shortstop as lives. Moriarity is as clever a third baseman as there is in the league and the new man on first hasn't got to be a world beater" to be better than Rossman or Jones. "The pitchers all look good and the team is hitting hard."
