PORTLAND NOSES SENATORS IN 11TH

Koestner Wins His Own Game With Drive That Escapes Tommy Lewis.

Sacramento, Cal., May 18.—Portland's four runs in the seventh inning yesterday killed all chances of Sacramento winning the game, the Beavers finding Hunt easy and the Senators being baffled by Koestner's curves.

Early in the game it looked as if the Senators would win. They took the lead with a run in the first inning. Portland tied up the score in the third on Koestner's triple and Chadbourne's single.

Sacramento made another in the fifth inning, when Larchen scored, and rolled it up to three when Mahoney registered in the next frame.

But Portland, as usual, blew in with enough to tie it up in the eighth. Chadbourne singled and Rodgers doubled. Chadbourne scoring on Ryan's sacrifice fly to Van Buren. Rodgers scored on Krueger's single.

Wheeler Clears Base. The game then went to the eleventh inning point. With one down Rapps singled, and Sheehan walked. Peck filled the bases when Dullin erred on his grounder. Murray filed out but Koestner won his own game with a drive into center that slipped through Lewis' legs and the bases were cleared. Sacramento could do nothing in the last half of the eleventh.

Y. M. C. A. CLOSES EVENT TOMORROW

Final Meet of Indoor Swimming Season Will Be Pentathlon.

The local Y. M. C. A. will close a very successful indoor swimming season tomorrow night with an annual tank pentathlon meet. This meet will consist of six events and will start at 8 o'clock.

The winner of the meet will be figured out on a point basis, and any swimmer making a total of 400 points will be presented with a handsome gold medal; for 300 points a silver medal will be given, and for 200 points a bronze trophy. The prizes for the event are offered by Harvey O'Brien, a local sportsman.

The events will be pulled off in the following order: 100 yard swim, fancy diving contest, 20 yard swim, plunge for distance, 25 yard swim and life saving contest. In the last named event, every contestant will start from the shallow end of the tank and swim to the deep end. Here they will "duck-dive" for a seven pound sack of sand and return to the shallow end with it. Time will be taken on the swimmers in this event and they will receive points accordingly.

In the diving contest, points will be given each diver according to the form displayed while in the air and upon entering the water in three dives—a straight back, a front dive and a jack knife.

The entries in the event up to date are: A. E. Brooks, D. R. Dougherty, Clair Tait, Harold Buckley, Peterous McDonald, John McDonald, Lester Gregory, S. G. Meyers, Henry Paender, Walter Paender, Allan Mower and Frank Gross. No admission will be charged and special seating arrangements have been made.

CHIMMIE'S COLUMN.

"Rain, rain, go away, come again some other day." So sing the fans and fanatics.

Talking about nicknames, the boys were in the lobby of the hotel yesterday waiting for the rain to subside so they might start for the ball park when someone suggested that each one tell their nicknames. Here is what I heard:

"Buttons" Briley. "Muggins" Lamline. "Parson" Bloomfield. "Russian" Mundorf. "Watchcharm" Mensor. "Goose" Tommison. "Spike" Harlan. "Blondie" Williams. "Seagull" Speas. "Baldy" Stovall. "Spike" Ort. "Moose" or "Moose" Casey. "Merric" Archer. "Tex" Garrett. "Detective" Ackerman, the trainer.

There is no use in talking, you can't keep these Beaver players from getting on the long end of the score with Sacramento. The McCredites are right after Patsy O'Rourke and his tribe. Looks as if we will have the "battle" all week long.

Some difference in the weather, isn't there? "Eighteen straight wet days. Yoi! Yoi! Yoi! Put the cork in."

Henry Rebe, the well known restaurateur, returned from a fishing trip at Gaston on the Clackamas river last evening. He was the proud possessor of a number of first class fish.

The former Beaver players who are now with Cleveland are making good with a vengeance. In a game the other day, Krapp pitched superb ball and Gus Fisher was on the receiving end. Fisher was one of the principals who figured in three double plays. Krapp would fan the batter and Fisher would catch the base runner on the hit and run signal. He also showed a multitude of class with the willow.

Oison is also going like a house on fire. He is hitting the ball and making fewer errors. Looks like the "Swede" will get by. In the last averages he was hitting .278.

If it takes two yards of hemp rope to make a clothesline how many yards of bale rope will it take to make a lam-line? I've seen and heard worse bet on a rainy day it ought to get by.

Gregg, who is twirling for Cleveland, is making the opposing batters look like a lot of funces. Sure enough he is mowing them down in great style. This chap looks like the one best bet on the Cleveland team.

Frank Beaumont Bernice Archer of Chicago, Ill., is slated to be the artist on the mound for the Nicks tomorrow there be a battle at Vaughn street grounds this afternoon. He is in great shape and anxious for the bell to sound.

Chadbourne has been hitting the ball and running bases like a Ty Cobb. He is the fastest man in the Beaver outfield and if he continues to hit like he did in yesterday's game it is good night for him next year.

WRESTLERS IN TONIGHT'S CHAMPIONSHIPS.

Two stars from the Spokane Athletic club who will take a prominent part in the national wrestling championships which will be staged at the Heilig theatre tonight and tomorrow night under the auspices of the Multnomah Amateur Athletic club. With more than 60 wrestlers entered the annual mat championships of the Amateur Athletic club, the greatest athletic organization in the world, will be started tonight at the Heilig theatre at 8 o'clock.

The Multnomah club, which has charge of the meet, has gathered together some of the greatest amateur wrestlers in America for competition tonight and tomorrow night. About 30 events will be pulled off each night, until the wrestlers have narrowed down to one man in each class, from the bantam to the heavyweight.

All of the wrestlers are here, and they are a fine looking set of athletes. It is the most representative meeting in the history of the championships, and all of the athletic clubs in America are looking toward Portland to see some new champions turned out.

J. EVERS' CONDITION WORRY TO CUB FANS

Chicago, May 18.—Chicago baseball fans are gloomier today over the condition of Johnny Evers, star second baseman of the Chicago Cubs, who is suffering from nervous prostration. News received today from Troy, N. Y., was to the effect that Johnny is unable to remain on his feet for 10 minutes at a time, and there is reason to believe he will not be able to don a uniform again this season. His loss will be a severe one for the Cubs.

RIVERS AND KIRKWOOD WILL CLASH TOMORROW

San Francisco, May 18.—With the principals primed and ready, fight fans are on edge today for the contest scheduled for tomorrow night between Joe Rivers, the sensational Los Angeles featherweight, and George Kirkwood of St. Louis. Rivers is the favorite in the betting.

GOTHAM SCRIBES ARE PICKING PHILADELPHIA

New York, May 18.—Unless their pitching staffs show wonderful improvement, New York baseball scribes today believe that neither New York nor Chicago can win the National league pennant. Owing to the splendid work being done by the Philadelphia pitchers, Dooin's men are the favorites today for the flag. Manager McGraw has only two reliable twirlers—Mathewson and Wittes—while Manager Chance is believed not to have a really dependable pitcher on his staff.

SHOWERS MAKE IT HARD FOR TRAPMEN

Shooters at Walla Walla, However, Make Good Scores Despite the Steady Rain.

Walla Walla, Wash., May 18.—With showers of rain and gusts of wind, the members of the Northwest Sportsmen's association are having a hard time at the traps today. Despite the adverse weather some good scores are being made and indications are that the big events of the day, which will come late this afternoon, will find better conditions.

At the annual meeting last night, Platt Morrow, of this city, was chosen president of the association; E. E. Ellis, of Seattle, vice president, and A. C. Van Dewater, of Walla Walla, secretary and treasurer.

Walla Walla will have the shoot again next year. M. Abrahams, of Portland, was chosen a director.

Egbers, of Pasco, won the Dupont-Anaconda cup yesterday, taking it from L. P. O'Brien of this city, who held it last year. The score was 26 straight. T. A. Fleming, of Spokane, took the Brownlee medal with 20 straight. Fred Dryden, of this city, took the Dayton medal, winning from Pete O'Brien after both had made 10 straight when O'Brien in the shoot-off lost his last bird.

The individual championship, the Multnomah medal and the Smalls cup, will be shot this afternoon.

BOXERS PLANNING TO INVADE FRISCO

Fitten Will Return South and O'Brien and Anderson May Go.

Jimmy Fitten, the clever California lightweight, who arrived in Portland last Saturday to box 15 rounds with Bud Anderson June 2, will probably return south in a few days, following the decision of the Vancouver fight club to cancel their future cards and retire from the game. Jimmy is hesitating somewhat about making a short tour of the north, having been offered bouts in several in Washington and British Columbia. If there is any chance of getting a crack at any of the high class California or eastern lightweights over a 20 round route, he will return home at once.

In California they like Fitten's style of milling and when he whaled the tar out of Anton LaGrave at catchweights, his stock was given a big boost. Ad LaGrave will be remembered made LaGrave come in at 132 pounds, yet it took most made him a shadow, yet it took Wolgast five rounds to put the crusher on the Frenchman. Fitten is now trying to land Wolgast but the California promoter think he is a bit shy on experience.

Danny O'Brien and Bud Anderson, who fought a 15 round draw two weeks back and who are probably the best 15 rounders in the northwest, will probably leave soon for San Francisco to take part in the four round game there, at which both should become star performers.

Tub O'Donnell, the heavyweight, says he is thinking about going to California but before he does, would like to get on with Soldier Courtney, if any club will offer a suitable purse.

MULTNOMAH TENNIS TOURNAMENT ON JUNE 10

Chairman McAlpin of the Multnomah club has selected June 10 for the opening date of the Multnomah spring tennis handicap tournament. The closing date for entry has not yet been specified. June 10 was chosen owing to the probability of postponement of the Irvington club spring tournament which was due to start Saturday.

Irvington's clay courts will hardly be in condition to start on the desired time. If it is postponed it will likely start Saturday, June 2.

MIKE DONLIN PULLS ANNUAL PRESS STUNT

New York, May 18.—Claiming that he is "as good as ever" Mike Donlin is pulling off his annual stunt of talking about returning to the game. Mike has been working out with the Giants lately. The former New York captain certainly knows how to work his former baseball prowess in an advertising way.

GOTHAM JUDGE IS EASY ON JOHNSON

Black Champion on Way to Get Auto License When Arrested.

New York, May 18.—"Your honah, I'm getting sore on the whole world. I don't get a show."

This plea made by Champion Jack Johnson to Magistrate Breen, resulted in the negro's discharge for speeding an automobile on crowded Broadway without a New York license.

As Johnson warmed up to his little speech the magistrate's sympathies arose accordingly.

"This officer," said the black champion, "just recognized me as Jack Johnson and ran me in. I was on my way to get a proper license. Ever since they put me in the coop out in San Francisco, I've been persecuted and it's about time for this thing to stop."

"There's a good deal in what you say," said Magistrate Breen, feelingly. "You are discharged."

NO BASEBALL PLAYED IN NORTHWEST LEAGUE

Owing to rain in the baseball centers of the northwest no games were played. If the grounds are in good condition and the weather favorable the Spokane Indians and the Portland Nicks will tear into each other for the third game on Vaughn street grounds at 8 o'clock.

FLYNN AND KAUFMAN MAY FIGHT AT VERNON

Los Angeles, May 18.—Jim Flynn and Al Kaufman in a return match of 20 rounds probably will be an attraction at the Vernon arena in the near future. Promoter McCarey wants to stage the bout and already has Kaufman's agreement to sign articles.

Kaufman is here today resting up from his recent disastrous bout with Flynn at Kansas City. Flynn, it is understood, is willing to come here provided suitable terms are offered.
