Weather Conditions.

The two northern disturbances have united and formed a single depression which is central this morning over Alberta. The barometer is rising rapidly along the north Pacific coast. Storm warnings were continued, however, at 7:30 a. m., as the winds today will be strong between Cape Flattery and Coos Bay, and probably not diminish until tonight Light to moderately heavy rains have fallen everywhere on the Pacific slope as far south as San Francisco, and showers and thunderstorms have occurred at a few places in the lake region. The temperatures have remained nearly stationary in the Pacific states, and they continue unseasonably high in the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys.

Conditions are favorable for occasional rain in this district tonight and Friday.

Portland and vicinity: Occasional rain tonight and Friday. Southwest to west winds. inds.
Oregon and Washington: Occasional ain tonight and Friday, Southwest to est winds, high along the coast.
Idaho: Occasional rain tonight and riday.

Says Attorney Stole Contract—Attorney C. R. Belknap, an attorney in the Yeon building, is being sought by the police, who hold a cyarrant for his arrest on a larceny charge, the complain-ant being John F. Kingsley, who ac-cuses Belknap of the theft of a contract for a diamond ring valued at $125. Kingsley asserts that he borrowed $125 on the ring, and was given a contract for it by Belknap, but a few days ago, Kingsley asserts, Belknap attempted to take the contract from him forcibly, using this means in an effort to retain possession of the diamond. A warrant was issued for the man's arrest, and $500 ball will be required when he is Mother Defends Son-Made sad over the report made at the police court last Saturday that her son, John L. Sexton, had misbehaved in his management of the little meat market at 560 Jefferson while the young man was on trial charged by Mrs. Sarah Evans, the market inspector, with selling tainted meat, and resenting the inference that the young man had falled to provide for his mother, Mrs. Sexton, today, gave the assurance that her son had always been an exemplary boy and had provided well for her. Inexperience is given as the reason for his improper care of meats which resulted in his arrest.

Damage Suit Compromised-An order was allowed by Judge Cleeton of the county court this morning for the widow of the late John P. Henrion to widow of the late John P. Henrion to compromise the case against Dr. J. C. Ross, in which the latter is accused of running the deceased down with an automobile. The widow states in her petition that a jury in the circuit court gave her a verdict against the physician for $4050, but the physician is insolvent and she is unable to collect that mount. Dr. Ross has offered her $550 she states and the court allowed this subject of an address to be delivered by Rabbi Jonah B. Wise in the Immanuel Baptist church, Meade and Sec and streets, at 7:45 p. m. Sunday. The barbarous cruelty endured by the Jews in Russia, the indignities that have been heaped upon them and the pros-pacts of their liberation have been made subjects of close study by Rabbi Wise, whose intense racial and human interest in the situation gives his address added interest.
