OREGON CAPTAIN CALLS OUT SQUAD

University of Oregon Will Have Spring Football Practice This Month.

University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., May 19.—Captain Bill Maitz, of the University of Oregon football team, has issued a call for spring practice, and with this the Oregon team are beginning to "dope" out the Oregon eleven for next season. All of the old men will be back in the harness. Only two of these graduates this year, Chuck Taylor and Ben Grant, and both are eligible to compete again for the Lemon Yellow. Oregon has always been fortunate in securing a number of strong men in the freshman class and if next year's entering bunch does not fall off considerably the variety of 1911 should be the strongest in the history of the institution.

Manager Johns has arranged games with all of the northwest conference colleges with the exception of O. A. C. The schedule is as follows:

October 28.—W. S. C., at Pullman.
November 4.—Whitman College, at Eugene.
November 11.—University of Washington, at Portland.
November 18.—University of Idaho, at Eugene.
November 25.—Multnomah Athletic club, at Portland.

Tennis Journey Off.
On account of the continual bad weather the Oregon-Washington intercollegiate tennis tournament which was to have been played off today and tomorrow has been postponed until next week. The tournament will be played on Oregon's cement court, and will consist of the best three out of five matches, four singles and one double. The Washington team is composed of George Flibger, Harry Goetz, Art Moncrief, and Ivan Talbot. The Oregonians will be represented by Harry Stine of Menmouth, Howard Gray of Portland and Paul Bond of Eugene.

Heavy and continual rains of the last four days have caused a cancelling of the baseball series between the University of Oregon and the Multnomah Athletic club. The two teams were to have met here today and tomorrow. Oregon won the first game in Portland recently. The Oregon team will end the season with two games with the University of California to be played here May 26 and 27.

Yale Crew Improving.
New Haven, Conn., May 19.—Yale rowing circles were hopeful today that the variety crew would improve over the form shown in last week's race with Pennsylvania, in which the blue was badly beaten by six lengths. The next race in which Yale will participate is scheduled at Princeton tomorrow against the Tigers and Cornell.

NATIONAL WRESTLING TITLES IN BALANCE AT HEILIG TONIGHT

Twenty-six rattling good matches constituted the first night's wrestling of the Amateur Athletic Union championships under the auspices of the Multnomah Athletic club at the Heilig last night and the largest crowd that ever gathered at an amateur affair of the kind was present. Enthusiasm ran high and little partisanship was displayed. Usually the aggressive wrestler drew the most cheers, whether he was from Portland or Newark, and the victory of the Seattle middleweight, Ward, over the Chicago grappler, Schalk, was the signal for an outburst of applause, although Schalk's gameness came in for many encomiums.

The theatre will hardly hold the crowd tonight appears to be certain. Scores of wrestling fans were under the impression that the class tonight would eclipse that of last night, but such will hardly be the case. If all depended on the drawing and two stars like Milwaukee's Davis square, Chicago, and Brownell, the Olympic club crack, were as likely as not to be drawn.

Duncan Surprises Spanger.
The big surprise of the evening came when Frank Duncan, the Seattle grappler, compelled Henry Spanger of the National Turn Verein of Newark, N. J., a national champion, to use all his ingenuity to win and sent him off the mat limping from pressure placed on his ankle by a toehold. Spanger was better at the inside work than Duncan, but not to such an extent as the fans expected. Duncan, by the way, was 10 pounds lighter than Spanger, having also entered in the 125 pound class. Tonight Spanger will have to meet some of the crack wrestlers of the Multnomah club in the finals for the championship.

Chris Gesek, the clever Spokane middleweight, bids fair to wage through his class in jig time, although he might encounter considerable trouble in Ward of Seattle, who is coming fast. Gesek eliminated Bradt of Multnomah and Glascock of San Francisco in a workmanlike manner, being content to take his time and conserve his strength for tonight. E. E. Vinson, who met his old enemy, George Walker of Vancouver, at last succeeded in vanquishing him. Vinson might prove a stumbling block among the middles, for he is wrestling in better fashion than ever before.

Boats Run Off Rapidly.
All of the bouts were run off in rapid fire fashion and the 26 were finished and the spectators ready to depart from the theatre at 11 o'clock. The championships as conducted last night verged on fastiduousness, not a bolsterous note being heard. A large number of ladies witnessed the wrestling and the feminine athletic fans will likely see double their number on hand tonight.

In the various classes the elimination followed in this order:
Albert Cote of Spokane drew his team mate, Harvey Donaldson, 10 pounds lighter, in the featherweight event calling for 115 pounds, and eliminated him. Harvey will wrestle in the finals of the 105 pound or bantamweight class, tonight, with Edwin Mills of the Multnomah club.

club, the only two entries. They are old time rivals.
Frank Glas, the Spokane 125 pound entry, who cleaned up all the amateurs of his weight around Chicago last winter, put out Norman Chapman of Olympic club in the 125 pound special weight by aggressiveness. Chapman had previously defeated Charles Cogswell, unattached.

Lightweights Are Numerous.
The greatest competition developed among the lightweights, K. Montague of Multnomah took Leon Fabra, one of the best in the club, by surprise and floored him in 25 seconds. Montague was afterward sent out by Trainer on a two round decision of nine minutes. Win Percy of Multnomah won both his bouts, toppling "Bar" Rhinehart of Multnomah and "Red" Rhinehart of Multnomah. Fred Henry of Oregon Agricultural college, Frank of Multnomah got the verdict over John Bukley of the Portland Turn Verein and W. P. Paulson of the Astoria Athletic club, on account of aggressiveness during the six minutes of wrestling. Paulson is a trained made a victim of Albert P. Gibson of O. A. C. in 2:47.

Frank Duncan of Seattle defeated George Retzer of Los Angeles but lost his decision in National Champion Spanger.

Chicagoans Down Friesons.
There were three bouts among welterweights. The one that tickled the crowd most occurred when Milwaukee sent Frank Brownell, the Olympic club star, sprawling in 2:06. Brownell evidently regarded Milwaukee as an easy victory, but soon found that he had been outwitted. Milwaukee did everything sent his way and by a sudden shift flopped Brownell much to the delight of the northern fans, who remembered the hurricane tactics of Brownell here in the coast championships several years ago.

Harry C. of Vancouver, B. C., carried away a decision on E. C. Barley of the Olympic club of San Francisco. Ward of Seattle pinned the shoulders of Finigan of the Multnomah club to the carpet in 42 seconds.

Ward came on in the 185 pound class and gave a terrific struggle earned the verdict over Emil Curtis of the Multnomah club in 1:36 after going after the Multnomah man in a full manner, and then threw Johnny Glascock of the Olympic club in 5:19. Walker of Vancouver, B. C., who had downed Otto Smith of Multnomah in 2:12, in turn lost to Vinson of Multnomah in 1:36. The Multnomah man remained behind Ed Barley of Olympic for nearly the entire six minutes.

Heavies Flip Quickly.
Two of the heavyweight bouts did not last half a minute. Nick Daviscock of Spokane, who has a record like a Hackenschmidt, won the fastest bout of the evening when he fastened the shoulders of Holden of the Multnomah club to the mat in 14 seconds. Otto Wallfisch of the Olympic required just twice this time to down Charles E. Sitton of Oregon Agricultural college. The bout between Carl Curtis of the Multnomah who acts like a professional and who entered unattached, and George Carlson of Multnomah was pretty while it lasted. Carlson is one of the busiest wrestlers in the country and his bouts rarely go to a decision one way or the other. Last night Curtis pinched him in 3:26.

The only national champion to appear last night was Spanger, who won in the 135 pound class over Duncan of Seattle. Tonight Gus Bauers, 135 pound national champion for years, will wrestle in the 135 pound special class. Bauers drew a bye last night and was not on the program. Six minutes were the limit of the preliminaries last night, but the semifinals and finals tonight will go over the 15 minute round before a decision is rendered. The program will open at 8 o'clock sharp.

Henderson Has Bad Inning and Solons Forge Too Far Ahead.

Sacramento, May 19.—O'Rourke's Harps won close decision over the Beavers yesterday, 3 to 2, with Byram outpitching Henderson by a small margin.

Sacramento broke into the runnetting in the second inning. With two out Thomas singled and Jimmy Lewis, late of the Seals, rapped out a triple that scored Thomas.

Sacramento made it two more on the champions in the next frame on account of Henderson's wildness. Byram was a flyout, but Shinn got hit on the head with a pitched ball. O'Rourke singled and placed Shinn on third. Patey taking second on a passed ball. Shinn scored on a wild pitch and then Van Buren walked. Danzig's single brought O'Rourke home and the Beavers closed the inning without further ado.

Portland kicked the stuffing out of Byram in the fourth but only for two runs. With Chadbourne and Rodgers outfield skippers, Ryan lifted the ball out of the lot. Then Krueger drove out a three bagger and Rappa brought him home with a single. Sheehan fled to Lewis and the scoring stopped.

Both pitchers were steady after the fourth and no more tallying was done. The score:

BAD BASEBALL WEATHER GIVES ALL PASTIMERS CHANCE TO TALK IT OVER.

Joe Cohn, the Spokane baseball magnate, doesn't like our weather. After two days' layoff and expenses keeping up, Joe was in anything but a cheerful mood yesterday. With prospect of playing weather this afternoon Joe is easing up a bit on the peevish thing. But listen to Joe's plaint about our atmospheric situation:

"This weather we are having this week in Portland is enough to set me crazy. I'm not bragging about what we have in this line up in Spokane but you can bet that we manage to get by with a game now and then."

So much for the weather. Now for the team. Hear ye!

"Sure I have a good team. It is practically the same as last year with the exception of our pitching department. By that I mean we are not so strong at this time in the pitching line as we were last year. You see I lost Baker and Killiaty to the big show and filling up that gap requires perseverance and hard work."

"I will be in better shape in a month or so as soon as my pitchers get to working right. Holm, Kraft and the other boys are splendid men and any time any of my pitchers get on the mound they are capable of beating the opposing team."

Cohn never mentioned a thing about his "phenom" named Strand. This chap has struck out 43 men in four games and the reason Joe was so negligent as not to mention his name among his twirlers made his interviewer inquisitive.

Passes Compliments.
"What about Strand?" was asked. "Now you have it. There is the makings of one of the greatest pitchers the national pastime will ever know. Just picture to yourself a big, strapping, rawboned lad weighing about 180 pounds and only 17 years old, and going to the big show next year. Can you beat it?"

"What has he got that makes him so valuable?"
"Everything, and his greatest asset is his willingness to be taught. He wants to learn all the time. Outfield has him in tow and what Harry tells him to do he tries and usually makes a success of. That is why he is going to the front so fast. I will work him Sunday against Portland so that the local fans can get a glimpse of him."

"What kind of a future do you predict for Tauscher, a Portland lad who is playing utility on your club?"
"Best in the world. He is the fastest youngster we have on the team. If he could hit he would be a valuable man to any club. Just to show you how fast he is, last week he scored from third base on two occasions on infield outs. Any time he starts from first base on an infield out he usually lands safely at third. That is how fast he is."

"I am willing to wager that there is no man in this league who is more sure of getting those foul popups than Tauscher. He is a dream of a ball player and next year I look for him to play as a regular."

Good One on Borchers.
Nick Williams was telling a good one on Chief Borchers when he was managing the San Jose club in the State league. A bushy from the east wrote out to the chief asking for a job and said that if terms were acceptable to wire transportation. The chief was the greatest fellow in the world for playing tricks on bushers, so he secured an old pair of shoes and wrapped them in a paper box. Then he wrote a letter to the chief telling him to call at an express office and as his terms were satisfactory, he could take up the transportation which was awaiting him at the express office. The bushy, elated, ran all the way to the depot to get his transportation. Taking the package home the youngster said before opening it up that he always knew railroad

Germany has a jockey's insurance scheme which is unique. Those who ride on the flat pay an annual subscription of $12, and those over-country races pay $20, in addition to 25 cents each time they ride, and double the fee each time they ride a winner. In case of death resulting from accident in riding or during training the beneficiary receives $400 or $500 if the jockey is married, $5000 in case of permanent incapacity and $250 a day during temporary incapacity.

Britons See Victory.
New York, May 19.—England's quintet of racing champions is confident of getting at least three of the five events in the international contest with American and Canadian amateurs in Madison Square garden tonight and tomorrow. The Englishmen have trained faithfully and will enter the contest in perfect condition.

Coster to Box Conley.
New York, May 19.—To accept an offer of $1000 to box Frankie Conley in New Orleans May 28, Joe Coster has passed up a scheduled meeting with Patsy Kiline, the Newark scrapper. Coster left today for the Crescent City to complete his training. He announced that he would meet Kiline as soon as he returned from New Orleans.

The annual football game between Annapolis and West Point may not be played on the University of Pennsylvania field this year because of a disagreement over the allotment of tickets.

DRYDEN BEST SHOT IN MEDAL EVENTS

Barclay High Professional and Chirgren Leading Amateur Shots at Meet.

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)

Walla Walla, Wash., May 19.—After shooting in rain and wind for three long strings with Pete O'Brien, who tied him in the twenty-second event for the individual championship medal, and competing with three other marksmen who were equally matched for the Multnomah medal of the twenty-fourth event, Fred Dryden of the local gun club carried off two of the three trophies contested for yesterday, when the second day's events of the Sportsman's association tournament were pulled off at the fair grounds.

Dryden and O'Brien tied for the twenty-second event, and in the shootoff each broke 18 targets. They shot again, tying with 19 out of a possible 20. On the final shoot Dryden broke a straight string of 20 while his opponent broke but 19.

For the Multnomah medal three marksmen tied in the twenty-third event, Trusdell, Dryden and Wilson. Dryden then won in the shootoff. Then came the shootoff for the Smalls cup, contested by Chirgren, Eggers and Stacy, who tied with 24 birds in the final event. Stacy went out on the first string, but Chirgren and Eggers broke even with 24 pigeons apiece in a second run and shot for a third time, when Chirgren won with 25 against Eggers' 22, out of a possible 35.

Lee Barclay was high professional of the day with 224 out of a long run of 230. Chirgren was high amateur when he broke 218 out of 230. Weather conditions are better today but a high wind is blowing.

GARRY HERMANN IN LOS ANGELES TODAY

(Special Dispatch to the Journal.)

Los Angeles, May 19.—Garry Hermann, president of the National Baseball commission and grand exalted ruler of the Elks, arrived in Los Angeles today. He is here on fraternal business, but will also keep his eyes open for promising baseball material.

Herrman has made a special request to see Pitcher Delhi of the Los Angeles club in action. The Cincinnati management, of which Herrman is the chief, has been making inquiries about Delhi for many months.

Hanlon Is Referee.

San Francisco, May 19.—Eddie Hanlon will referee tonight's four round contest between Joe Rivers of Los Angeles and George Kirkwood. After several days of quibbling the representatives of the fighters got together at the last moment and after a verbal battle compromised on Hanlon. Both boys are in the pink of condition and fight fans expect a slashing contest.

Coster to Box Conley.

New York, May 19.—To accept an offer of $1000 to box Frankie Conley in New Orleans May 28, Joe Coster has passed up a scheduled meeting with Patsy Kiline, the Newark scrapper. Coster left today for the Crescent City to complete his training. He announced that he would meet Kiline as soon as he returned from New Orleans.
