

CAPITOL ADDITION AND O. A. C. ESCAPE THE REFERENDUM

Committee Fears to Antagonize Corvallis and Statehouse Interests; Chairman Gives Some Inside Data.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., May 19.—That the referendum paper will not be filed about the Oregon Agricultural college and the proposed addition to the statehouse was the admission of Harry J. Parkison and T. L. Van Orsdol yesterday afternoon, after they had completed checking up and filing the petition to invoke the referendum on the appropriation of $50,000 for the Monmouth Normal school. The Monmouth petition contained 7025 signatures. In addition, 1552 names were added to the petitions to invoke the referendum against the university appropriation, which petition was filed Wednesday.

"It was the intention and earnest desire of our committee," said Chairman Van Orsdol yesterday, "to apply the referendum in the case of the bills appropriate for building a building for the O. A. C. and for an addition to the statehouse. These were the instructions given us by the mass meeting in McMinnville, February 25 last, but the obstacles encountered were too great for our committee, all of whom had daily duties to care for."

In addition to the "daily duties" spoken of, however, Mr. Van Orsdol practically admitted last evening that one of the prime reasons for not applying the referendum on the appropriation was that such action would seem inconsistent in the eyes of the public, since the announcement had been published that an initiative measure would soon be proposed to merge the three schools at Corvallis. With such a move on, the backers of the university and Monmouth petitions do not desire to antagonize the Corvallis people. To oppose the statehouse appropriation also would arouse a great deal of antagonism. Continuing, Mr. Van Orsdol, chairman of the McMinnville committee, said:

Names Extremely Hard to Get.
"It is possible for the McMinnville referendum committee to file but one referendum, this one on the appropriation of $50,000 for a dormitory for the Monmouth Normal school."

"Some time ago we placed an order with H. J. Parkison of Portland for signatures to the petition, expecting to secure the required number. After realizing the difficulty in securing petitions, we placed an order for 3500 with a man in Portland. He was unable to take up the work until after the primary and did little after that time. Then other orders also were placed and most of them returned results below that expected."

"We also experienced great difficulty in raising money for the work, situated as we were in a town and country where there are few salaries paid."

"Our committee, independent of others, was unable to secure a greater amount of signatures than 1422 to any one of the petitions, and in fact is still obligated to Mr. Parkison for part of the work performed by him."

Procrastination Gets in Work.
"We did our best to carry out the instructions of the citizens who asked us to serve them. The great trouble we experienced was that those who volunteered to help in the work put off until the last few days what should have been done in the beginning of the movement."

Yesterday proved a referendum day. During the latter part of the afternoon, while Parkison and Van Orsdol were filing the Monmouth petition, Dan Kellaher, Ben Riesland and J. B. Ziegler appeared to file a petition for invoking the referendum on the Malarkey public utility bill. Senator Kellaher was bitter in his denunciation of the Malarkey bill, which provides for giving the state railway commission power to exercise statewide control of public corporations. Kellaher favors home rule in these matters.

Earlier in the day notice of the filing with the county clerk of Benton county of a petition to invoke the referendum on the senate bill granting the county officials of Benton county a salary was filed with the secretary of state. Secretary of State Olcott and his clerks had a busy day keeping open house generally to referendum people.

WAS SHE MURDERED BY A WOMAN?

Photograph of Mrs. Caroline F. Turner, who was recently found murdered at Lakewood, N. J., and one of her children. The finding of the dead body in a clump of woods bearing marks of a brutal murder has aroused intense indignation. Except for the discovery of long strands of gray hair near the scene of the crime, no clue to the murderer has been found.

NEWPORT, TOLEDO, SHAKEN BY STORM

Wires Knocked Down, Roads Made Impassable, Boat Nearly Lost.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Newport, Or., May 19.—A storm of unusual violence for this season broke over this section of the coast Wednesday. The wind attained a velocity scarcely preceded for this time of year, and was accompanied by a heavy rain. The roads are rendered almost impassable by the deep mud and fallen timbers.

Early in the morning the phone line to Waldport, which crosses the bay here in one span, and is exposed to the full force of the gale, was snapped. This severed phone connection south and in addition the local and county service was badly demoralized.

The 30 foot gasoline cruiser Florence was torn from her moorings and narrowly escaped destruction. She drifted about one mile, and after nearly capsizing twice, was recaptured opposite Olneyville. The boat is the property of Dr. McIntyre of Portland.

It is reported here from Toledo that the wind took the roof from a new bungalow, besides leveling the tall flagpole in the court house yard, and breaking most of the windows in the Episcopal church.

Terry Loan Necessary.

Redding, Cal., May 19.—Just how much the defunct Bank of Shasta county will be able to pay its depositors depends on whether J. E. Terry of Sacramento pays his loan of $250,000 in full to the bank. Deputy Superintendent of Banks Mitchell stated today that if Terry would come across in full the depositors will receive a little more than 50 cents on the dollar; otherwise they will have to be content with 30 cents.

MAN WHOSE MOUTH IS SPOILED FOR SMOKING WANTS $7500 DAMAGES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tacoma, May 19.—Because he alleges he is unable to chew or hold his pipe to smoke in the right side of his mouth, Paul Ekanias, a sack turner, formerly in the employ of Rothschild & Co., has filed suit in the superior court against the firm of Brown & McCabe and Harry Dickman for $7500 damages. Ekanias says he was in the employ of Rothschild & Co. and Brown & McCabe loading flour on a steamer, when a section of the conveyor chute was jarred from its position, and that a sack flew up and struck him on the right side of his face. He says he lost the use of the sensory muscles of the right side of his face. Dickman, the foreman, was careless in the arrangement of the chutes, it is alleged.

Railroad Increases Stock.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
New York, May 19.—At a meeting here today the stockholders of the Lake Erie & Pittsburg railroad voted to increase the company's stock from $1,000,000 to $6,000,000, and also authorized a large issue of bonds. The issue of stock and bonds is regarded as largely a bookkeeping transaction to take care of advances that have been made to the Lake Erie and Pittsburg, all the stock of which is owned by the Pennsylvania and Lake Shore roads.

PACIFIC U. OFFERS NEW SCHOLARSHIP SERIES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 19.—In order to bring Pacific university in closer relation with the high schools of the northwest and to make its advantages available to a larger number of young people, it has been determined to make the following scholarship offers:

One annual scholarship to each high school in the northwest will be awarded to an honor pupil in the graduating class upon recommendation of the faculty of the high school; and to the high school having an enrollment of more than 100 pupils, one additional scholarship similarly awarded will be given for each 100 pupils or major fraction thereof. But not to exceed five scholarships will be granted to any high school.

Scholarships to resident students: A scholarship will be awarded to the pupil enrolled in any class above the secondary first year whose average rank during the preceding year is the highest in his class.

These scholarships entitle the holders to one year's free tuition and will be awarded on the basis of scholarship, character, social qualities and general fitness to pursue a college course to advantage.

Similar scholarships have been offered to a portion of the high schools of the state for some years but this new system will extend to all high schools in the northwest.

EXPECTS TO WIN AS MINORITY'S CHOICE

E. L. Mills, who was defeated for the Republican nomination for councilman at large in the primary election, but who obtained the Democratic nomination unopposed has decided to accept the nomination tendered by the minority party. "I am in this race for the council seat," said Mr. Mills yesterday, "and with the new developments that have arisen since the primary election I think I have a good chance to win."

U. S. Tariff Commission Cannot Prevent Higher Prices on Shoes

Shoe prices in this country are fixed by the Leather Trust. The Trust has a throttling grip on the tanneries. It regulates the quantity of leather. It fixes the price of that leather. Worse than that—it influences the quality of all leather.

If cheaper shoes—if better shoes—mean anything to you and your family, you must strike for yourself—Get Endicott-Johnson shoes. Endicott, Johnson & Co. are the only shoe manufacturers in this country who are independent of the Leather Trust.

They buy their hides in the open markets of the world. They own their tanneries—they tan every pound of leather they put into their shoes. They sell direct to your home shoe dealer, cutting out the profits of four distinct middlemen.

Endicott-Johnson shoes save you 50 cents to $1.00 on every pair—and they give you service, style, fit and comfort that you simply cannot get in any other shoes at any price.

The ENDWELL (Goodyear Welt) is their dress or business shoe—$3.00, $3.50 and $4.00.

ENDWELL shoes give you every choice of style—snappy, up to the minute lines, or the more conservative cut—any width and shape of toe—all the colors of leather. Good fitting—exquisitely finished—easy to the foot.

Look for this name stamped in every shoe—

ENDWELL

M. GALE & SON, 4 N. Third St.

Shoe buyers who live outside the city where this paper is published can learn the names of their home dealers who carry ENDWELL shoes by writing to Endicott, Johnson & Co., Endicott, N. Y.
