Women's $38, $40, $45 and $48 Late Spring and Summer Suits on Sale Monday for $27.50

WE'VE just received this splendid group of women's Suits, but we find we've twice as many suits as we should have, for the manufacturer practically duplicated our order. In place of returning the suits we have accepted them at such a concession in price as to enable us to offer you any of these handsomely plain or semi-tailored Suits at only $27.50. Made of rich Serges, Worsteds, Tweeds, Homespuns and Basket Weaves, in lovely shades of tan, gray, navy, lavender, black and white checks, stripes and fancy mixtures.

The short jaunty jackets have either plain, notch or sailor collars, some with large revers and side fastenings; handsome plain or striped satin linings. Skirts are plain gored or with clever inserts of plaits, some having the Empire belt. You'll be especially pleased with their trim, chic style and splendid tailoring. $38, $40, $45 and $48 to sell Monday at this attractive price

INTEREST in this Great Travel Contest for public school teachers is increasing daily with leaps and bounds.

Last time we printed the names of highest contestants three teachers found that in a day's time they had jumped almost to the top of the list. Think what this extraordinary contest means! A trip to either London or Paris for two teachers from Portland and one from state at large, all expenses paid.

The next prize for fourth highest contestant is the New York trip, and fifth prize a month at any Oregon beach, all expenses paid. Besides these, there are eight other vacations of two weeks at Gearhart, Seaside, Bayocean and Long Beach, including round trip passage and all expenses.

Votes with all purchases of 25c and above. Retain duplicate sales checks and present them at booth, first floor, within five days after the purchase.
