(United Press Leased Wire.)
London, May 23.—After an automobile accident today in which the royal car ran down and severely injured a woman, King George leaped from the machine and himself tenderly lifted the victim into the tonneau.
The automobile, at the king's command, was rushed to St. George's hospital, where the woman was taken in and cared for. It is not yet known whether her injuries will prove fatal.
The accident occurred on the Olympia road. The king, with Queen Mary, the prince of Wales and Princess Mary left Buckingham palace to motor to the naval and military tournament held today. The woman who was hurt was one of the sightseers gathered to watch the passing of the king and queen. It is not known how she happened to get in front of the car.

URGES ACTION IN OIL TRUST CASES

Washington, May 23.—Senator Atlee Pomerene (Democrat, Ohio) today introduced a resolution in the senate declaring that John D. Rockefeller, John D. Archbold and other defendants in the Standard Oil trust cases, are subject to prosecution under the Standard Oil decision of the United States supreme court, and instructing the attorney general to report whether prosecutions "have been or will be started against them."
The resolution was adopted without debate.

CATHOLIC CHURCH DENOUNCED BY SOUTHERN PRESBYTERIAN

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Louisville, Ky., May 23.—Denunciation of the Roman Catholic church as a "menace and a blight" of the government for "favoring" it, of the press failure to criticize it, and of Chief Justice White of the United States supreme court because of his education in a Jesuit school, stirred the Southern Presbyterian assembly to its depths here today.

The Roman Catholic denunciation was contained in a resolution introduced by the Rev. D. C. Painter of Yancy Hill, Va., who spoke in its support. The resolution reads:

"Resolved, That this assembly views with serious concern the growth and pernicious activity of the powerful politico-religious organization known as the Roman Catholic church, which is and always has been a menace and a blight to the civil and religious liberty of every land where it has obtained a foothold; that this assembly views with serious concern the apathy of public men concerning this menace, the evident disposition of the general government to grant special favors to this organization, and the ominous silence of the public press concerning adverse criticisms of this body; and at the same time its readiness freely to advertise all that is interesting to this so-called church.

"Resolved, That this assembly appoint a committee of five to report on a practical method of advising the whole people of the dangers of this domination and to invite the influence and cooperation of other Protestant bodies to offset it."

In his speech, Painter accused the newspapers, for business reasons, of suppressing adverse criticism of the Roman Catholic church; charged congressmen and senators with feigning it, and declared that the appointment of Chief Justice White was a menace to the country.
"The very fact," he said, "that White was educated in a Jesuit school

Wireless Head Sentenced for Contempt

Christopher O. Wilson, president of the United Wireless company, whose recent sentence for contempt, imposed by the circuit court in New York because he had refused to permit the examination of the company's books, was approved by the United States supreme court. By the decision, a far-reaching legal controversy was won by the government, in that officials of corporations no longer can refuse to surrender corporation books for examination by grand juries.

LAST PROTEST FROM SUPREME BENCH ON MODERNIZING BUSINESS

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.)
Washington, May 23.—Like the Earl of Warwick—back to the wall—fighting for the maintenance of the status quo—Justice John Marshall Harlan of the federal supreme court utters that which is known in the national capital to be the last great protest from the bench against the modernizing of large business.

Notwithstanding the general concession here, that the court read into the law that which congress has repeatedly refused to write into the anti-trust statute—a limitation of the meaning of "restraint of trade"—it is being recognized here that henceforth big corporations will be permitted to do business in combination with other big corporations, without the danger of having their organization destroyed by application of the anti-trust law's inhibition.
That the supreme court did arbitrarily modify the statute in a way congress has refused to do, when the law was debated for adoption, as well as many times later when amendatory bills have been offered, has passed beyond doubt. A few public men gloss over the court's action in that respect, but the writer found no man who, in private conversation, would seriously contend that the modification of the meaning of restraint was intended by the law making body.

So that, with virtual unanimity, the national capital agrees that, perhaps remembering the firm grasp that Chief Justice Marshall took and, more or less arbitrarily, fixed certain elements of the nation's jurisprudence for all time, so Chief Justice White and all the jusices but one seized the situation and fixed the permanency of the principle of combination as legitimate in this country.

Although there is this investive against the alleged assumption of legislative functions by the court, there is along with it frank recognition that the Sherman anti-trust law would create chaos in the business world, were it to be construed and enforced as inhibiting every combination in restraint of trade. And, although it is recognized that there exists no specific assurance as to the status of any particular business combination, the manifest intention of the court to discriminate between honest combinations and those which employ piratical methods of destroying competition is accepted as sufficient assurance for the business world.

It is, nevertheless, romantic and inspiring to witness the 80 year old Justice Harlan, grizzled and veteran, clinging to the strict construction of the statute, and fighting with grim perseverance that, unless the court unilaterally annuls the Sherman law, the organization of large combinations and the elimination of competition in many industrial lines.

It was 17 years ago, 1894, four years after the Sherman anti-trust law was adopted in 1890, that this same determined old jurist dissented from the court's decision in the Knight case, a decision that gave life to the sugar trust. At that time, Harlan wrote into his dissenting opinion grave warnings that, unless the court unilaterally annuls the Sherman law, the organization of large combinations and the elimination of competition in many industrial lines.

There is much talk of amending the Sherman law so as to define precisely what shall be illegal combinations in restraint of trade. But men who do not accept every proposed plan as good as adopted, and who realize that the na-

Blwabik, Minn., May 23.—Emulating John F. Dietz, "defender of Cameron Dam," Peter Vorbanich, an Austrian homesteader with a high-powered rifle today, sits in front of his cabin on Water Hen Creek, 18 miles south of here, and defies the "lumber trust" as Dietz did. For four days Vorbanich has held off logging gangs of the Northern Lumber company and prevented their floating logs down the stream past his cabin. REPORT OF AGENT PROVES FRAUD IN ALL COAL CLAIMS

Chief of Field Division, After Thorough Investigation of Alaska Cases, Said to Have Shown 774 Fraudulent.

CUNNINGHAM GROUP
INCLUDED IN LIST

"Dummy" Claimants, by Their Silence, Make Inquiry Most Difficult.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., May 23.—A complete report has been made to Secretary of the Interior Walter Fisher on 774 of the 1100 coal claims in Alaska. The report was made personally by Andrew Christensen, chief of the field division here who returned from Washington last Saturday.
While the nature of the report is not given out by Christensen, the rumor that all the claims have been proved fraudulent after a thorough investigation, is not denied. All of the Cunningham claims, 33 in the group, are included in the 774 already investigated. More or less difficulty has been experienced in making the investigations, as claimants, most of whom are "dummies" have been advised to decline being interviewed.

OPENING OF ALASKA LANDS IS URGED BY CITIZENS OF SEATTLE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., May 23.—Resolutions demanding the immediate opening of Alaskan lands and self government for the territory are today on their way to Washington, after being adopted by a mass meeting of seven hundred, promoted by commercial organizations.
Falcon Josly of Fairbanks, Alaska, the chief speaker, denounced Gifford Pinchot for "using the government's money to buy magazine articles telling the people what an honest and great man he was, and he was not indicted either, while honest men entitled to Alaskan lands are under indictment."
"We had a president who had little knowledge and no respect for the sacredness of the constitution of the United States. Pinchot went straight to Theodore the First, and the president of the United States wrote the order abrogating the act of 1904."
"The czar of Russia would not have had the courage to do such an act. This order of 1906 by President Roosevelt was illegal and everybody knows it."

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS IN WEST TO BE PROSECUTED

Association, Operating in Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Alleged to Be Violation Anti-Trust Law.

Prosecution of the Western Retail Lumber Dealers' association, including retail lumbermen in Oregon, Idaho and Washington, is contemplated by the federal government, it is said. Special agents of the treasury department are known to have been investigating the workings of the organization for some time. One of them left for Washington last week with information concerning the association and its alleged agreements in violation of the anti-trust law. It is probable that no case will be filed in Portland but that either Spokane or Seattle will be selected as the filing place for proceedings against the northwestern retailers. The headquarters of the western association is at Spokane.

UNITED STATES' FARM PRODUCTS FOR 1910 NEARLY $9,000,000,000

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, May 23.—In his introduction to the "Year Book" for 1910, just issued, Secretary of Agriculture Wilson says:
"Nothing short of science can grasp the value of the farm products of this year. At no time in the world's history has a country produced farm products within one year with a value reaching $8,928,000,000, which is the value of the agricultural products of this country for 1910. This amount is larger than that of 1909 by $108,000,000, an amount of increase over the preceding year which is small for the more recent years."

Aviator Loses Actress

Pauline Chase, the well known actress, whose engagement to Claude Grahame-White, the English aviator, has been broken, according to word from London. Miss Chase met the Englishman last year, when he was in this country participating in the international aviation races at Belmont Park, Long Island. The reason given by the actress for the breaking of the engagement is that "the engagement was a mistake. After knowing him I concluded that he could not compensate me for retirement from the stage."

CHICAGO POLICE BEGIN FIGHT ON UNION SLUGGERS

Killing of "Dutch" Gentleman Brings on War Against Labor Battlers—Two Are Surrendered to Authorities.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, May 23.—Determined to crush out union slugging which, after long war, culminated here yesterday in the killing of William or "Dutch" Gentleman, Chief of Police McWeney today instructed Inspector Revere to arrest every labor slugger in the city.

Chief McWeney declares that Gentleman's death is the direct result of the killing of Vincent Altman, another slugger, two months ago. The men, he says, were sluggers for rival unions.
Edward Ryan of the Ornamental and Architectural Iron Workers' union and John Aschier, its business agent, were today surrendered to the police by Attorney Charles Erbslein. The police declare both men participated in the killing of Gentleman. Inspector Revere declares that the union men will tell nothing of the trouble which they wish to fight out among themselves, and Inspector Hunt, who is also working on the case, says there is little chance to convict anyone of the crime.

NOVEL ACCIDENT PUTS M. J. KINNEY ON HOSPITAL LIST

Tottering Drunk on Capitol Stairs Falls Against His Legs, Both Rolling on Down—Clanton Reappointed.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Or., May 23.—A ludicrous but dangerous mishap that befell M. J. Kinney, member of the new fish and game commission last night in the state house is the reason why that body is holding its session today in Kinney's room, instead of at the meeting place of yesterday. Kinney is too lame to leave his hotel; he is in almost too bad a humor to meet with the commission, and this is the way it happened:
When Kinney was coming down the rickety state house stairs last night, a rickety individual was just coming up. Stumbling from step to step in his struggle to get higher, he stopped when Kinney got down that far and mumbled that he wanted to "see 'th' guvner." Kinney's reply evidently startled the bid fellow for he collapsed, knocking from under him the legs of the fish and game commissioner and sending him rolling over and over the stranger in the head with him, to the foot of the long stairway.
When the stranger was picked up, intoxication was found responsible for his tottering condition. No one thought to ask his name so quickly was he hurried on his way.
Despite Kinney's being hors de combat, the commission transacted one important item of business this forenoon when R. E. Clanton was reelected fish warden for the state. Within the next three months the commission will visit all the hatcheries in Oregon.

FRENCH RELIEVE FEZ; SAFETY NOW ASSURED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Tanger, May 23.—The safety of Fez from sack and massacre is believed to be assured today. Dispatches have reached here that Colonel Barnard's French relief expedition has reached the capital, where the sultan is beleaguered, and that it has either entered or is camped outside the walls of the city. The arrival of the French has dissipated all fears that the foreigners who were besieged with the sultan by the rebellious tribesmen will be slain.

MAYOR MAY CLOSE AVENUE TO TRAFFIC TO AID SICK MAN'S BATTLE FOR LIFE

In order to aid a dying man in the last struggle for life, Mayor Simon this morning asked City Engineer Morris to close Vancouver avenue, between Broadway and Hancock streets, every morning from 4 till 7 o'clock.
Dr. H. P. Ortschil, a pioneer resident of Portland, whose residence is at 338 Vancouver avenue, is making a last battle, against a nervous complaint. The busy thoroughfare is crowded at all hours of the day and a continuous stream of traffic pours along the avenue nearly all night as well. The sufferer is accustomed to the noise during the ordinary hours, but in the early morning the incessant rattle of milk wagons and scavenger carts bothers his nerves.
The nurse attending the sick man called Mayor Simon on the telephone this morning and asked him to do anything that could be done on behalf of Dr. Ortschil. The mayor immediately went over to the Ortschil residence in his automobile and promised to close the street, if he should find that the city engineer had the authority to do so.

REPORTED DIAZ TO RESIGN TODAY; PRISONS OPENED

Corral Said to Have Retired From Vice Presidency and President's Retirement to Come This Afternoon.

ALL JAILS DISGORGE
POLITICAL PRISONERS

Madero Expresses Great Satisfaction Upon Receipt of News From Capital.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Juarez, Mexico, May 23.—Reports reached here today from Mexico City that Vice President Ramon Corral had already resigned and that President Diaz would do so this afternoon. So far these reports are unconfirmed.
Madero expressed the greatest satisfaction at the news when he arrived at his office at the customs house here. A telegram from the capital advised him that Diaz this afternoon will release all political prisoners, more than 1000 in number, from the jails throughout the country. Many of the most prominent prisoners are Maderistas and at least 30 of them are personal friends of the rebel chief.
Several Mexican congressmen today telegraphed to Madero asking him how they were to vote on certain matters. Madero replied:
"The time has passed when the president of Mexico shall dictate to congress. Vote as the people want you to vote."

REBELS' FIGHTING SPIRIT IS BEYOND MADERO'S POWER

Chiefs Refuse to Withhold Attacks on Federals—They Threaten to Fall Upon Leon—Leader Is Abused.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Juarez, Mexico, May 23.—Francisco Madero Jr., would-be president of Mexico, sees today his chances of power likely to go glimmering if he cannot control the fighting spirit manifested by his followers, who, despite his order to cease fighting, are threatening to attack Leon.
Alarmed by the refusal of the rebel chiefs to withhold attacks on the federals, Madero has sent his two brothers, Gustavo and Emilio, into the interior to attempt to bring about peace upon which Madero's chances seem to depend.
Madero's great distress through the reported slaughter of 25 Chinese and several Japanese by the insurgents at Torreón. He fears that if the killing is as bad as reported it may mean the intervention of European powers, as well as Japan, and that his present commanding position will be lost. A family council of the Maderos, held here, decided to make every effort to control the rebels, and the power and influence of the family will be exerted to that end.
Copies of La Regeneracion, an insurrecto newspaper, which called Madero a slave driver and demanding the election of Ricardo Magón, head of the Los Angeles rebel junta, as president, were confiscated here today by orders of Madero, and the boys selling the paper were sent across the line into El Paso. Discussing the issue of the newspaper, Francisco Madero Sr., said:
"Figueron, Magón and the Los Angeles junta members today are socialists. They want to cause trouble here, as they do everywhere."
