PORTLAND TEAMS DON'T LIKE WAY MONEY IS CUT

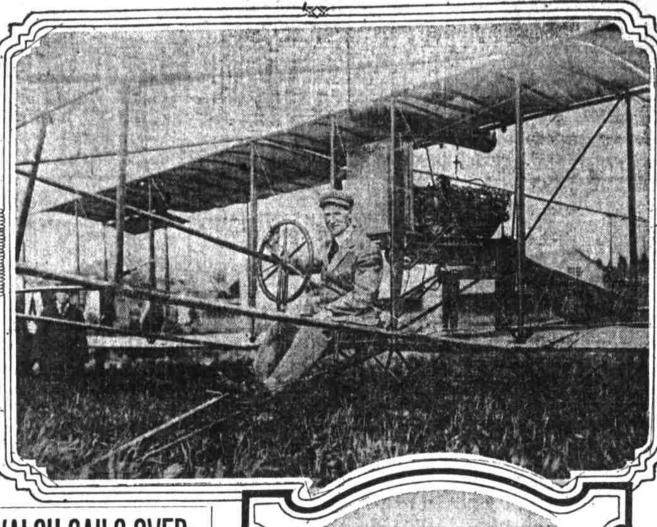

Portland teams in the Willamette Valley league are complaining, it is said, Dilworth Derbies and the Calef Bros., it is rumored, may withdraw. The Portland teams have no Sunday games at home, and the receipts abroad are divided 60 per cent to the winner and 40 to the loser, after the umpire, ground rent and balls are paid for. The Portland teams have to pay their own traveling and hotel expenses, which out into their end of the receipts. It is said they want to split the net after expenses of every character are taken out.
