

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL, RUNNING QUARTER MILE, COLLAPSES

Mae Welch, One of 15 Day-light Performers at Salem, Taken to Hospital, After Winning Mile and Shot Put.

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Ore., May 23.—Fifteen girls of the Salem high school—stuffed out at 4 o'clock this morning to hold a track meet, choosing a daylight hour so the boys would not see them. One hundred girls were present, 15 taking part in the events. There were 75 boys on the grounds soon after the opening event, but the meet went on until Mae Welch fell exhausted in the quarter mile dash and was taken to the hospital where she is reported to be recovering.
The meet was due to a challenge from the senior girls to the other three classes. Genevieve Frazier of the senior class was the bright morning star, taking the 50-yard and 100-yard dashes, the high jump, the broad jump and the discus throw. She caused her class to win the meet, the score standing 39 to 26 in favor of the senior girls when Miss Welch's collapse ended the event. Miss Welch had won the mile run for sophomores before she entered the quarter which caused her breakdown. She also won the shot put.
Mary Clarke won the hurdle race in a spectacular run.

RETAIL LUMBER DEALERS

cerning the lumber trust prosecutions the outcome of these cases, if the government succeeds in breaking up the alleged trust, will be greatly to benefit the Pacific coast manufacturers.
"The evidence that the attorney general has in his possession shows that not only have the retailers' organizations held up the public and charged them exorbitant prices for lumber," said this man, "but they have combined to fix the price at which they will buy lumber from the wholesalers and the manufacturers. There can be no doubt but that if the government succeeds in breaking up this combine it will be an excellent thing for the manufacturers of Oregon and Washington.
Lower Prices for Consumers.
"I believe that practically all of the lumber manufacturers appreciate this fact and would be glad to see the retailers' association broken up. It will enable them to get more for their product, I believe, and also, should result in lower prices for the consumer. There is no doubt but that Mr. Wickersham intends going after the retailers' associations in every part of the country.
There are no officers of the Western Retailers' association in Portland. The yards of members are scattered through the smaller places in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, and in cities where there are no sawmills. The retail trade in Portland is largely handled by the various large milling companies directly from the mills.

NORMAL TEACHERS OF '09 CAN GET SALARIES NOW

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Salem, Ore., May 23.—Oregon is now ready to pay off teachers in the defunct normal who were left short on their salaries in 1909. The total due the teachers approximates $30,000. The bill appropriating this became effective Saturday. Letters from the teachers show they are scattered over the entire union.

W. J. BURNS' AGENCY INVOLVED IN CHARGES

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Pittsburg, Pa., May 23.—Announcement was made here today that the Perkins Detective Agency had prepared a petition addressed to congress making sensational charges against certain postoffice inspectors and involving the William J. Burns' National Detective Agency.

MAY OPEN BOOKS BEFORE ELECTION

Kubli Says the Registration Scheme Is Move in Aid of Simon's Candidacy.

Efforts are being made to have the election registration books opened a few days before the election June 5. Attorney L. A. McNary, former city attorney and now legal representative of a large paving concern, held a conference this morning with the county court in regard to this matter.
No sooner had the word become known that Attorney McNary was in conference with the county court than opposition to the question appeared. Councilman Kubli, republican nominee from the Eighth ward for the council, and a strong supporter of Mr. Rushlight for mayor, charged that the effort was being made in the interest of Mayor Simon.
"A few days ago the same crowd that wants the books open now was opposing it," said Kubli. "It is a scheme to register voters that are thought to be favorable to Mayor Simon. It is a Simon plan, pure and simple. I suggested several days ago that the books be opened again to give some chance to register voters who had not done so. I was opposed then, and that was before Mayor Simon had come out as an independent candidate. I know a place where there are about 120 men working and there are not more than a dozen of them registered. If the books are opened, automobiles will be taken out there and these men brought to the clerk's office and allowed to register. It is safe to say they are Simon voters, and by opening the books, the person or persons that can spend the most money will be benefited. If the County Clerk Fields said he would not open the books unless authorized to do so by the county court. He said the books could not be opened longer than Thursday, Friday and Saturday, as it will take the next week to record the registered voters who sign these days. The county court is waiting on the council, which will tomorrow consider a resolution in regard to opening the books. A close vote, if not a tie, is expected on this question."

SOCIETY APPROVES POPULAR SHAMPOO

"Few of us realize how many prominent society women wash their own hair," says Mae Martyn in the New York American. "This home shampooing is not a fad but is due to the splendid results obtained by the use of a popular, quick-drying shampoo made by dissolving a teaspoonful of cantrox in a cup of hot water.
"This simple shampoo lathers freely and cleanses perfectly, being equally good for all shades of hair. It rinses easily and leaves the scalp refreshed and the hair lustrous, soft and very fluffy. Dandruff and scalp irritation disappear immediately.
"The fact that the alkali in soap shampoos has been found to cause streaky, thin, dull hair may be one of the reasons why society women have taken so favorably to this splendid shampoo in order not only to save but beautify their hair."

A delegation from Simon headquarters will visit the city hall tomorrow to ask the council to open the registration books for a few days to give unregistered voters an opportunity to vote without the trouble of securing six freeholders to swear in their votes.

THOMAS' FRIENDS ON STREET CORNERS BID FOR VOTES NIGHTLY

While the Simon and Rushlight forces are preparing to launch active campaigns for the election of their respective majority candidates, friends of George H. Thomas, the Democratic nominee, are nightly bidding for votes from automobiles on the down town street corners.
Meetings will be held tonight on at least three different corners. E. S. J. McAllister, W. W. Campbell and Frank Lee will speak in as many different places and it is likely that others will volunteer.
H. B. Van Duser, chairman of the Democratic county and city central committee, is preparing for meetings to be held in Sellwood, South Portland, Arleta, Albina and other portions of the city at early dates. Thomas' workers are making daily trips to all portions of the city, while Thomas himself is putting in his time visiting mills and factories where many voters are employed.

DECLARES SENTIMENT GROWING IN FAVOR OF DEMOCRATIC ASPIRANT

H. B. Van Duser, chairman of the Democratic county and city central committee, declared this morning that sentiment in favor of George H. Thomas, the Democratic candidate for mayor, is growing rapidly. "The people as a whole do not trust either Simon or Rushlight," said Chairman Van Duser, "and they are fast lining up behind Mr. Thomas, whom they have no reason to fear. I say this from personal experience, for I have talked to many voters of all political faith in the various suburbs.
"In making the fight for Mr. Thomas we expect to appeal to the taxpayer and home loving citizen, to the churches and better elements of society. Mr. Thomas early declared himself on the side of decency and law enforcement, and his record as a private citizen in adding to the city of Portland of the dives and open gambling houses that formerly existed here substantiates his stand.

"Mr. Thomas will draw a heavy vote from the laboring classes," continued Mr. Van Duser. "Mr. Rushlight is not the friend of labor, he would not have been nominated by the aid of the north end vote. It is indeed unfortunate for labor that it should be unwillingly affiliated with such interests.
"Joseph Simon is not an independent and never was one. He is an old line machine assemblyman, and the people know him. In his heart he does not favor the commission form of government and the people know that, too. In the two weeks between now and election day we intend to enlighten the people along these lines."

PROHIBITION PARTY NOMINEE PLANNING FOR CITY CAMPAIGN

Nominees of the Prohibition party for city offices are making the most active campaign in the history of the party in this state. Meetings are to be held in different sections of the city every night until the election. The principal speakers at these meetings are J. Allen Harrison, candidate for mayor, Bruce Wolverson, candidate for councilman at large to succeed Gay Lombard; J. F. Newell, state chairman, and E. E. Taylor, state organizer of the Prohibition party. Last night an enthusiastic meeting was held at Sellwood.
The following program of meetings has been arranged for the rest of this week: Tonight at Friend's church, Sunnyside; Wednesday, Central Methodist church, Albina; Thursday, Woodlawn; Friday, Christian church at Kern Park. The program for meetings next week will be announced later. A male quartet will enliven the proceedings at tonight's meeting.

Wholesale Grocers Meet.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Indianapolis, Ind., May 23.—Nearly 800 of the leading wholesale grocers of the United States, representing invested capital amounting to $190,000,000 responded to the roll call this morning at the opening of the annual convention of the National Wholesale Grocers' association. President Fred P. Drake of Eaton, Pa., opened the gathering to order and presided over the opening session, which was devoted to the exchange of greetings and the appointment of committees. The convention will spend three days in the discussion of various matters of importance to the wholesale trade. The Mann weights and measures bill now before congress and the strict enforcement of the pure food laws are among the subjects to receive attention.

SENATE UNIT FOR LORIMER INQUIRY

Progressives Favor Naming New Members for the Investigation.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, May 23.—Senator La Follette this afternoon resumed his speech on the Lorimer case. The senators here are practically unanimous in the belief that another investigation is necessary. The progressives favor naming the five new senators named in the La Follette resolution but they admit that the resolution in its present form cannot be passed. The measure, they say, has insured a further investigation of the case.
The Dillingham resolution introduced yesterday, it is said, was presented by the Vermont member merely to avoid the appearance of reflection upon his committee.

PREMIER LEARNS OF COLLEAGUE'S DEATH

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, May 23.—Premier Monis, who was seriously hurt in the aeroplane accident at Les-Moulins where Minister of War Berteaux was killed, was informed today of the death of his colleague. The premier was greatly affected and at once signed an order providing for a national funeral for Berteaux on Thursday.
The body of the dead minister today lies in state in the war office and is being viewed by thousands.
It is believed that the recovery of Premier Monis will be rapid. The internal injuries he sustained are of less consequence than was feared at first.

Hutchins Insanity Case.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Washington, D. C., May 23.—The petition of Mrs. Rose K. Hutchins to have her husband, Stilson Hutchins, adjudged insane, came on for hearing today in the district supreme court. Mrs. Hutchins declares her husband has sustained paralytic strokes and is mentally deranged in consequence. Hutchins is an aged millionaire and was formerly prominent as a newspaper publisher in the west.
A miniature safety razor has been invented by a Frenchman for trimming finger nails.

Queen Quality Shoes

IN buying shoes, like everything else, there are certain things you can see for yourself to aid you in selection. But there are other things you can't see—QUALITY. The part you can't see is the more important. The service you'll get depends on the quality; the fit depends on the workmanship; and at Baker's the price depends on what the shoes ARE—not what they seem. "Queen Quality" shoes furnish you the "value received" you expect, and ought to receive every time. Baker's sweeping guarantee of satisfaction makes this statement an absolute certainty.
