Weather Conditions.

An area of high pressure is central off the New England coast, and another high pressure area overlies western Canada and is spreading southward over the northern Rockles, causing cooler weather in the Pacific northwest. Over the rest of the country the pressure 's relatively low. Snow has fallen in Alberta, and light rain in Saskatchewan, Montana, southern Idaho, in the Ohio and upper Mississippi valleys and lake region, in the east gulf states and in the St. Lawrence valley. Thunderstorms were reported from Havre, Pocatello and Kansas City. The weather is cooler in western Pennsylvania, and warmer in castern New York, New Jersey, Texas and southern Saskatchewan.

Atmospheric conditions are unsettled, but are favorable for showers tonight in southern Oregon and southern Idaho, and generally fair weather throughout the remainder of the district. Temperatures will continue moderately low, and north to northeast winds will obtain.

Accident-Victims Recovering.—Helen and Margaret Beckett, the two little daughters of William Beckett, 974 East Nineteenth street, who were struck by streetcar on Alberta street about a week ago, are rapidly recovering from their injuries. Mr. Beckett says that the girls were not playing on the street as was stated at the time of the accident, but that they were on their way home from a neighboring grocery store and were in the act of crossing the street when the car, running at a very high rate of speed, struck them. Helen received the more serious injuries, says Mr. Beckett. Margaret saving her life of 60 feet or more. Margaret is but five years of age and the fact that she clung to the fender until the car was brought to a stop is regarded as the most remarkable feature of the acci-

IN "THE YANKEE GIRL."

Blanche Ring.

The locale of the story of "The Yankee Girl" is laid in a South American republic, known as the lale of Brilliantine, and the latin atmosphere which prevails gives opportunity for much that is picturesque and romantic. It has a sort of unique story that is told in a humorous, satirical kind of of Portland and Oregon. a way, and a great deal of convincing matter that, delivered as it is by clever artists of note and comedians of reputation, never fails to get over the footlights and amuse the auditors. During the progress of the piece

Miss Ring sings a number of songs and also a few of the old ones by way of good measure, which are varied in their style and, Blentifully pleasing in lilt and measure.

There is a lot of good material in "The Yankee Girl" and it is well charged with comedy, and as it has received enconiums from not only great metropolis, but all the large cities east of the Missouri river, there is no doubt that there is a treat in store for all who consider it their privilege

$1000 NOW GOAL OF TEDDY FUND

Two Little Friends of Half Blind Boy Add $1 to the Amount Now Gained.

Previously acknowledged. $268.64 "Two Little Friends" of Bly, Or 1.00

"Two Little Friends of Teddy" from Bly, Or., have sent Teddy, waif of the Baby Home, a whole dollar, to add to the fund which is to be spent for his education. It brings the total within a few cents of $370, and is accepted as an indication of the continued interest in the little fellow, who will have no chance at all to make good, unless given that chance by the kind hearted people

An effort is being made to increase the Teddy fund to $1000. This will take him from the Baby Home and put him in school for two or three years, or perhaps longer, dependent on the cost. By that time he will have gotten a good start toward ability for self-support, which is the ultimate object of those who are interested in the fortunes of the bright little fellow. The money secured will be spent under the direction of a board of trustees, appointed some time ago, and consisting of George W. Bates, George A. Long and Mrs. F. H. Ransom. The money as received by The Journal, or by any of the trustees, is deposited for Teddy in the George W Bates & Co. bank.

The copt of interments have been greatly reduced by the Etiman Undertaking company.

Encetofore it has been the custom of funeral directors to make charges for all incidentals connected with a funeral. The Edward Holman Undertaing company, the leading funeral directors of Portland, have departed from that custom. When casket is furnished by us we make no extra charges for embolming, hearse to cemetery, outside box or any services that may be required of us, except clothing, cemetery and carriages, thus effecting a saving of $15 to $75 on each funeral.
