

1319 VOTERS PUT NAMES ON ROLLS; RUSH CONTINUES

3000 Persons Will Have Qualified by the Time Registration Books Close Tomorrow Night, It Is Said.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Registration books at the courthouse will be open only one day after today, tonight until 9 o'clock, and tomorrow from 8 a. m. to 3 p. m. Tomorrow will be the last day to register.
All who failed to register last year or prior to the city primaries this year must register or lose their votes, unless they resort to the uncertainty of swearing in by the aid of six freeholders. Those who have moved from one precinct to another must register. To register you must have lived in the city six months and in the precinct 30 days.

All records for registration in Multnomah county, with one exception, were taken yesterday, when 387 names were added to the list and 322 more transferred from one precinct to another, making a total of 1319 names properly entered in the books.

Today the stream is not running so strongly, but a crowd is constantly on hand to keep the clerks busy, and the waiting lines frequently extend almost to the curb from the registration booth. It is believed that by tonight the registration for the day will be 300 or more. Estimating the final rush tomorrow, it is not improbable that 3000 new voters will have qualified to cast their ballots on June 5.

Republicans in Majority.

When the books were closed prior to the primaries there were 33,172 in the city precincts, yesterday bringing the total to 34,159. Of this total the Republicans have registered about 27,000, the Democrats 4500 and other parties or independents 2300. Yesterday there were 681 Republicans, 147 Democrats and 178 miscellaneous.

W. E. Finners, superintendent of the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing company, who was detained yesterday by the sheriff because of his paying carfare to employ as they registered, was released by direction of District Attorney Cameron and told to appear before the grand jury next Monday. Patrolman Tom Swinnee, who witnessed the transaction, was also told to appear as a witness.

Examination of the corrupt practice act in its nearest application, shows the following provision in section 3516 of Lord's Oregon Laws:
"It shall be unlawful for any person to pay another for any loss or damage due to attendance at the polls or for registering, or for the expense of transportation to or from the polls."
Lawyers disagree as to whether Finners committed an offense under this law. While the first part would seem to apply, the last clause, "or for registering," is held by some to exclude the payment of expense of transportation for the purpose of registering. It is claimed under this construction that if the legislature had intended to make it a crime to pay the expense of another for transportation to the place of registration, it would have done so specifically, as it did in the case of voting.

LOSES RIGHT LEG, SUES FOR $30,000 DAMAGES

The suit of Joseph Poeschl to recover $30,000 damages from the Southern Pacific company for the loss of his right leg is on trial in the United States court before Judge Bean. Poeschl was a bridge carpenter employed by the defendant. January 4, 1910, while at work on a trestle on the Fourth street line in South Portland he was run down by a train and his right leg cut off. He claims due warning was not given by the train in time to allow him to get out of danger.

Body Is Identified.

The body found yesterday in the Willamette river between the Oceanic dock and the Portland Flouring mills has been identified as John Amella Romano, of Oakland, Cal. Romano fell from the steamer Rosa City last week and the body has been missing until yesterday. A brother and sister in Oakland survive him.

Langford to Meet Caponi.

Chicago, May 26.—Chicago fans are busy tonight over the fight between Sam Langford and Tony Caponi, scheduled at Kenosha, Wis., next Monday night. This battle will mark the debut of the Boston rat baby in the west. Big crowds from here will see the scrap.

McCarthy Says Never Indicated Wish That Seymour Be Ousted; Police Department Head Still at Desk.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
San Francisco, May 26.—Apparently satisfied with the action of the police commission in dismissing Chief of Police Seymour, Mayor McCarthy declared today that he had never at any time indicated a wish that Seymour should be removed, further than that in a letter to the commission he had criticized the work of the police. Seymour is still at his desk, having obtained an injunction against the commissioners enforcing their order of suspension.
McCarthy's letter of criticism was one of the most sensational documents ever read before a police board. Quite openly he said he wanted the "lid" thrown off of San Francisco, the beach reopened, the resumption of dancing in the cafes, the opening of the tenderloin and the permitting of women to drink in resorts in the mission. Barbery coast, he said, he desired thrown open as it was before Seymour was put in as chief of police.
McCarthy's removal of Seymour—for that is what his action virtually amounts to—is regarded as a political maneuver preliminary to McCarthy's announcement that he is to be a candidate for mayor. He was elected by the "open town" vote and has been constantly on the grill since Seymour, who was put in by the more conservative element, "closed up the town."
McCarthy's criticism is regarded as most unusual as coming from a mayor. He made the usual charges that open town gambling houses were running with, if not Seymour's sanction, his full knowledge.

SPECIAL TROPHIES FOR ROSE EXHIBITS

Handsome Prizes Donated by Lovers of Beauty for Various Classes.

There have been added to prizes offered for best exhibits at the Rose Show, Tuesday and Wednesday of Festival week these trophies: Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett offers a Lardsmore trophy for best twenty-four perfect roses, any named variety, or variety, shown in basket.
Mrs. Elliot Corbett offers beautiful trophy for five vases of perfect roses, six blooms in each, any named variety.
Mr. William Sibson presents a fine trophy for three perfect blooms of Mildred Grant.
The Lumbermen's National bank offers a fine cup for best rose, any named variety, grown in garden having not more than fifty bushes. This is given to induce people having a limited number of roses, and who do not wish to enter for the general competition, to exhibit.
The Rose society will welcome any further offerings from citizens who would like to give trophies for special exhibits.
The secretary, R. B. Lamson, will, on application, furnish printed cards of regulation size for labeling roses for exhibition, to all who desire them.
The cups already offered are now on exhibition in the windows of Portland's leading jewelers.

MILTON FEEDS BERRIES FREE, AT $4 A CRATE

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Milton, Or., May 26.—Strawberries at $4 a crate are being given away by the business men of Milton today, at the annual Strawberry day festival. When the time for the festival was determined upon, the cool, rainy weather of the past two or three weeks was not anticipated, and the berries did not ripen in time for the occasion. Rather than postpone the event, the business men behind the celebration went ahead, and free berries were served to all, as customary. Had the festival been a week or two later, the berry season would have been at its height.
Excursions were run to Milton today and the attendance is close to 3000. The excursion from Walla Walla, under the auspices of the Commercial club, left over the interurban at 10 o'clock. Several hundred made the trip.

MEAT FIGHT IS ON AT WALLA WALLA

Walla Walla, Wash., May 26.—Meat buyers are being cut between days, the outside butchers. Medicine men, who are endeavoring to get a hold in the local market, are said to be slashing prices right and left to get trade started, and consumers are beginning to find out that the cost of living has not fallen as much as they thought.
The meat is said to bear the United States inspection stamp, and is killed for sale by the importers' allies. They can make money in doing the cut rate business.
Prices have fallen, as a result, to a figure where, for the first time in many months, local consumers are getting beef at a lower mark than the actual cost to the butcher.

Scene From "The Schoolmistress," Pacific U. Play

Sophomores of Pacific University Rehearsing. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pacific University, Forest Grove, Or., May 26.—The Schoolmistress is to be presented at Forest Grove tonight by the sophomore class of Pacific University. The play is a three-act comedy by Pinerio. Miss Goldie Peterson takes the part of "the Schoolmistress," and D. C. Clapp the part of "Honorable Vere Quickett." The cast consists of 16 characters, worked out under Professor Harrington of the dramatic arts department. Seven of the cast are taking special work in this department. The performance will be repeated at Banks Saturday evening.

RAID IS IN PROGRESS FOR PENDLETON OPIUM

(Salem Bureau of The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., May 26.—Two government officials, assisted by Sheriff T. D. Taylor, Deputy Sheriff Joe Blakely and Chief of Police Gurdane, are making a raid on local Chinatown and all houses of a questionable character shortly before noon today in a search for opium. It has been known for a long time that large quantities of the drug were being used here and it is in an effort to stop this illegal practice that the federal officers were sent here.

WANTS COMMISSION FORM

James Maguire.

James Maguire, an old resident of the Tenth ward, is one of the candidates for the city council seeking to succeed Councilman J. T. Ellis, against whom the recall has been set in motion. Mr. Maguire is advocating the commission form of government, and says it cannot come too soon to suit him.
"I will be ready to resign at any time to bring the commission government into effect," he says. "As to the paving question, I believe in making competition as wide as possible and if that fails to reduce prices and bring satisfactory conditions, I would favor a municipal plan."
"In the Tenth ward we have a question of local interest in the plan of a sewer outlet into Columbia slough. If that were done, people could not live safely within a mile of the place in midsummer."
Mr. Maguire has been engaged for six years in the real estate business and previous to that time worked as a mechanic and engineer. He is being given strong support by the labor element and holds a union card. Last February he was appointed by Governor West as a member of the new Port of Portland commission, the only public office he has held. He has been a resident of the ward about 25 years and resides at 589 Prescott street.

STATE CONDEMNS SITE AT HALF PRICE ASKED

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Pendleton, Or., May 26.—By a verdict brought in last night by a jury in the condemnation suit instituted by the state, C. C. Hendricks will be given $2500 for his 10 acre tract just west of the city, which is wanted for asylum purposes. The jury was not out long and the award was entirely satisfactory to the state officials. Hendricks asked $5000.

ALLEGES STEPMOTHER HAS DECEASED HER

Alleging that she has been defrauded out of her share of property by her stepmother, Myrtle M. Delaney started suit this morning in the circuit court to recover the same. The suit is against Elizabeth Scott, widow of Henry Scott, who died in 1906. It is charged that the stepmother represented that a certain transfer of deed was necessary, and in this way had the share of the stepchild transferred to Sidney Zetoch. The property is located near East Ankeny street and Bichel avenue. There is also some ranch land in Coos county. The stepdaughter was married last month and asked for an accounting. When an investigation was made, she found her share of the property had passed into the hands of Zetoch. Suit is brought to recover the title.

Lebanon Closing Begins Tonight.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Lebanon, Or., May 26.—The Lebanon High school graduates will hold the first of commencement exercises in the opera house this evening, at which time they will present the play, "Price of Money." Sunday evening in the Methodist church President Homan of Willamette university will preach the sermon and graduating exercises will be held on Monday night in the opera house. This is the first class to graduate out of the new high school. It is the thirteenth graduating class and there are just 13 in the class, six boys and seven girls. They are: Katherine Kirkpatrick, Ora Koebler, Minnie Weiszie, Lillian Coppock, Inez Kearn, Susie Fry, Frank Doolittle, Carl Connet, William Glaser, Andrew McCormick, Wayne Henderson and Tommy Morgan.

Sues for Damages.

Injuries received by being run down with an automobile are the basis for a suit in the circuit court of J. S. Grant against T. H. West. Grant alleges he was crossing Washington street at Sixth street July, 1910, when West ran him down. Internal injuries were sustained. He asks for $1160 damages.

COX RESUMES HIS PLACE AS CHIEF

Mayor Notifies Chief and Moore of Change by Telephone—No Ceremonies.

At noon today, Mayor Simon in a telephone conversation with A. M. Cox, notified him that he was again the head of the police department and in the same message relieved Captain of Detectives Moore who has been acting chief since the first of the month, from further duty as chief.
Captain Moore, who was at the city hall this morning on private business, encountered the mayor in the halls, and the mayor at that time notified him to tell Chief Cox that he should resume his duties. When the message was delivered Chief Cox called up to confirm the message and received orders to take charge again.
The chief immediately donned his uniform, thanked Captain Moore for the work he had done while acting chief, took the keys which had been in Moore's possession and ordered the captain to return to detective headquarters and resume his charges there.
It is being rumored around town, today that John P. Kennedy is slated to succeed Cox. Mayor Kennedy was formerly secretary of the city civil service commission. He resigned from that position expecting to be appointed to the office of municipal judge to replace the present judge, George Tawell, who was appointed by Mayor Simon.

CANNON PEPPERY, WIGGLES HIS FIST

"Uncle Joe" Doubles Up His Hand—But, of Course, It Stopped Right There.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, May 26.—Uncle Joe Cannon, in the house today, showed that he still has some pepper in his composition. The former speaker's safety gauge blew off when Representative Sherwood (Democrat, Ohio) said he could "prowl" that Cannon, as speaker, smothered Sherwood's dollar-a-day pension bill and declared that he now showed the remarkable gall in advocating the measure.
Sherwood and Cannon occupy seats close together. At Sherwood's charge, Cannon leaped to his feet, shook his fist in Sherwood's face and shouted:
"I now look you in the eye and say there is no truth in your statement."
An appeal to the chair on a point of order prevented further developments in the row.

PACKED COURTROOM HEARS DALTON PLEAD

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Oakland, Cal., May 26.—A courtroom packed to the doors heard Assessor Henry P. Dalton plead not guilty today to two indictments charging him with having demanded and accepted a bribe of $5000 from the Spring Valley Water company. Superior Judge William H. West overruled demurrers on the strength of briefs filed by District Attorney Donahue yesterday. Charles H. Fallert entered the plea for Dalton. Judge West, not satisfied with the method of pleading, insisted upon Dalton answering to the charges in person.
Dalton arose and said:
"Not guilty."
The case was set for trial June 22.

Your Chance for Land!

Land as fertile as any in the whole Northwest—land that will grow unsurpassable fruits and vegetables; land beautifully set in a green crescent valley, lined by sparkling streams; handy to school, church, to store, to town, and conveniences. Land in a district where railroad and river steamers compete for the hauling of your products to Portland at the smallest known rate. It is near Goble, on the Columbia river, an hour's run from Portland.

Isn't that the sort of land you're looking for, Mr. Homeseeker? Isn't that the place for your home?

No matter how limited your means, that sort of land is right now within your reach. We are introducing our matchless Beaver Homes.

Orchard and Garden Tracts at Redland

for as little as $25 an acre. Our highest present price on the choicest locations is only $80 per acre. And every acre, no matter what the price, is of the finest soil—just such land as you can pay $300 or $600 or $1800 per acre for if you go into one of the old established districts.

And please bear in mind that the established districts of today were the non-producing, cheap-land districts of yesterday, and that our district will quickly leap into place as one of the rich producing sections. Nearness to Portland, richness of soil, rare opportunities such as are attracting only the most desirable class of hustlers—those things and others make our district one of the big "comers."

It may sound strange, but we will not sell our land to everyone. We don't care a snap whether a man's got a whole lot of money or none at all. But we do want to know that he's in earnest, that he is a worker and that he will make a desirable resident. You see, our future is to a large degree in the future of our holdings—which depends altogether on the producers that settle there. Every worker that settles here means something to us, as well as to everyone in the district.

CHARPITTING, the new economy land-clearing system, is what makes it possible for you to get a home in this new district at such a small figure. Thanks to this method, there's no more donkey engines and dynamiting needed for clearing the land. You do the trick with a box of matches and a mattock, and it's more like play than hard work.

And thus you get virile, virgin land—land that you can depend on. You're not taking any chances like you are sometimes when you buy cleared, producing land that may be about petered out.

Figures talk, too—Take a bit of our land, say 10 acres, at $40 an acre—$400 for it all on small payments. That isn't a very heavy obligation, is it? Especially when you can make these small payments monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. On the other hand, take the land in an old district at say $2000. That's quite an obligation for many people.

Now, the difference between $400 and $2000 is several times the cost of clearing prime, raw land by the CHARPIT method. And anyone, regardless of age or strength, can charpitt successfully. Much successful charpitting has already been done in Washington by small boys (see current issue of Technical World).

If you are in earnest about wanting a small farm that will make you and your family more than independent, if you are really looking for a good land proposition, then we want to get in touch with you. We can be of benefit to each other.
