THE TRULY BRAVE. Where they behold the brave oppressed with odds.

Are touched with a desire to shield and save. —Byron.

DIAZ

THE BLUNDER of Diaz was that he insisted on being president too long. He was originally a progressive. As early as 1855, while yet in his youth, he was an insurrectionist.

But all men are vain. The exercise of power flatters their vanity. It creates a thirst for more power. It makes them bourgeois and reactionaries.

Diaz' insistence that he was the only man capable of ruling Mexico led him into fatal errors, and harmed his country.

It would have been a happier and better Mexico if Diaz had retired when his proper time came to retire.

Instead of yesterday, Diaz had retired when his work was finished, the Mexicanizing of Mexico would have been avoided.

BREAKING A GENTLEMEN'S AGREEMENT

IT IS ANNOUNCED that the Republic Iron & Steel company has declared that it will embark on a "more aggressive sales policy."

THE LURE OF THE LAND. THERE WAS NEVER a better time than now to go to the country to reside.

THE CHICAGO PACKERS found an understanding as efficacious as an iron clad contract in setting prices in the stockyards.

THE GROWTH of cities helped the upward movement. Greater cities with more population made more consumers of farm products and higher prices for the farm output.

process on the other, could and did enforce the "gentlemen's agreement" on big and little.

THE REPUBLIC IRON & STEEL company has a battle royal on its hands, unless means are effectually taken by the United States Steel corporation to herd it back into the fold.

THE TRUSTEES of the Carnegie peace endowment fund took advantage of the annual peace conference at Lake Mohawk, New York, to publish their conclusions.

THE HEAPS of refuse on which they feed are expeditiously burned. In the markets, glass cases display the meats and tall cabinets with sliding doors show the poultry.

much difference between Mothers' Day and any other Sunday. Mothers' Day is not a joke. A mother's life is not a jest, but a stern and serious, if an affectionate fact.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

WOODROW WILSON'S PARTY LABEL. Portland, May 24.—To the Editor of The Journal.—It is rather surprising to find such a clear-headed, progressive man as Mr. W. P. Olds asking why Governor Wilson did not "connect himself with the party."

THE PROBLEM OF THE FOREIGNER. Portland, Or., May 22.—To the Editor of The Journal.—I am one of those foreigners who, according to what Americans say, are the disgrace of the United States.

BY STARVATION. IT IS SAID THAT there are no files in London. Attempt is being made to starve them to death in Boston.

THE BEXELL BOOK. THE BOOK ON "Farm Accounting and Business Methods," prepared by Professor I. A. Bexell of the Oregon Agricultural college, has met approval by the critic of the Literary Digest.

MOTHERS' DAY. COMMENTING ON Mothers' Day, one exchange treated it with levity. It said: "Yesterday was Mothers' Day, but it's father's day six days in the week."

THE NEW MARYLAND RULE. A rule has been adopted by the judges of the supreme bench of Maryland to prevent lawyers from "bullying" witnesses, particularly women, while giving testimony.
