in the drawing rooms harmonized and mirrored with the white and gold and pale blue and furnished an enchanting spot for the musicians. The dining room was in red with red carnations and candelabra with red shaded lights on the table at which Mrs. D. C. Burns, Mrs. Robert French, Mrs. F. M. Parvin and Mrs. E. L. Towns sent poured tea and served loss. Misses Alice Wehrung, Marie Ginrich, Edith Slusher, Fern Hutchinson, Mildred Armstrong, Mary Welch and Lucile Kenworthy, in soft tones of pink, floated about the rooms. In the living rooms were many interesting souvenirs brought from Norway by Mrs. Puffer but but recently returned from a long sojourn through Europe. Miss Elizabeth Johnson in a Norwegian costume, brought from Hammerfest, the most northerly city in the world, announced the guests. Miss Appleby, Miss Ida Shea and Miss Hazel Koonitz, in dainty red frocks, attended the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. James Muckle, Mrs. James Appleby, Mrs. Los Angeles, Mrs. J. C. La Barra, Mrs. Jack Marshall Yates, Mrs. Theodore Falongus and Mrs. Wortman T. Wade.

Mrs. W. B. Hare, guest of honor and a recent bride, received in a gown of white duchesse satin with pearl trimmings and carried lilacs of the valley.

Mrs. Puffer wore black crepe with pink corals and white roses.

Mrs. Hare was in pale blue marquisette over a foundation of blue satin with diamonds.

Mrs. Graves wore pink crepe over silk with diamonds and pink rose buds.

The beautiful music played by Waldemar Lind is too well known to need further praise though it seemed even more effective in his wonderful interpretation of the composition of the famous Norwegian, Ole Bull. Miss Zeta Hollister sang beautifully several Norwegian songs and the Misses Elma Anderson and Mildred Kling in Norwegian costume played (cuts charming).

Mrs. Felix Friedlander with her mother, Mrs. Mark Levy, planned a bridge afternoon yesterday for the enjoyment of Mrs. Sanford Kraemer of San Francisco, who is to spend the summer with Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kraemer.

Miss Ruth Sichel, whose marriage to Albert Schweitzer of San Francisco, will be an interesting event of late June, was the honor guest at a dainty luncheon presided over by Miss Elsie E. Simon last Saturday. Places were marked for seven.

The annual officers' hop and senior promenade was given at the Hill Military academy armory Friday night. The patronesses of this ball, which was the most formal and brilliant of the many delightful social functions given by the cadets this year were Mrs. Rupert J. Chipman, Mrs. Ann Rebecca Hill, Mrs. Joseph Wood Hill, Mrs. James Ernest Laidlaw, Mrs. Grace McDonough, Mrs. Samuel Beamer Pague, Mrs. Alexander Colloidin Pantan, Mrs. George Frederick Sanburn, Mrs. William Lady Decies, the former Miss Vivien Gould of New York, in the gown prepared for her presentation at the court of King George and Queen Mary. Lady Decies has been "taken up" by the Marchioness of Waterford, who, as Lady Lansdowne's daughter, is a power in the most exclusive of the noble set which includes the Duchesses of Portland and Devonshire.

Charles Slattery and Mrs. Jane Windingstad. The hosts of the evening were the following cadet officers and senior classmen: Cadet officers, Major Richard Edward Wiley, Captain and Adjutant Wendell Knight Phillips, Captains Raymond Eroll Gorman, Donald Mitchell Clark, and James Frederick Hutton, Lieutenants Lindsay Hoyt Brown, Willard St. Martin, Adam C. Murray, Albert Harry Bell, Valentine Brown Jr. and Donald Mitchell Pague, Seniors, Richard Edward Wiley, Irving Martin Lupton, Myron Smith Thompson, Adam C. Murray, Raymond Eroll Gorman, Leroy Verne Holbrook, Guy Mitchell Perham and William C. Munity.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Beck entertained elaborately at their home on Twenty-second and Flanders, on Thursday evening, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ehrman, who are leaving shortly for Europe, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ehrman of San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thompson asked guests to their Portland Heights home Thursday to enjoy an evening of bridge. Mrs. Adolph Dekum and A. B. Slauson carried off the prizes. The guests numbered Mr. and Mrs. James D. Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Andrew Shindler, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mr. and Mrs. Max Hauser, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Clendenning, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Slauson, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Dekum and Miss Elizabeth P. Sawyers.

The wedding of Miss Adele Clara Huntsberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Edward Huntsberger of Los Angeles, and Harold Eugene Reed, older son of Mrs. Ross Reed-Hanscomb, will take place June 14 at the Immanuel Presbyterian church, Los Angeles. Immediately after the ceremony a reception will be held at the Huntsberger residence, 821 Lake street. Both Miss Huntsberger and Mr. Reed are members of the 1910 class of Stanford university. Miss Huntsberger is a member of the PI Beta Phi sorority, and was prominent in student dramatics. Mr. Reed was a prominent athlete of Stanford, is a Kappa Sigma man, was president of his senior class, and is a member of the Quadrangle club, also of "Skull and Bones." He was on the football, basketball and track team, holding Stanford's record for the 100 yard dash, 10 seconds flat. The young couple will reside in Los Angeles.

An elaborate affair of Wednesday was the five hundred afternoon of 23 tables, given at the Portland Heights club by Mrs. George W. Simpson, Mrs. Nathaniel T. Palmer and Mrs. McKinley Mitchell. Scotch broom, artistically arranged, added to the attractiveness of the occasion, and lights shaded in yellow cast a soft glow over the many prettily gowned women. Music was discoursed during the afternoon by a string orchestra, screened behind palms. The fortunate players at cards were Mrs. Warren Keeler, Miss Jellison and Mrs. Henry Schulderman, Miss Lena Simpson, Miss Crystal Keck, Miss Alice Gadsby, Miss Louise Manning, Miss Dorothy Crooks, Miss Laura Alken and Miss Bernice Calloway assisted about the rooms. Mrs. Simpson wore a gown of light blue brocade, veiled with blue crepe and trimmed in rose point and a dash of cerise. Mrs. Mitchell had on apricot crepe meteor with iridescent bead trimming, and Mrs. Palmer was in an imported gown of empire blue, with handsome trimming in Persian effect. On the invitation list were: Mrs. Bert Denison, Mrs. Minerva Denison, Mrs. John Toft, Mrs. A. N. Wright, Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mrs. Ira Powers, Mrs. Charles F. Read, Mrs. Charles Brooks, Mrs. John J. Read, Mrs. F. A. Dudley, Mrs. J. Wertheimer, Mrs. Aaron Pilzer, Mrs. William J. Clark, Mrs. Will Meriman, Mrs. T. H. Edwards, Mrs. E. E. Merges, Mrs. J. F. O'Donnell, Mrs. C. J. Cook, Mrs. Charles Irwin, Mrs. W. W. Banks, Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Ralph D. Cook, Mrs. J. J. Morgan, Mrs. Robert Lutke, Mrs. George Emery, Mrs. William Redd, Mrs. Edwin Johnson, Mrs. George Flanders, Mrs. Warren Keeler, Mrs. B. S. Pague, Mrs. Fred W. Graves, Mrs. W. Y. Masters, Mrs. J. J. from end to end by a wide hall. Opening from this hall on both sides on the two floors are little rooms, each with a window opening to the outside, and each arranged so that ventilation almost equal to that in an out of door sleeping apartment may be obtained. There are 12 of these little rooms on each floor. Only bachelors will be accommodated, as it is a part of the Country club plan to provide ground for building country homes for those members who are married and have families.

Mrs. Thomas M. Patterson entertained informally at bridge on Thursday to meet Mrs. Fred Ross of Ekenburg, Wash. Mrs. Oliver King Jeffery carried off card honors.

Mrs. Oscar E. Overbeck entertained with three tables of bridge Wednesday for her guest from Spokane, Mrs. E. A. Lindsley. Prizes fell to Mrs. Louis Bruns and Mrs. Hugh Gearin. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs. Overbeck and Mrs. Lindsley motored to Salem. Mrs. Lindsley will return to her home on Tuesday.

The Junior auxiliary of the Baby Home will hold a meeting tomorrow at 3:30 in room 147, Selling building, Sixth and Alder streets. Miss May Coon, president, will call the meeting to order, and an urgent appeal is made to all members to be present.

Mrs. Henry Jenning, Jr., invited guests for seven tables of bridge on Friday, when prizes were won by Mrs. Chester Deering, Mrs. H. O. Hickox and Mrs. John C. McCue. The hall was attractive with effectively arranged Scotch broom and red rosebuds were beautiful in the rooms. Mrs. Jenning was assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Clarence Illidge and Mrs. Frank J. Walsh.

Miss Myrtle S. Baker entertained informally at five hundred Thursday evening when her guests were Miss Marguerite Boshke, Miss Leslie Leadbetter, Miss Vivian Holmes, Bruce Hease, Merrill Moores, Robert Nelson, Craig McMillen and Guy Henderson.

Mrs. Helen Cardwell has planned a bridge afternoon for Wednesday.

Portland Rowing club gave the second dance of its season Friday at the club house, foot of Ivon street. The attendance was unusually large and decorations of the club colors, dark blue, light blue and white, with numbers of Japanese lanterns, were most attractive. These dances are "shirt waist" affairs and informality is one of the most delightful features. Mrs. Ralph W. Wilbur and Mrs. H. E. Judge are the patronesses for the series.

The Knabe

THE WORLD'S BEST PIANO

New York, March 7, 1910

Messrs. Wm. Knabe & Co.
439 Fifth Ave., City.

Dear Sirs:

In your charming Wignonne Grand I have found the piano which has completely satisfied the demands I put to it in supporting my voice.

Such symmetry of form, such adaptability to any space, with so great resources of tone, combined with an action that responds to the gentlest touch, make the instrument both rare and inimitable.

Sincerely yours,
Mary Garden

85 E. 56th Street.

Where OTHERS HAVE FAILED to build a small yet perfect Grand Piano meeting present day requirements, the House of Knabe, after years of careful research and experiment, has succeeded in producing possessing a tone peculiar to and distinctive of all Knabe Pianos

Its small size makes it particularly adapted to small houses and apartments, at a price but a trifle more than the cost of a high-grade Upright Piano.

Convenient terms of purchase will be arranged.
