

FRESH ST. TRADE HAS GOOD SUPPLY OF STRAWBERRIES

Shipments come from North, East, South and West—Height of Shipping Within Next Ten Days.

The strawberry market is showing the greatest receipts of the season to date. Supplies are now coming from all directions.

Shipments from the Clackamas district are coming forward in greater supply and are perhaps the best seen in the local trade this season.

The Lebanon association has decided to pool its interests with the Pacific Fruit & Produce company.

SHEEP MARKET 25 CENTS LOWER BUT HOGS HOLD FIRM

Cattle Down as Expected With Record Runs of Past Few Days; Cholera Hogs From East Hurting Industry.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK RUN. Hogs: Cattle, Calves, Sheep. Best steers.....$12.00

The cattle market is quite weak, hogs are strong and sheep generally lower, although selected lambs are firm.

While today was practically a holiday at the North Portland yard, a small amount of business was transacted on account of the huge carover from yesterday.

The cattle market plainly shows the effects of the high run of the past 10 days and especially that big showing of yesterday, and prices are accordingly slashed.

General range of cattle: Best steers.....$12.00

Hogs Are Strong at Advance. While no hogs were received in the Portland yards today, the market carried over its strength from yesterday.

OAKLANDERS TAKE MORNING CONTEST

Steen Blows Up in Eighth Inning and Allows Visitors Six Runs.

Bill Steen pitched great ball until the eighth inning this morning, when he weakened and the Oaks put over six runs on five hits, thereby putting the game out of danger.

The Oaks tied the game in the eighth on Ryan's single, and Rapp's double to center.

Portland scored first in the third on Peckinpough's single, his stolen base, Murray's single and Steen's out, in a double play.

In the next inning the Oaks tied the score on Pfyf's first double, Coy's sacrifice grounder and Hoffman's sacrifice.

Portland moved ahead when two scores were made in the seventh on Sheehan's double, Peckinpough's single, Coy's bad throw to the plate and Murray's second single.

Oakland moved up another run in the seventh on Hitting's walk, his stolen base, and Pearce's single to center.

Oaks Hit Hard. The big blowup came in the eighth, when Steen lost his cunning.

For good measure the Wolverines made another in the ninth. With one out Hoffman singled and registered on successive singles by Cuthshaw and Zacher. Score: OAKLAND. AR. R. H. P. O. A. E.

The following army comrades of General Burke will act as pallbearers: General Anderson, General Bacon, Colonel Trainbridge, Captain Hason, Major Clayton and Major Cabell.

General Burke was one of the best known army officers in the northwest. During the greater part of his army career since the Civil war he was stationed at Vancouver barracks.

General Burke was born in Connecticut 70 years ago. He enlisted in the United States army in 1858 and at the commencement of hostilities in 1861 he was first sergeant of his company.

In 1900 he was made brigadier general and died at once, after 12 years continuous service in the army.

General Burke saw service in many of the severest battles of the Civil war, among them being Bull Run, Antietam, Gettysburg, Fredericksburg and the Wilderness. For gallantry at the battle of Gettysburg he was brevetted major. He was with the Fourteenth infantry in the Sioux war of 1876 and went to Porto Rico with Miles' army in 1898.

In 1892 congress awarded to him a medal of honor for an act of bravery at Shepherdstown, W. Va., in 1862.

Tomorrow ends clean-up week as directed by the allied women's organizations. More than 200 offensive features, including weed-grown lots, dirt effects and foul basements, have been reported to the police department by the patrol committee of the Women's club under the leadership of the president, Mrs. A. S. Newell.

Great improvement is noticeable in various portions of the city, but it was said today that it would be necessary for the citizens of Portland to continue the work of cleaning-up until Saturday, in order to make the city uniformly presentable.
