WRECKS SHIP ON 2D
LEG OF LONG SKIM

Garros Falls, Damaging Aero-plane, But Is Himself Unhurt—Frey Hits Barrier and Crashes Down.

(United Press Leased Wire.) Rome, May 31.—Roland Garros, the Frenchman who was well in the lead in the Paris to Turin aeroplane race, fell this morning between Civita and Vechia, on the second leg of the flight.
His plane was partially wrecked, but he suffered no serious injury.
Aviator Frey in descending at Pisa struck a barrier and came to the ground with a crash. It has not yet been reported whether his machine was damaged to any extent.
Conneau arrived at Genoa at 7 o'clock this morning, filled his petrol tank and after a short rest and some breakfast started for Pisa, where he arrived at noon. He again replenished his fuel and resumed the flight toward Rome.
Conneau won the second leg, Nice to Rome, a distance of 373 miles. He reached Rome at 4:03 o'clock this afternoon and was given an ovation.

PRYCE'S LIBERALS SHOOT CAPTAIN WHO KILLED AMERICAN

ally believed that Pryce has gone to Los Angeles. Most of the white officers of his force, it was reported, also had left camp. Pryce and his officers, it was said, had learned they were to be replaced by Mexicans.

Execution Dramatic.
Viza's execution was quite dramatic.
He was led to the hills near Tia Juana at sunrise. He demanded that he be shot by Mexicans.
"I am no friend of the Americans," declared the condemned Mexican, "and I refuse to be shot down by white men."
Five Mexicans composed the firing squad. He leered at his executioners.
The rifles cracked and Viza fell forward, a smile on his face. His body was still lying at noon where it fell.

Commander Appointed.
When it was discovered that Pryce and Hopkins were missing, Captain F.
W. Tamplin was appointed commander of the rebels. Dr. H. C. Loose and Dr.
J. M. Porter, Americans, crossed into Tia Juana this morning. Dr. Loose went to Tia Juana in an automobile to get permission to attend a sick family. Permission was denied. The automobile was held by the rebels until the occupants agreed to bring two messengers to San Diego.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, May 31.—Ricardo Flores Magón, president of the local junta, declared this afternoon that if General Pryce had come to Los Angeles he had not called at his office. "I know absolutely nothing about Pryce's whereabouts," said Magón.

LIMANTOUR IS HIGHLY PRAISED IN STATEMENT
BY GUSTAVO MADERO

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Juarez, Mexico, May 31.—Gustavo Madero, a brother of Francisco I. Madero Jr., in an exclusive statement to the United Press today in commenting upon the success of the revolution led by his brother gave high praise to Jose Yves Limantour, finance minister in the Diaz cabinet. Madero said:
"There was little need of fighting.
Our principal task was to be ready to fight and make the necessary preparations to carry on the revolution to a conclusive end in the event Diaz had not given up."

Sincerity Understood.
"The sincerity and power of the Madero movement was fully understood in the great financial circles from the start. Most of the world's financial leaders knew months ago that the revolution was bound to be successful."

"When Limantour returned from Europe three months ago he stopped in New York for the purpose of discussing the financial situation in Mexico with New York capitalists, many of whom are heavily interested in our country.
Limantour apparently resided at the Plaza but spent most of his time at the Hotel Astor. It was in his room in the Astor where the most effective work for the revolution was done."

Talked With Limantour.
"Father and I went to New York three times and conferred with Limantour.
We told him that the most men in Mexico were behind us and that he had better inform the world's financial interests that we were going to overthrow the Diaz dynasty. We also proved to him that he would be conferring a blessing upon our common country and averting much bloodshed if he advised Diaz and the interests surrounding him that we would succeed in our undertaking." Limantour was finally persuaded that Diaz and his reign were doomed.
When he reached Mexico City he told the truth to the president and his advisers. This caused Diaz to lose hope and surrender as unreluctantly as possible. To Limantour is due the short and comparatively bloodless revolution.
Told Diaz Truth.
"When Limantour called upon the president upon his return to Mexico City he knew he was confronting a doomed man. He told Diaz the truth about the situation. Knowing Limantour's honesty, Diaz believed him."
"One of the things we feared most was the intervention of American troops. We were confident that if America knew our strength and resources and the certainty of our ultimate success the American government would keep hands off."

"Limantour did much to let the people of the United States know the exact truth and represented us as responsible and reliable men who could be held accountable for the acts of the revolutionists. Limantour did much as a go-between; he was fair and an honest friend to both sides."
"When some of my compatriots accused me of being too friendly with him after the fall of Juarez, I let it be known that I personally was willing to go still further and that my faith in him was such that I would be willing to have him named provisional president in place of De La Barra."
"To Limantour we owe the fact that the insurgents had a fair field and a chance for a fair fight."

WERE TRUST ATTORNEYS

in the purchase of the friar lands in the Philippines.
The witness declared that when he rendered the opinion permitting the sale of the friar lands to the sugar trust he was not aware that Hammond was representing the trust.
Wickersham declared that between the years 1905 and 1909 he had on several occasions acted in an advisory capacity to the steel trust.
The government, he said, had accepted the restitution made by the American Sugar Refining company in the matter of fraudulent weights on imports, but had made no attempt to enforce the penalties for violating the law. The attorney general said this had not been done because he felt that the government had insufficient evidence.

WRECK FATAL TO 2; BODIES CREMATED

Derailing of Michigan Central Express Believed Work of Criminals.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Detroit, Mich., May 31.—Michigan Central westbound express No. 9 was derailed near Ridgeway, Ontario, today.
The engine turned over, killing Engineer Quinlan and Fireman Oakes. Their bodies were cremated.
It is believed the derailing was caused by train wreckers. The authorities are investigating.

SEVEN BANDS IN PARADE

Mischa, superintendent of parks, E. E.
McClaran and Mrs. A. C. Panton.
The Riverside Driving club and Portland Hunt club are extending their joint efforts to make this year's parade the best and most general success yet. The former has arranged to have about a dozen small, light racing rigs, decorated with roses. The latter will as usual appear in a general turnout of all active members in riding coetums. These two features alone will present a beautiful effect.

Fire Department.
The entries of decorated saddle ponies and horses are much more numerous this year than ever before, and the decorated horse and carriage entries are growing larger every day.
The Portland fire department has planned to make this year's turnout exceed all previous, and the many other features will make the horse and vehicle parade of 1911 the best yet, and by all means the best attraction of the week.
The keen rivalry between the boosters of the horse and vehicle parade has been renewed with as much vigor as before. This will lead each to give their very best efforts to make their feature exceed the other.
All entries will close on Tuesday, June 5, promptly at 12 noon. No entries will be accepted after this date.

Trophy Awards.
The trophies to be awarded will be as follows:
No. 1—Tallyho, four or more horses, first and second, trophies.
No. 2—Carriage and team, first and second, trophies.
No. 3—Special float or feature, first and second, trophies.
No. 4—Horse and buggy (four wheels), first and second, trophies.
No. 5—Horse and cart (two wheels),
first and second, trophies.
No. 6—Pony carriage and pair, first and second, trophies.
No. 7—Pony and cart (four wheels),
first and second, trophies.
No. 8—Pony and cart (two wheels),
first and second, trophies.
No. 9—Saddle horses tandem, first and second, trophies.
No. 10—Special prize for the best an-ntry decorated exclusively with roses.
No participant will receive a prize unless he is entered into the parade, and all features must be decorated with roses.
The parade will start promptly at 1 p. m. on Thursday, June 8. The line of march will appear later.
The erection of the reviewing stand on the Morrison street front of the postoffice lot was commenced today. Here the judges will be and by the reviewing stands all parades will pass.
