More About Women and Clothes

By Darra More.
QUEEN MARY of England has taken up the cudgels against the lavish display of feminine outlines by the present style of dress. She is seeking to discourage the hobble skirts, the too low cut gown, and many other of the sexless accoutrement calculated to restrict the natural movement and natural beauty of the body feminine. Women who come to her court receptions are requested to preserve dignity and decency when they enter her presence. In fact I think there are certain definite rules to that effect.

But, in the United States, the dictum as to feminine apparel has gone a few steps farther. The women of Chicago have become so vulgar in their dress at the bathing beaches along Lake Michigan that the chief of police has issued a restraining order. Ten commandments have been written to control the bathers, and big, husky policemen will be stationed at the various beaches to see that the chief's instructions are heeded. The commandments follow:
1. Women must not wear men's bathing suits.
2. Skirts must reach below the knees.
3. Loose bloomers reaching below the knees must be worn.
4. Bloomers must not be worn without skirt.

- 5. Sleeveless suits must not be worn by women.
- 6. Stockings must be worn by girls over 16.
- 7. Blouses must not be too décollete.
- 8. Glove fitting suits for women are barred.
- 9. Harem, hobble and director's skirts are forbidden.

"Exposure," said Chief McWeeny, "which would be permitted in a fashionable ball room, will find no place at the bathing beaches. The improper bathing suit is that which exposes not only the throat, but the shoulders and bust, is minus sleeves, has no skirt, and ends abruptly above the knees and is stock-length."

INTERESTING PROGRAM BY W. C. T. U. MEMBERS

At Central W. C. T. U. Wednesday afternoon an interesting program was given. Mrs. Powell gave a reading and Mrs. Mary Mallet and Mrs. Kurtz sang solos. Mrs. Robert McCort organized a membership contest which is to continue during the summer. Mrs. S. H. Addison talked on the labor department, emphasizing three points, the anti-nicotine pledge, a women's rest room and a coffee house. At the conclusion of the program ice cream and cake were served and a pleasant social hour spent. Owing to the Rose Festival next week there will be no meeting.

WOULDN'T WALK UNDER LADDERS TO MARRY

East St. Louis, Ill., June 1.—A point in the philosophy of superstition was decided when Joseph C. Drelling and Miss May McCleary declined to walk under a ladder in order to have a lucky justice of the peace marry them. Miss McCleary's mother is now Mrs. J. H. Shanessy of St. Louis. Justice Boyne married Shanessy and McCleary five years ago, and they attributed the success of their marital venture in part to the fact that he launched it. Therefore they wanted him to tie the knot for Mrs. Shanessy's daughter, but when they started to his office on the second floor, at 108 North Main street they found paper hangers at work in the hall. To ascend the steps they would have to walk under a ladder. After a brief conference they turned and went to Justice Brady. He married them.

HUSBAND SENTENCED TO KISS WIFE ONCE A DAY

Atlanta, June 1.—Because her husband refused to kiss her, Mrs. T. K. White had him put under arrest, swearing out a warrant charging him with mistreatment and abuse. Brought before the judge, White soon found out that failure to kiss a wife was not to be tolerated in Atlanta. He told White that it was his duty to kiss his wife when she wanted to be kissed, and that she had a right to ask the aid of the law when such carresses were refused. Then he announced his sentence to be that White must give up at least one kiss a day, though it would be better if he were a little more generous. Pending further complaint, White is at liberty.

Cookery

Coffee with cream, might be the "free" translation of the new stationery. This is the very latest, and when a brown monogram or crest is used, it is one of the very smartest kinds of stationery. Gold or bronze also looks well on this colored paper.

New Cheese.—Have you seen the new cheese—Pimiento cheese? It comes in jars so tightly covered that it will last indefinitely and it makes a delicious relish. It is a cream cheese and is highly seasoned with pounded chile.

A Diet.—"I am living on a diet," said a lady whom I met recently, "and I am feeling better than I ever felt in my life." Of course I wanted to know about it, although I may never have occasion to think whether I shall consume ooblistones or trips, when it comes to digestibility.

"I combine stewed figs (or preserved ones as the case may be) and sliced oranges loquats, strawberries or whatever happens to be most abundant in the market; and over all I sprinkle chopped nuts. With this delicious mixture I eat a certain kind of biscuit. This is my entire ration and I am well—as I have never been before."

The minister was shaking hands with a new member of his congregation, a girl fresh from Sweden, and said, cordially: "I would like to know your address, so I can call on you."
"Oh," said the girl, innocently, "I had a man."

Orange Compote.

Take oranges of medium size. The peel remove I pray; From each a round cut from one end And scoop the seeds away.

Fill up the little cups thus formed With strawberry preserve— That flavor mixed with orange juice Is more than most deserve.

Then top each orange with whipped cream. A cap all soft and white, Made up of puffs, while for rosettes The strawberries gleam bright.

On separate plates the fruit then serve With lady fingers slim. And I've no doubt a like would say The dish was fit for him!

Not for Looks.

From London Opinion. "Are you sure he married her for her money?" "Absolutely—I've seen her."

She Says.

There is something in the feminine temperament that makes a woman receive a bill that she has deliberately contracted very much as if it were an insult.

If a man has the ability to lie gracefully and conscientiously he has all the requirements for making a wife happy. What on earth would we do without fate upon which to blame the consequences of our own foolishness? Only a very brave or a very foolish woman will insist upon hearing the truth from everyone all the time. Love is not the result of a vulnerable heart—it is rather the result of a very soft head. Of course, we think that the people who show a preference for us are nice and refined and exhibit great good taste. Many a man excuses his foolish speeches by telling himself that the girl expects him to make them and he is too tender hearted to refuse. The trouble with most good people is that they are not content with being good themselves but must try to influence everyone else to be good in just their way.

SOCIETY WOMAN SAWS WOOD FOR EXERCISE

New York, June 1.—Miss Isabel Curtis, a wealthy society woman of Boston, who is staying at the Willis Inn, Stockbridge, has sawed two cords of wood the past three weeks just for the exercise. She chopped the wood in one of the forests near Stockbridge last winter. She says she can chop down a tree as quickly as a man. Miss Curtis frequently takes long walks going from Lenox to Stockbridge and back in a forenoon, a twelve mile trip.

DARES HIM TO SHOOT SELF; LAUGHS AT HIM

Laporta, Ind., June 1.—Harry Plumbeck, a business man, who recently shot himself and for several days was despondent, has brought suit for divorce from his young society bride of a few weeks.

had the nerve, he went into an adjoining room and fired a bullet into his body, fully intending to kill himself. Plumbeck says that his wife then stood above him and laughed in glee at his agony.

When Your Hair Is Dry and Dusty

(From New York Herald.)
Mrs. Theo doesn't believe in washing the head too often. Said she: "Too much wetting makes the hair coarse and brittle and in time it loses its color and becomes thin from use of too much soap and water."
"There is nothing so good as brushing the head with therox when the hair is dry and dusty. Try this if you want abundant, glossy hair: Mix four ounces of powdered orris root with four ounces of therox; keep this mixture in a sifter-top can and sprinkle a little of the powder evenly upon the head; then brush thoroughly through the hair two or three times a week. Therox keeps the hair beautifully lustrous, light and fluffy, and encourages its growth."
"This is an excellent cleansing shampoo in the summertime, particularly grateful and satisfying after automobile driving, tennis, or other outdoor pastime."
