FROM the viewpoint of genuine value-giving, this will be without doubt the most interesting Bargain Friday Sale we have ever held. Thousands of people know that Bargain Friday at Roberts Bros. is a day dedicated to the economical, prudent, careful buyer—he or she to whom the saving of money is a matter of importance. It means one of two things—the saving of fully one quarter of the money you are now spending in the goods we deal in or the purchase of fully one quarter more goods without spending any more money. Bargain Friday may well be termed an "Underpriced Day"—that is, all goods advertised for this day's selling are offered at less than regular prices, and every article seasonable and desirable.
