

ROSEBUD GUESTS ARRIVE; 182 FOR EXCURSION PARTY

MUSICAL CONCERTS TO BE GIVEN FREE

MARRIED DESPITE PARENT'S WISH

VOTE IN PRECINCTS FOR MAYOR SHOWS RUSHLIGHT'S HOLD

AGED HEROINE OF "DYNAMITE" TRIO TO PLEAD FRIDAY

FALLS TO DEATH FROM HIGH WINDOW

Visitors Hold Home Town as Second to None in Country in Quality and Quantity of Its Roses.

Teachers' Convention to Open Wednesday Evening at Taylor Street Church.

Cupid Wins Race in Which the Telegraph Wires Play a Leading Part.

How Public in Different Parts of the City Regarded Aspirants.

Famous Wife of Lighthouse Keeper, Claimed by Death She Twice Cheated.

Judge Sets Date for Arraignment of Conners, Maple and Bender.

Electrician, Believed From Seattle, Killed Instantly by Fall.

Rosebud guests arrived here 182 strong this morning to enjoy the Rose Festival. The Southern Pacific special of seven coaches reached the depot about 10 o'clock.

Admission will be free to the four big musical events of the Northwest Music Teachers' convention, which opens here tomorrow evening.

Miss Blanche Carter, a teacher in the Heppner, Or., schools, was indignant this morning as she stood at the marriage license counter in the office of County Clerk Fields.

The following shows the vote for majority candidates by precincts:

(United Press Leased Wire.) Los Angeles, June 6.—B. H. Conners, A. E. Maple and Ira E. Bender, indicted by the grand jury on charges of attempting to dynamite the Hall of Records building, will make their plea before Judge Willis next Friday morning.

After a night spent with friends, Harry W. Mills, an electrician, employed by the Mount Hood Electric company, wandered into his former rooming house at 162 Second street, walked upstairs to the third story, and then, from the indications, fell from the back hall window to the ground below, killing him instantly.

After a night spent with friends, Harry W. Mills, an electrician, employed by the Mount Hood Electric company, wandered into his former rooming house at 162 Second street, walked upstairs to the third story, and then, from the indications, fell from the back hall window to the ground below, killing him instantly.

"We claim Roseburg grows more varieties of roses than any place in the world," said Mr. Schlosser, "and that's no joke. One of our citizens, J. H. Booth, has been appointed judge at your rose show here, which goes to illustrate that we know something about roses."

Friday morning will be devoted to addresses and a vocal conference and program. Friday afternoon the manuscript concert will be given in Ellers recital hall, when compositions of Pacific northwest composers will be presented.

Wool sales dispute delays purchases. (Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Shanghai, June 6.—Owing to a disagreement between buyers and growers the wool sales in the superior court today afternoon buyers insist on buying F. O. B. cars and withholding 10 percent on the purchase until the wool is loaded upon the cars.

Table with columns: Precinct No., Harrison, Johnson, Wagoner, etc.

At the Supplement the steamer Hull of Vessel Rebuilt—N. R. Lang Will Also Be Overhauled.

WAPPENSTEIN DEFENSE EXPLAINS DEPOSITS

POISONER RECAPTURED, ESCAPES SECOND TIME

ILLINOIS REPUBLICANS START HARMONY WAVE

NERVES OF STEEL SAVE HIM FROM SNAKE FANGS

SEYMOUR IN COURT TO DEFEND ORDER

Table with columns: Precinct No., Harrison, Johnson, Wagoner, etc.

BALMORAL AT FALMOUTH

Taft and Governor Talk of Statehood

ROSE FESTIVAL VISITORS

Woman Don't Let Husband Know All by Madame Verob.

Nominations is Costly.

CHINESE STUDENT IS FRATERNITY MEMBER

Table with columns: Precinct No., Harrison, Johnson, Wagoner, etc.

RIVER WILL RISE

CHURCH DEACON'S SIN MOTTO DOES NOT KEEP HIM FROM SUSPICION

SILK GLOVES

Belasco's Daughter Dead.

Simple Cure for "Poison Oak"

EASTERN EXCURSIONS

Fairbanks-Hibben.

G. A. R. of Two States.

DR. LINDSAY

Advertisement for Dr. Lindsay's Men's Cure, featuring a portrait of a man and text describing the medicine's benefits for various ailments.