Teachers' Travel Contest

ONLY two more weeks in the great contest. Contestants ahead one day and back the next. Every one is working for their favorite teacher. The interest grows stronger every day. Out of town visitors should make good use of the opportunity and cast their votes for the teacher from their district. It's a really fine thing to be able to help some one to a trip to Europe, and there are three trips planned in this great undertaking, or the trip to New York and the month's vacation at any Oregon beach, as well as the eight additional vacations of two weeks each. All expenses and round trip passage. It's splendid—isn't it? Save every duplicate sales check and vote them for your favorite teacher.

The Store of Convenience

VISITORS to the city, as well as our own home people, can find no more convenient shopping or stopping place than in this great store. No better place to meet your friends than in one of our spacious reception rooms, also the beautiful seventh floor restaurant and tea room—Free writing desks, manicuring, hairdressing and beauty parlors on balcony, first floor. The ladies' reception and waiting room on the second floor. Package and luggage checking station on first floor. Stamps and money orders; local and long distance telephone booth, in basement and seventh floor. Soda fountain and dairy lunch in basement. Women's shoe shining stand in basement.

Gossard Corset Demonstration Continued

SO many enthusiasts of the Gossard Front Lace Corsets were unable to see Miss Farrabee last week, that she is remaining with us until next Saturday night.

The Gossard is the original Front Lace Corset. It is a scientific exponent of "The New School of Corsetry"—the foundation of a perfect figure.

Coming to us direct from the factory, Miss Farrabee will be glad to explain the features of Gossard Front Lace Corsets and show you all the new models. Prices $3.50 to $18.
