

Topics of Interest in the Realm Feminine

IN SOCIETY

Miss Iva Faffing entertained with three tables of bridge yesterday. After the game a number came in for tea.

Miss Emma Bartle of Riverside, Chicago, has come up from California where she and her parents are spending some time, and is the guest of Mrs. Curtis C. Strong. Miss Bartle's engagement to Stuart R. Strong was announced some time ago.

For the pleasure of her guest, Miss Priscilla Elliott, Mrs. James McI. Wood asked a number of the suit debutants set to enjoy a pretty Rose Festival tea yesterday. A Quaker basket of pink roses and maiden pair fern centered the table and the favors were tiny baskets of pink buds. All other appointments were developed in the dainty and green color motif. Mrs. John C. Lewis served tea and Miss Thelma Garrett, Miss Cassie Hiller's guest from Seattle, waited. Among the young girls who came in were Miss Maurine Campbell, Miss Charlotte Laidlaw, Miss Margaret Neary, Miss Nan Russell, Miss Elizabeth Jones, Miss Margaret Ayer, Miss Katherine Graham, Miss Cassie Hiller, Miss Thelma Garrett, Miss Ailsa MacMaster, Miss Melndoe, Miss Genevieve Halley, Miss Esther Tucker, Miss Mary Brewster, Miss Catherine Russell, Miss Laura Cumping and Miss Loraine Bean.

Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mrs. N. E. Ayer, Mrs. John Latta, Mrs. Sample, Miss Flinders and Miss Anita Burns were the Portland women who entered the tournament at Waverley.

W. D. Tyler of Tacoma and his daughter, Mrs. C. A. Weymouth, are guests at the Bowers for festival week. Mrs. Weymouth, as Miss Margaret Tyler, numbers scores of friends here from the days when Portland was her home. With her four small sons she has come from the east and is spending the summer with her father.

Mrs. R. N. Hockenberry has as her guest Miss Ruth Wallace of Cincinnati, who is spending some months at Salem.

An event of unusual interest planned for Tuesday evening at the Heilig is the Children's Festival, to be given by the children of the People's Institute for their friends. All expenses have been met by special donations of friends of the institute, and no admission is to be charged. The children have been at work on the affair for a number of weeks, and the evening promises much that is beautiful and well worth while.

Miss Lena Colman arrived Sunday from San Francisco, and is the guest of Mrs. Marcus Felschner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wynn Johnson left yesterday for their vineyard near Stockton, Cal., where they will remain until July. The month of July they will spend at Myrtle Point, Or., with their son, Dr. L. G. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Watson came down from Salem and are stopping at the Imperial for the Rose Carnival.

Mrs. Albert Feldenhelmer entertained with three tables of bridge on Saturday.

A wedding of note solemnized in the Bay City yesterday was that of Miss Mildred Whitney and Ernest Goodrich Stillman of New York, a brother-in-law of William G. Rockefeller. The ceremony was performed at Trinity Episcopal church, in the presence of several hundred guests. Pink roses, carnations, geraniums and gladioli were used in the decorations. Mrs. William G. Rockefeller, sister of the groom, with her two sons, came from New York for the wedding. The groom's father, James Stillman, is president of the National City bank. Young Mr. and Mrs. Stillman will sail from New York on June 25, to remain abroad until fall, when they will return to their home in New York. Their marriage comes as the culmination of a college romance begun in the east.

Willard White Co., Chicago, Ill.:
Gentlemen—I wish to thank you for what your Vaucuire GALEGA Tablets have done for me. I began taking them early last fall and weighed but 117 pounds, was very sallow and had blotches on my face. I have taken in all one dozen boxes and weigh 140 pounds, my complexion is clear, cheeks rosy, eyes bright and my bust measure has increased four inches. I noticed that my general health had improved from the time I had taken half of my first box of your tablets, very truly,

Mrs. Elmer Ellsworth Black of New York, chairman of the propaganda committee of the American Peace and Arbitration league, who has sailed for England. She will take in the coronation and will then continue her work in behalf of the peace movement in the various cities she will visit during the summer. Mrs. Black has offered prizes of $200, and $100 to girls in American colleges for the two best essays on peace and arbitration. President Taft has congratulated Mrs. Black on her good work.

SARTORIAL EXCESSES

By Darra More.
"I WANT a new stenographer," the man remarked, "but none of your fashion plate kind, who expect indulgence for their natty looks. Find me one that is strong and healthy and ugly."
"I don't want any more girls in my office who look like the front row of the chorus. You understand?"

The cause of this rather unusual outburst was a good looking young woman who, day by day, had added new sartorial expressions to her office gowning, until one morning she appeared before the manager, with a thin, gossamer like blouse cut low enough for a dinner gown. With this suggestive looking bust covering she wore a skirt that was too tight to cover her lower extremities and her limbs and feet protruded scantily encased with the thinnest silk stockings and a pair of low cut pumps. There were other details in the natty attire that were equally irritating to her employer, endless pins, hair ornaments and the inevitable puffs and curls.
Result, the manager pounced upon her and spoke a few truths on the suitability of office clothes. The manager was mad, and he did not choose his words. The girl was also mad. She said the manager was a brute, and that he did not appreciate the value of an ornamental piece of furniture in his office. She said that a girl had to dress accord-

SPANISH MARQUIS IN SEARCH OF HIS IDEAL

(United Press Leased Wire.)
New York, June 8.—The Marquis Ramiro de Villota of Madrid has arrived in New York in search of his ideal. "She must have the physique of an American woman," he said. "The figures here (no financial) are so divine. She must possess the piquancy of the French woman and the temperament of the Spanish woman."
From mere casual observations, it was the opinion of the marquis that American women consider themselves really superior to their men; that they are cold and passionless and care only for personal adornment.
"Women voting is simply too absurd to command serious thought," he declared. He did not object to women smoking if they did it "prettily and daintily," but considered it an unpardonable crime if it was done "clumsily."

Bridegroom Faints in Bathtub

(United Press Leased Wire.)
South Bend, Ind., June 8.—William Burton Sudlow is safe on his honeymoon today, although he became so nervous over his approaching marriage that he fainted in his bath tub and was almost drowned. It required a physician and nurse to bring him around.

Peasant Sweetheart Fake

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Vandergrift, Pa., June 8.—Leo Von Wilhelm is awaiting word of forgiveness from his parents in Prussia, who cut him off from an inheritance of $80,000 when he came to America to marry a former peasant sweetheart. The girl had married another man before he arrived.

Some Ways of Saving Money.
(1)—Pay ready money for everything you buy. (2)—Do not send a letter when a postal will do. (3)—Home dress-making will save you many a dollar. (4)—Beware of ready-made blouses. Buy your own stuff and make them yourself. (5)—Make your home attractive to your family; they will not want to pay for outside amusements. (6)—

Automobile Fashions

The new motor coats, besides being smart, are practical.

One of the emphatic requirements is elegance of line. The colors must be durable and the material supple, as well as light in weight and warm.

All the new coats are plainly and quietly tailored, one of the popular designs being buttoned far over on one side.

Pockets and decorative buttons are the only adornments.

One lovely motor coat of dark taupe moire had a large black satin collar.

Wide revers extended out over the shoulder and crossed far in front, fastening with two tortoise shell buttons. The comfortable sleeves had wide black satin cuffs.

Another coat of dark tan moire was lined throughout with soft scarlet silk.

There were pipings of the scarlet on the collar and cuffs and scarlet and tan silk frogs fastened the coat far at the side.

With it went an odd shaped motor bonnet faced with the scarlet and fitted with a long scarlet veil of a durable weight.

The affect in a motor would be extremely striking, especially when the wind caught the scarlet veil and sent it scurrying after the speeding machine.

Rainproof moire is one of the most satisfactory of motor materials for the reason that rain does not spoil its appearance, and it readily sheds the dust. It may be lined with a heavier material if a warm coat is desired.

Resemblances.
From the Washington Star.
"We are but pawns in the game of life," said the serious woman.

"Perhaps," replied Miss Cayenne. "But those of us who wear hobbie skirts look more like cribbage pegs."

Owing to the Style.
From the Washington Herald.
"Drat the cat!"
"What's the matter, girl?"
"The cat went to sleep on my new hat and I wore her down town without noticing her."

FORMER WIVES DO NOT WORRY COUNT TOLSTOY

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Paris, June 8.—Count Alexandra Koulouff Tolstoy, husband of the former Miss Mary K. Frothingham of New York and nephew of the late Count Leo Tolstoy, is not at all disturbed because Miss Florida Marat Coriat is seeking a $50,000 settlement for an alleged former marriage.
"My wife knew of my escapades with other women, including two unrecognized marriages, when she married me, and neither of us is upset over the attempt of one of my former wives to obtain a settlement," said the count. "These little affairs are of no importance. Under the Russian law, no marriage is binding unless celebrated by a priest of the Russian church."

NEW YORK NO PLACE FOR CHILDREN, SAYS MINISTER

New York, June 8.—"The city of dreadful noises" is what Rev. Dr. Nathaniel Thomas Hafer, pastor of Trinity Baptist church in Brooklyn, calls New York. Dr. Hafer came from Michigan and incidentally is going back there.
"We are each entitled 46 pence and quiet, so that we may use our brains, and fresh air and space, so that we may use our bodies."
"In New York there is neither quiet nor space. I quickly realized that it was no place for children. I now realize that it is no place for grownups, either—I mean people of moderate means who wish to live and not merely exist. I have found it an impossible saloon-governed city."
Dr. Hafer will return to Detroit, where he has accepted a call.

Call Them Beaching Suits

Chicago, June 8.—Recognizing that some swim without getting too close to the water, a Chicago department store is offering bathing suits to women, the colors of which it is admitted will run if the garments get wet. They are called "beaching suits."

"Cat!" She Exclaimed.
Nan—Any way, I don't like his looks.
Fan—That's because he looks in my direction rather oftener than he does in yours.

Over-Worked Girls

Read What This Girl Says:

Appleton, Wis.—"I take pleasure in writing you an account of my sickness. I told a friend of mine how I felt and she said I had female trouble and advised me to use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as she had taken it herself for the same trouble with wonderful results. I had been sickly for two years and overworked myself, and had such bad feelings every month that I could hardly walk for pain. I was very nervous and easily tired out and could not sleep nights. I had dizzy spells, and pimples came on my face. But I have taken your Vegetable Compound and I am entirely cured. I think it is the best medicine in existence."—Miss Cecilia M. Bauer, 1161 Lawrence St., Appleton, Wis.

THIS GIRL SAYS IT IS WOMAN'S BEST FRIEND!

Chicago, Ill.—"Your Compound cured all my troubles and I am feeling strong and happy and able to work now. Wherever I go I shall praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as I think it is woman's best friend. I have told all my friends the good it has done me."—Miss Maggie Ishauer, 2418 So. Whipple Street, Chicago, Illinois.
Lorimer, Iowa.—"I had a heavy cold in the spring and got all run down and was irregular. I had no strength and had bearing down pains in my sides and back, and was very nervous and excitable. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am all right again, and stronger than before."—Miss L. E. Williams, Lorimer, Iowa.

Is it not reasonable to suppose that a medicine that did so much for these girls will benefit any other girl who is suffering with the same troubles?

Does it not seem the only sensible thing to give such a medicine at least a trial? You may be sure that it can do you no harm, and there is lots of proof that it will do you much good.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No sick woman does justice to herself who will not try this famous medicine. Made exclusively from roots and herbs, and has thousands of cures to its credit.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health free of charge. Address Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass.
