VEHICLE PARADE ROSE FESTIVAL'S CROWNING GLORY

the splendid horse and vehicle parade that, like a gorgeous mile-long serpent. sinuous and undulating, traversed the streets this afternoon As other pageants of the Rose Festi wal have excelled those of former years, so the elegance of equipment, beauty of decoration and excellence of exhibit has caused the horse and vehicle parade to college the most notable efforts of former festivals. The prancing horses, the bright costumes, the wealth of roses, the magic harmony of the music form a combination enthralling sense and love of beau

COMMITTEE CORKS BROMO BOTTLE | J. A. JEFFREY WEDS

Oh, What Senatorial Headache

(Washington Bureau of The Journal.) Washington, June 8.—If Senators Bristow, Republican, and Williams and Clarke, Democratic, maintain their present implacable attitude, members of the senate will not have absolutely free access to senate funds for whatever they ask to supply their personal wants. These senators are members of the committee on audit and control of the conchairman, and Senator Dillingham, Republicans, the other members.

From time immemorial senators have been permitted to have whatever they wanted-new supplies for their offices and committee rooms rugs, furniture, medicines, mineral waters and what not It has been necessary for them only to telephone to the sergeant-at-arms, and an assistant would promptly deliver to the senator the thing desired. Practically no limit was placed, and this utter freedom resulted in augmenting considerably the annual cost of the upkeep of the senate.

Hard Bule Laid Down.

But the Republican member Bristow ined with the two Democratic mem ers and they have laid down a rule that hereafter whenever expenses are to be at least, when the item is to equal $100, the committee must meet and allow the item.

Such trifles as free shaves and mas Mrs. A. C. Lohmire, Tillamook float in sages and baths—now supplied by the charge of Ralph Ackley, American Wo-senstors' private barber shop—probably will be cut off. Even the emolument of free snuff boxes may also have to be stopped, and members buy their own. It is hinted that the most vital point in the economy regime is to be the abo-

Acquaintance Begun at 1910 Rose Festival Culminates in Marriage as Soon as the Groom's Divorce Limit Is Up

Roise, Idaho, June 8 .- A romance beinning with the Rose Festival in Portland one year ago culminated in this ity last Sunday night in the marriage f John A. Jeffrey, a prominent attorey of Portland, and Miss Georgia Pinther of this city

Only a few friends were at the wedding, which took place at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. E. Lamb, Mind

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffrey have gone to San Francisco for their honeymoon, planning to make a short stop in Sal Lake.

John A. Jeffrey was divorced from his former wife in the circuit court of Multnomah county on December 5. His marriage on June 4 apparently makes close sailing to the terms of the divorce decree, which requires the parties shall not marry again within six months. He and his new bride are expected to arrive in Portland from California about July 1, and will be at home after that date at 229 Eleventh

WHO IS REX OREGONUS? KING WILL NOT LET IT OUT UNTIL SATURDAY

Who is Rex Oregonus? What is his name during the 51 weeks of the year when he is not ruling the Rose Festival?

About half the people of Portland are asking these questions of the other half. As a matter of fact only about three people in the city know. First of these is of course, Rex Oregonus; next, Ralph W. Hoyt, president of the Rose Festival association, upon whom devolved the duty of choosing a king of kingly mien, and third, George L. Hutchin, general manager of the festival. whose duty it has been to suggest a costume becoming a king. No one of these three has disclosed the weighty secret. The king of course not, because he is given no opportunity to talk. He must reign without a voice. It is promised, however, that next Saturday evening when the magic electric parade is repeated the king will ride unmasked, and that his identity will be made known Sunday morning. ......

RUNAWAY TEAM CAUSES CONSIDERABLE ANGUISH

A team belonging to the Woodard. Clark Drug company broke from its altching post at Fourth and Washington street at 8 o'clock and started a nad flight south on Fourth street that terminated when the team swerved to avoid a Southern Pacific engine at Fourth and Yambill streets and ran into the vacant lot on the southeast corner. The horses plunged into the hole several feet deep, carrying with them a grip belonging to a street faker containbut the wagon was not wrecked. Many nest Coulter.

people were on the streets at the time and the fact that no one was struck is a miracle. The engine crew on the back of the engine made a hasty scramble for safety when the team was plunging toward them.
