MALHEUR VALLEY ADDS A COACH

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Ontario, Or., June 9.—Service on the Malheur Valley railway has been increased by adding another passenger coach to the Ontario-Vale-Brogan train. The combination baggage, express, mail and passenger coach has also been replaced by an express, baggage and mail car. This became necessary on account of the increased passenger and express traffic over the road.

POLICE "SHAKE DOWNS" MAKE VICE UNPROFITABLE

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Chicago, June 9.—Chief of Police McWeney today made a formal request on the state attorney's office to order an investigation by the grand jury of charges of "grafting" by members of the police department. Police Lieutenant John Bonfield, against whom specific charges of levying "protection" graft have been filed, will be suspended this afternoon. Deniers of the tenderloin assert that vice is no longer

PROFITABLE OWING TO THE EXORBITANT "SHAKE DOWNS" BY THE POLICE FOR PROTECTION MONEY

Inspector Wheeler, who was mentioned by Isaac Foster and John Healey, alleged resort proprietors, in the alleged graft expose, today swore out warrants against the men, charging them with criminal libel. The men asserted that they had paid Bonfield $500 when assured that Wheeler would get part. They admitted they had not dealt directly with him.
