Weather Conditions.

A large high pressure field over the western half of the country, and the Red river valley storm has drifted eastward to the western lake region. Over the southeast the atmospheric pressure is nearly normal, and heavy rains have fallen in northwestern Washington, southeastern New Mexico, Nebraska, South Dakota and Minnesota, and thunderstorms accompanied by moderately heavy rains have occurred in eastern North Dakota and northern Michigan. The weather is, in general, warmer in the northwest and cooler in the eastern half of the country, and it is cooler over the southern Rockies and in the plains states. Except in the basin and southern Rocky mountain states, and on the south Atlantic coast, temperatures are above normal in all sections of the United States.

Conditions are favorable for fair weather tonight and Sunday in this district, except that showers are expected for that period in northwestern Washington. No marked temperature changes are indicated, and winds will be easterly to southeasterly.

FORECAST.

Portland and vicinity.—Fair tonight and Sunday. Eastern winds. Over the Oregon coast tonight and Sunday. Northeast to east winds. Washington.—Fair tonight and Sunday, except showers northwest portion. East to southeast winds. Idaho.—Fair tonight and Sunday.

Says Wife Not Industrious.—Ollie L. Blowers does not like to stay at home and take care of the house, says her husband, M. Blowers, in answering her suit for divorce in the circuit court. He filed a cross-bill today, declaring his wife was the one at fault, and should not be given a decree. He states she has refused to stay at home and keep the house in shape, refused to get his meals on time, and is out late at night. Mrs. Blowers filed suit for divorce last week, charging cruelty. They were married at Hood River in 1903.

Pickpockets Busy.—Pickpockets got busy Thursday afternoon with four Forest Grove residents who were taking in the Rose Festival and relieved them of their wealth. The victims were A. C. Crawford, L. J. Reeder, W. Reeder, and D. B. Sewell, who after spending the day in Portland, went to the Jefferson street station at 8:30 last evening to take an Oregon Electric train for home. When they reached for money to pay their tickets they found that a light fingered gentleman had stripped them of every cent of surplus cash.

Knights Meet Officers.—At its last meeting on Tuesday evening the following officers were elected by Ivanhoe Lodge No. 1, Knights of Pythias: Chancellor commander, David N. Mossesohn; vice chancellor, John Preston; prelate, G. H. Grusnick; master of work, E. E. Dowling; master at arms, J. P. Hughes; master of exchequer, J. O. Siglin; master of finance, Thaddeus Graves; keeper of records and seal, E. M. Lanco; inner guard, Louis P. Brown; outer guard, David Nelson.

Party Shown City.—A party of 30 prominent residents of Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and Dakota, were yesterday shown Portland from a special trolley car as guests of the promotion committee of the Portland Commercial club. The travelers are bound for Sacramento valley, where they plan to inspect some buildings in which they will probably become interested, and they decided to stop over a day in Portland to see the city in Rose Festival attire.

Museum of Art.—The special exhibitions of paintings and sculpture are interesting a large attendance. This opportunity of seeing a representative collection of paintings by distinguished American artists should not be missed either by residents of the city or visitors from out of town. The museum hours are: Week days, 9 to 5 o'clock; Sundays, 2 to 5. Free admission after the afternoon of Tuesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday.

Sues Dental Company.—Suit against the Union Dental company was started this morning in the circuit court by Leroy G. Bell, in which he alleges the dentist failed to properly treat a tooth before filling it, and much trouble was thereafter experienced. It was on March 17, 1910, the tooth was filled, and a few weeks later began to bother him. He lost 14 days from his work and suffered much pain, it is alleged, for which damages to the amount of $3000 are asked.

Odd Fellows Meet Officers.—Samaritan Lodge No. 2, Independent Order Odd Fellows, at its last meeting elected the following officers: Noble Grand, David N. Mossesohn; vice grand, Joseph Ball; secretary, Ralph Orvold; treasurer, J. P. Hand. The appointive officers will not be announced until the meeting of installation which will occur on July 5th. Samaritan Lodge is the largest Odd Fellows lodge in the west in point of membership and finances.

To Meet Gunboat.—Captain J. Speier has sent a letter to Mayor Simon and the city executive board inviting them to meet the gunboat Boston at Astoria June 18. The Boston, which is to be sailed from Bremerton, Wash., by Captain Speier, head of the Oregon naval militia, will reach Astoria June 18 and will be in Portland on the day following.

Death of Mrs. Peterson.—Mrs. Henrietta Manerva Peterson, wife of Frank C. Peterson, died at the family home at 788 East Salmon street, June 2, after a brief illness. She was 43 years of age, and had resided in Portland most of her life. She is survived by her husband and her parents. Interment was in the Rose City cemetery last Monday.

Confirmation Service.—Confirmation service will be held at the Rodney Avenue German M. E. church, corner Rodney avenue and Stanton street, at 10:45 o'clock tomorrow morning. In the evening Children's Day will be observed. A book program has been planned. All are cordially invited to both the morning and evening services.

Miss Cooper in Accident.—Miss Ola Cooper, secretary to City Health Officer Wheeler, was unable to appear at the health office today. She is recuperating from a severe shock to her nerves caused by her being precipitated from an automobile at Tenth and Alder streets last night.

Enjoying Festival.—Miss Myrtle Hastings, a pretty young school teacher of Nampa, Idaho, is enjoying festival week in Portland. Miss Hastings won a popularity voting contest held in Nampa and as a result had her expenses to the carnival paid.

RANCHER FIGHTS BEAR FOR POSSESSION OF A PIG, RANCHER WINNING

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) White Salmon, Wash., June 10.—Attracted by the squealing of a pig early yesterday morning, William Kingman of Trout Lake rushed out to the barnyard and saw a black bear trying to lug off one of his choice Poland Chinas, 3 months old. He attacked the bear with a pole, but being refused to drop the porklet, holding it tight under its left paw, Mr. Kingman then buried a rock at the bear while on its haunches, hit it on the side of the head and knocked it over. Thus stunned and helpless, the animal was beaten to death. The pig was none the worse for its experience.

MINNESOTA ALUMNI HOLDS ANNUAL BANQUET

Cooperation with the Oregon educational forces and especially with the Oregon University was strongly urged by D. O. Sheldon in an address delivered before the members of the Oregon Alumni of the University of Minnesota, at their annual banquet at the Commercial club Tuesday evening.

The entire assemblage present at the dinner heartily endorsed the spirit of cooperation in educational work in the state and pledged themselves to its support. Owing to the presence of numerous visitors to the Rose Carnival the banquet was especially well attended. Those responding to toasts were: Dr. E. A. Loomis, "Standing of the University of Minnesota"; Prof. D. A. Kiehl, "The Influence of the University"; O. M. Washburn, "Reminiscences of University Days"; D. O. Sheldon, "What I Know About the Oregon Alumni of the University"; Dr. L. W. Hyde, "What I Don't Know About the Oregon Alumni of the University"; Horace Plummer, "Reformation of the Oregon Alumni"; Dr. A. M. Webster, "Appreciation of President Northrop"; Dr. Frederik Kiehl, "Toasts to President Vincent" and "Impromptu" by Mrs. Rowe. H. R. Dewart acted as toastmaster. The officers elected for the ensuing year were Dr. A. M. Webster, president, and H. R. Dewart, secretary.

MRS. CARRIE NATION DIES

In the national campaign of 1884 the Nations incurred the enmity of a certain class and one night twenty men gave Nation a severe beating. They then moved to Medicine Lodge, Kan.

First Use a Hatchet. Mrs. Nation had long fostered the anti-liquor sentiment and in 1901 she began her sensational crusades of physical violence against saloons. Following minor episodes in Kiowa and Wichita, Kan., she went to Topeka and in March, 1901, threw a hatchet across the polished mahogany bar of the Senate saloon near the state capitol, breaking the mirror into thousands of pieces, mutilated costly paintings and smashed the glassware. The crusade was then on in earnest. Kansas had a state-wide prohibition law but in those days it was flagrantly violated. Mrs. Nation visited many cities in Kansas preaching the doctrine of "down with rum," both in words and deeds.

In August, 1901, her husband obtained a divorce and is now said to be living a retired life in Iberia, Ohio.

Arrested Several Times. Then followed many memorable trips by the crusader in many states of the union, lecturing on the evils of drink, and in many cases following her speeches up with practical demonstrations.

tion in "joint smashing." She was arrested several times for destroying property but always escaped very easily.

By the sale of "souvenirs" by lectures and other profitable exhibitions of herself, Mrs. Nation is said to have accumulated a fortune of nearly $150,000.

Many melodramatic and farcical incidents occurred during her tours; but the one that first broke the warlike spirit of the turbulent crusader occurred in one of the lowest dives in Chicago about midnight.

Mate Grandson in Dive. She had been making the rounds of the saloons exhorting the occupants to lead better lives when a young man serving drinks to the human wrecks said to her: "Hello, Grandma Nation." She did not recognize him but as she was generally addressed as "Grandma," she thought nothing of it. She asked the boy if he didn't have a mother, and if he wasn't ashamed of the life he was leading. The boy looked at her in amazement and said: "Why, don't you remember me? I'm Riley White, your little grandson."

The woman collapsed, sank to the awdard covered floor sobbing hysterically and paying no attention to the painted faced girls who bent over her. Her spirit was broken and since then she had never been the aggressive, disturbing Carrie Nation of old.

AT THE HOTEL PORTLAND

The open-air concert at the Hotel Portland has been a feature during Rose Festival week. The balcony has proved an ideal location for the orchestra, and has enabled large numbers to hear the music to advantage, particularly the diners. Director Lind has gone to great pains in preparing the program, and many selections are chosen from the latest operas, mixed with the classical. Sunday evening the orchestra will give a grand symphony concert, which will include the celebrated Bulner symphony of Schubert and the works of Beethoven, Tschakovsky and Rubinstein. The program for this evening follows:

March, "Berlin Echoes".....Lincoln Selection, "Algeria".....Herbert Bal Masque (a) Hindu Priests (b) Dervishes.....Keller-Bela Vale Intermezzo, "Banyon" Von Elton Overture, "Hungarian Comedy".....Leo Fall Suite, "From the South".....Nicola "Dance Carole".....Humperdinck Waltz songs, "Carmen".....Wilson Selection, "The Girl and the Kaiser".....Jarno

The decorations in the large dining room and grill are very pleasing, and the Hotel Portland has been very popular for dinner parties all week.
