

SPANISH CAPTIVE STILL IN TORMENT

"Beautiful Daughter Teresa" Waits Yet Enough Passage Money for America.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Centralia, Wash., June 13.—The "Spanish Prisoner" has again been heard from in Centralia and Chehalis. William Keating and Frank L. Foster have letters from "M. Sandrowsky," and a well known business man of Chehalis is also said not only to have heard from the same distressed individual but also to have parted with a goodly sum in speculative sympathy.

The old story shows little originality or departure from the wall that has gone forth for years. There is the same fabulous fortune oashed somewhere outside the grim old Spanish battle in Madrid. The beautiful young daughter, Teresa, still weeps and is still in the bloom of early womanhood and gloom of lonely sorrow, although the flight of 13 years have passed over her head since the first dolorous lament went forth from the dungeon. The wretched captive is still in momentary fear of being tortured to death, and is still stricken with a deadly malady, despite the fact that he has survived and seemingly thrived, in the long interim. In almost every detail, with the exception of the date of the appeal, conditions appear unchanged with the unhappy prisoner who wants to give a way $250,000, with the guardianship of the weeping and beautiful young Teresa, all for a little assistance amounting to something like $50 or whatever amount can be separated from the recipient of the letter.

Unmoved by the appeal, Mr. Keating and Mr. Foster are keeping their letters from the "prisoner" as souvenirs of a scheme that has duped more than one staid citizen of the twin cities of Centralia and Chehalis.

Alabama broke all records, both for amount and value in her coke production last year.

NORTH COAST MOTOR MAKES OVERLAND RUN

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Huntington, Or., June 13.—The McKeen motor car, running from Omaha to North Yakima, 1760 miles, is expected at Huntington early tomorrow morning. The motor is making passenger schedule, and is running as an extra section of the Oregon-Washington limited. It is to be used by the O. W. in the Yakima valley on the North Coast road, and has a seating capacity of 66, besides a baggage compartment, carries 120 gallons of gasoline, using three gallons per hour, and is capable of a speed of 75 miles per hour. It is making nine stops on the overland journey for gasoline.

Edward O'Connor Dead.
(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 13.—The funeral of Edward O'Connor was held at St. Mary's Catholic church this morning at 8:45 under the auspices of the Knights of Columbus. The body was shipped to Portland for interment.

Edward O'Connor, an old and respected resident of Astoria, died of heart failure Sunday afternoon. He had been out for an auto ride Saturday evening and appeared to be in excellent spirits. Upon his return he was taken suddenly ill, but rallied for a time. Another attack at 2 o'clock Sunday morning prostrated him and he lingered but 13 hours.
Mr. O'Connor was a native of County Kerry, Ireland, and was 75 years of age. He was a widower, his wife having died a year ago. He had spent more than 40 years of his life in Astoria and was associated with most of the old business firms of the city in various capacities besides conducting a butcher business for several years.

Hubbard Gets Hair Out.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
St. Louis, Mo., June 13.—That Gilbert Hubbard's hair has been shorn by the village barber of East Aurora, and that Fra Eibertus thereby won a $500 bet from William Marion Reedy of St. Louis was word brought in a telegram here. Reedy says he has

CHAS. COOK, SURVIVOR OF ANDERSONVILLE, IS DEAD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
McMinnville, Or., June 13.—Charles Cook, a veteran of the Civil war, died Sunday at the home of his son, John W. Cook. He was 79 years old and a native of New York state. He served his country with company B of the Fifth Minnesota Infantry. During the last three months of the war he was a prisoner in Andersonville prison, when it was in its worst stages, and was one of the few survivors that lived to tell the tale of that awful imprisonment. Mr. Cook came to Oregon from Kansas in 1881 and lived at McMinnville till his funeral was held today under auspices of the L. O. O. F. with interment in the Masonic cemetery.

Preserve Miller's Cabin.
(United Press Leased Wire.)
Washington, June 13.—Final preparations are being made today for moving the historic cabin occupied by Joaquin Miller, "The Poet of the Sierras" at Belmont and Sixteenth streets, this city, to Rock Creek Park. At a meeting of the California State as-

FIRST DIRT HOISTED ON LANE-SIUSLAW ROAD

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Eugene, Or., June 13.—With many business houses closed and a parade held, the commencement of construction on the Eugene-Siuslaw line of the Lane County Asset company was celebrated in a demonstration from 2 to 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Automobiles and other rigs, and several lodges and civic societies, participated in the parade, which began from the office of the Asset company and proceeded to Fifth and Blair streets, where first dirt was thrown. The organizations of business men were well represented.

Claims Montana Residence.
New York, June 13.—On the ground that he is still a resident of Montana, ex-Senator W. A. Clark, who lives in a $700,000 Fifth avenue mansion, escaped execution in a suit of debt against his son.

El Paso, Texas, June 13.—Declaring that they were promised lands in Mexico now owned by the Richardson Construction company of Los Angeles and in which John Hays Hammond and Henry Taft are prominently interested, the Yaqui Indians have prepared to fight unless given title to the property. The Indians claim they were promised the property if they fought with the insurgents in dethroning Diaz. The Richardson Construction company asserts that it has a clear title to the land. Madero and his officials are of the opinion that the restoration of the land to the Indians is out of the question.
