LAMLIN'S WILD PITCH LOSES GAME

Both Clubs Rally in Ninth but Indians Make One More Run.

Lamline's wild pitch in the ninth-inning yesterday, which let one run in and placed a runner on third base, when he scored a moment later, was directly responsible for Spokane's victory yesterday, 4 to 3.

Spokane put over the first run in the eighth and Brad doubled down the fifth inning, allowed Zimmerman to hit one down the third base line for two cushions.

Bradley registered Portland's tying run in the eighth. Brad doubled down the third base line, this being followed by Lamline's walk.

Nordyke opened the last inning with a single after second. This was followed by Zimmerman's screeching three-bagger into left.

With Williams out in the ninth, Mensor was safe on Cartwright's error and took third on Speas' single after second.

Cartwright's error, Williams going to third, then Cooney walked, but Frisk was out, Casey to first, closing the inning.

UMPIRE LETS MEN DELAY BALL GAMES

Longanecker Should Rush the Players Along and Read Playing Rules.

Umpire Longanecker is at it again. Yesterday he permitted the Spokane Indians and the Portland Nicks to loaf through nine innings of baseball in two hours and 15 minutes with a 4 to 3 score.

After a week of snappy baseball between the Beavers and the Angels of the Coast league in which the games were played in from 1:08 to 1:49, a dallying like that of yesterday gets on the nerves of the fans.

BAT NELSON OUT AT VANCOUVER

Ministerial Association Can't See Things as the Former Champion Set Forth.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) Vancouver, Wash., June 14.—Though he made what was termed an admirable stand, Battling Nelson, ex-champion lightweight of the world, failed to conquer opponents of boxing matches in Vancouver that it was a harmless sport.

Nelson was introduced by "Bud" Smith, a member of the Vancouver Athletic association, who explained that it was the desire of the association and others in the city to hold a match here on July 4.

TWENTY ROUNDS IS LIMIT FOR BATTLE

Promoter Coffroth Decides to Make Fighters Stick to Original Terms.

(United Press Special Wire.) San Francisco, June 14.—The fight between Owen Moran and Ad Wolgast July 4 will be limited to 20 rounds, J. W. Coffroth, who is to handle the match, said today that the men had agreed for that number of rounds, and he thought the distance long enough to enable them to settle the question of superiority.

When Moran, who is training at San Rafael, heard that Wolgast's manager had telephoned Coffroth from southern California asking for a 25-round contest, he jumped at the chance and said he was eager to go 45 rounds or as far as the law allows.
