.......

The potato market has lost its intense strength and prices are down. With the arrival of several cars of new stock from the south as well as a couple of cars of old potatoes from the east, the famine that has existed in the tuber trade here has come to an end. Eastern potatoes of last year's crop are being offered freely by one commission firm at $2.75 per cental, although other dealers as a rule are asking $3 or even better for local quality.

New potatoes, which sold yesterday morning as high as $5 per cental are now quoted at $3.50, with free offerings even in sack lots at this figure. Some dealers, however, continue to ask $4 or more.

The potate trade does not look for any further declines in new crop prices in the near future, as several cars of stock due soon from California cannot he sold at a profit under present values. With new Oregons nearly ready for the market, California will soon have competition in the new potato trade, but will be able to command a very good demand for the better matured stock while the local growth is still very young.

Per Ton in the South. On account of the very short crop of peaches in California this season and the likelihood for only a nominal output in Oregon and the rest of the country, buyers are offering $40 a ton for supplies in the south or just double the price of a year ago. This means 2c a pound at producing sections. Even at these prices growers are not willing to contract.

FIRST RASPBERRIES HERE The Shipment Comes from Biggs in Season's first offerings of raspberries from local fields came in today from Biggs, Or. The shipment consisted of a single 24-box crate. The stock was received by Dryer, Bollam & Co., and was in fire condition. It was priced at 25c a pound. T. J. Miller of Biggs was the shipper.

Freewater, Or., June 14.—H. D. Lamb, manager of the Milton Fruit Growers' union, has disposed of this season's prune crop, to the Gibson Fruit company of Chicago, which has contracted to take the whole crop at prices ranging from $30 to $35 per ton. This is an increase over last season from $3 to $5, the same company being the purchasers. In an interview with Manager Lamb and with S. S. Shields of the Shields Fruit company, it was stated that the prune crop his season will be a two third crop, last year there being 250 cars, and this year it will range from 100 to 150 cars.

The market for lambs is down about 15c in the North Portland yards with quite a fair run during the past 24 hours. Total offerings in the sheep division were 1759 head compared with 1019 last Wednesday.

The sheep market in general held steady with practically no changes in price during the morning. Outside of the lamb trade, sheep prices held generally around the range of the past week; this being generally expected.

As a rule buyers are inclined to believe that the price of sheep is at the bottom or within a fraction of it, although all ideas point to a further loss in the price of lambs.

Had it not been for the few lambs that have come forward to North Portland during recent weeks, it is not likely that the market would today be showing its present height. The price was held intact owing to the better demand than offerings.

At Chicago the sheep and lamb trade was steady with no change in prices.

SHARP REACTION STRAWBERRY TRADE LAMBS DOWN 15 LOCAL WOOL SHOWS BIDS FOR CENTS TODAY AT VERY GOOD DEMAND SHOW

Prices at Private Sale Are Better Than at Auctions-Situation Reversed.

Wool market here continues to show strength and purchases are reported at the former range of prices.

Notwithstanding the strength at primary centers there is a duil feeling in the east and especially at Boston. While trade there is somewhat better than several weeks ago, buyers are not showing any great desire to take held except at the former range.

All through the Pacific northwest there is a steady to firm tone in the wool trade. Sales at interior points have been made from 15c to 17c a pound for small lots of extremely good quality, but the general market there ranges from 15c downward.

Quite an increase in wool offerings is shown at Willamette valley points and prices rule as high as 154 c a pound, although few dealers are willing to pay above 15c to 15c.

Of special interest to the trade at this time is the lack of suitable bids at late strength and purchases are reported at

GRAIN OUTLOOK

Grain Crop Outlook. Goldendale, Wash., June 14.—The sun is coming down hot these days with a moist wind which is bringing the grain out in good shape. The ground all through the Klickitat valley is moist through the Klick and in fine shape.

Catting First Crop.

Hermiston, Or., June 14—The first crop of alfalfa is now being cut by the people on this project and on every side can be seen the machinery at work.

> Good Wheat Samples. Walla Walla, Wash., June 14.—The first samples of Franklin county wheat were brought to the office of Copeland & Ginn this morning by Frank Hoskins, a big Franklin county rancher. The samples are Turkey Red and Fife. Both samples stand about three feet and the heads are well formed and beginning to fill. The heads on the Fife average three inches in length. It is said that the stand of grain in Franklin county this year is better than it has ever been before. Harvest will begin there about July 4.

Palouse Reports Promising. Palouse, Wash. June 14.—Reports coming in from the farmers about Palouse indicate that the wheat yield this year will be one of the heaviest in years. The acreage is unusually large and there is a general feeling, extending even to the grain dealers, that the price of grain will be good. It is believed that the market will open at 65 cents.

Saturday J. B. Crawford left at the office of the Interstate Land company a bunch of new wheat that measured three feet six inches from root to top. The Red Russian was sown last September on the ranch about five miles from Palouse, near Kamiac butts. The sample was taken from a 220 acrefield, which has a uniform growth.

Western Whitman County.

Western Whitman County.

Endicott, Wash., June 14.—Western Whitman county has not only the largest acreage, but the prospects indicate the largest yield per acre. Much of the fall wheat is now in head and needs no more rain to make a good crop. Spring wheat never looked better at this time of year, the stand being exceptionally good, the wheat of an excellent color and the acreage big.

From Endicott west to the Adams and Franklin county lines all grain looks better than usual at the season and many farmers are predicting yield of 30 to 40 bushels for fall wheat and from 30 to 30 for spring sown grain.

The country about Winona, Hooper, Lacrosse and Hay promises one of the heaviest yields in its history. Many farmers feel so certain of a good crop that they already are ordering harvest machinery. Grain men predict 50 per cent more grain in western Whitman county than last year.

TRAIN HELD UP TO HAUL STRAWBERRIES

White Salmon, Wash. June 14.—In order to rush a carload of strawberries through to Deadwood, a mining town in the Black Hills of South Dakota, the Black Hills of South Dakota, the North Bank flyer, crack train of that road, was held up last night and the fruit car counled on. The car was sold for $3 per crate cash, f. o, b. White Salmon. Several carloads have gone to South Dakots this year and one to Alaska, besides two to Butte. Yesterday's shipment totaled $00 crates of Union berries.

Though the yield has fallen off one-third this year and the size is not up to standard, the price has been unusually good and growers of late berries, now coming onto the market, are getting returns they were never able to get heretofore. The falling off of yield this year it attributed to the hard frost which caught the early blossoms and the last cold rains, which some of the growers say washed out the pollen.

Portland Is Benefited.

Manager R. W. Raymond of the Portiand Commercial club industrial bureau has been working towards the idea of securing direct steamship communication between Portland and Alaska, and has succeeded in getting the same rates made from this city as Puget sound points, provided a sufficient amount of tonnage is guaranteed for each trip.
