SCHADE'S "WIFE" WANTED WOMAN BUT GOT A "KID"

Trial of Mrs. Iva Bennett on Charge of White Slavery Brings to Light-Strange Stories of Intrigue.

Mrs. Iva Bennett, on trial in the she ever saw or held any conversation with Emma Lane, the 16-year-old prosecuting witness.

Emma Lane declared that Mrs. Bennett, at the Plaza rooming house last October, talked with her about going to Kelso, Wash., and promised to get a man who would send her there. Alfred Schade, a river boat watchman, later met her and Mrs. Bennett at the foot of the stairs leading to the rooming house, she testifed, and Mrs. Bennett told Schade: "Here is the girl who is Schade Went to Depot. The girl said Schade went with her to the depot, but Mrs. Alice Patterson, landlady of the Plaza house, paid her fare. On cross-examination she said Mrs. Bennett did not ask her to go to Kelso or pay any part of her fare.

Schade, who is also under indictment in the case, was informed he need not testify to anything to incriminate himself, but said he had no objection to telling all he knew. He said his wife in Kelso wrote to him that she was sick and wanted him to send some one to to her work. He wanted Mrs. Bennett to go, but Mrs. Bennett said she knew a girl who might go. Later he met the girl. He pretended this was all an inseent transaction, so far as he was concerned. He had never been to Kelso to see the kind of a house his wife ducted, he said, and he has not heard from her since November,

After the girl arrived, he said, his wife wrote and asked what the people at the Plaza meant by sending up a "kid," that she wanted a woman. She rould have nothing more to do with That Plaza bunch, he said she wrote. Mrs. Bennett Denies.

Mrs. Bennett denied all this testimony for the government, except that she is elightly acquainted with Schade. But she had no talk with him about anyone going to Kelso, she said, and was sick at her home on Salmon street all during the month of October. She was unable to leave her home at the time she is alleged to have arranged the trip for the Lane girl, she asserted. Her daughter, Mrs. Winnie Robbins, and her son, Edward Bennett, testified in support of this alibi that their mother was at home in October, The son was badly tangled on crossshe had worked at the Plaza house, was taken ill about the middle of Earl C. Bronaugh.

NUI GUILIY AGAIN

Dairy Commissioner Must Stand Trial on Charge of Neglect of Duty.

J. W. Bailey, state dairy and food commissioner, pleaded not gullty today in the circuit court to the recent indictment charging neglect of official duty. The case will be tried after the summer

The commissioner is accused in the indictment of failing to publish a monthly bulletin of analysis made of foods and drinks in his office. By this refusal, it is contended that he allowed much impure and unfit produce to be placed on the market. This is the secand indictment against him, as the first was held invalid.

LACK OF WATER TURNS BACK GOLD HUNTERS

of a lost gold mine, guided by a roughniner, three Oakland men have just returned to the city, forced to relinquish by lack of water.

The men are Harry D. Parker, Charles turn to Death valley in the spring. The excursionists say that the map they took with them was found to be exact, save in one important particular, the location of water.

TRIPLE WEDDING MAKES AUTO TRIP BRIDAL TOUR

San Diego, Cal., June 15 .- A triple wedding, the result of a sudden determination to make an ordinary automobile trip a bridal tour, was performed here at noon today. The three couples, all from Long Beach, are: Lewis T. Wells and Mrs. Maud Perry; James Albert Dunn and Mrs. Grace Moranville, who is a sister of Mrs. Perry and William Joseph Damron and Miss Phyllis Black.

DALLES MAN SEPARATES DOGS, IS BITTEN, AND IS NOW IN CONVULSIONS

(Special Espatch to The Journal.)
The Dalles, Or., June 15.—Chris Anderson, a bartender, has been unconscious and has raved at different times since Monday when he was taken to The Dalles hospital to be treated for hydrophobia. Anderson separated two dogs which were fighting in the street last Friday, and was bitten in the leg by one. No bad effects were noticed until Monday, when he went into convulworks. Doctors were summoned at once, and he has been strapped to his bed over since. Physiclans cannot say yet whether or not he will recover.

UNLICENSED EYE "DOCTORS" IN BAD

Men Who Are Looking for Easy Money.

Unlicensed opticians, who allure patronage by attractive advertising and signs, are the object of a crusade started by the state board of examiners in optometry. Two complaints were made to the district attorney's office yester-District Attorney Cameron has said today: day. been informed that a similar cleanup United States district court on a white of unlicensed practitioners is to be made slave charge, this morning denied that by the state board of examiners of veterinary surgeons.

Activity in stopping those who are pursuing skilled professions without license has been stimulated by the success of a like movement against quack doctors. Fourteen convictions were secured out of 14 cases against "doctors" who were unlicensed.

Complaints in the oculist cases have been filed against M. G. Stonebrink, working in the jewelry store of Belding Bros., and L. H. Lynch of St. Johns. The latter displayed a sign, "eyes tested free."

The Jewelers' association is expected to cooperate in the work with the oculists, as these two occupations run together, and numerous cases are being investigated. Only the two cases have yet been placed before the district attorney, the evidence being gathered by two young woman, acting as decoys.

BAKING POWDER KING'S DIVORCE SUIT DROPPED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Los Angeles, June 15.—The suit for divorce brought by Robert B. Davis, the multi-millionoire baking powder manufacturer, against his wife. Jane W. Davis, was dismissed this afternoon by Superior Court Judge Munroe. This action was taken because Judge Munroe decided that Davis had no legal residence in Los Angeles.

"I believe," said the judge in dismissing the case, "that Davis came to Los Angeles solely for the purpose of securing a divorce. Anyone believing that he can make another Rene of Los Angeles is greatly mistaken."

REALTY BOARD WILL ENJOY LUNCHEON

The next luncheon of the Realty Board will be held Monday, June 19, at noon, at Richards' restaurant, and will be for title men. A. B. Slausson of Hartman & Thompson will preside. examination, and was unable to tell Following will be the topics of the difwhere his mother has been much of the ferent speakers: "Importance of Reliatime since, although positive she was ble Abstracts to the Real Estate Man," at home in October. The defense prom-at home in October. The defense that he attended Mrs. Bensett at her Trine; "Trials and Tribulations of Ab home last October. Mrs. Bennett said stractors," Frank B. Riley; "Evolution of the Title Business in Oregon," Judge

TWO MORE REFUSE TO SERVE ON COMMISSION

Theodore B. Wilcox and John M. Simon's charter commission of 15, Their to answer. resignations have been accepted by the mayor, who yesterday appointed Dr. Andrew C. Smith and O. W. Taylor in hospital yesterday suffering from home their places. The latter was until recently local manager for the Ruth Trust company. The charter commission will fore, meet at the city hall this afternoon to

STOLEN AUTOMOBILE

An automobile belonging to M. W. Rubin, of the Diamond palace, in which the sensational diamond robbery occurred several months ago, was stolen from in front of his place last night at 9 o'clock. He recovered it several hours later when Patrolman Kellogg found it in Ladd's addition. When Kellogg first saw the car three men were in it, and Ned Lambert and H. E. Carson were arrested while in it. The driver succeeded in gettnig away.

SALOONMAN FINED $15; WIFE GETS OFF EASIER

On the morning of June 7, Patrolman Sig Myers attempted to arrest T. F. Oakland, Cal., June 15.—Lured into the Boysen in front of the latter's saloon at Crosby and Holladay streets for keep-Boysen in front of the latter's saloon ing open after hours and in the scuffle ly drawn map, a legacy from a dying that followed Mrs. Boysen struck the patrolman on the head with a pair of handcuffs, in flicting an ugly wound. their search. They were driven back In police court this morning Judge Tazweil fined Boysen $15 for disorderly conduct and found Mrs. Boysen guilty F. Burnham, and O. A. Towsley, members of the Charros club. They will repended sentence in her case.

ENGINEER IS CHARGED WITH STEALING CAMERA

J. P. Tully, engineer of the Beck building, was arrested yesterday on the charge of stealing a camera belonging to the United States forestry service.
This camera, with two others, was stored in the basement of the building and all were stolen. Tully has been identified as the man who sold the camera in question to Knapp & Wisdom, real estate dealers, using the name of J. P. Richardson. He is held under

STEALS $20: SPENDS IT:

Julius Olson, a laborer at the The Dalles, took $20 from M. Rand, s Festival. He spent the money and then hearing that he was wanted, and also being much in need of a meal, he appeared at police headward. lunch counter man at that city, and appeared at police headquarters this morning and gave himself up.

James Ward Will Recover. James Ward, of 286 East Seventh street, who was injured at First and Market streets yesterday afternoon when a buggy which he was driving collided with another wagon will re-cover, in spite of the fact that he was very badly hurt. It was at first believed he could not survive.

Exhibit Tax Fixed.

Sacramento, Cal., June 15 .- The Sacramento county board of supervisors today set a tax of 4 cents on every $100 of assessable property for a fund to establish a Sacramento county exhibit at the Panama Exposition.

PHOENIX MUTUAL HOPES TO KEEP ON

State Board Will Prosecute Unpaid Approved Losses, Oak Nolan Says, Total Only $1200 to $1300

> Oak Nolan, one of the organizers of the Phoenix Mutual Fire Insurance company, which is the company affect ed by the decision of State Insurance Commissioner Kozer to close its business if possible under the Oregon law,

"The Phoenix Mutual has approximately $6000 resources in the form of uncollected premiums. The total approved and unpaid fire losses are be-tween $1200 and $1300 only. We have no other indebtedness outside that to our own officers or employes.

"The company hopes to continue in business and disagrees with State Insurance Commissioner Kozer regarding If his jurisdiction in this instance, it becomes necessary to defend our position, we may go to court." Mr. Kozer, over the long distance telephone this afternoon, said he had notifled the Phoenix company to discontinue doing business and had asked the attorney general to state what steps would be necessary to completely close

COMMISSION TO MEET AND FORMULATE PLANS

"I do not know what the members of he Port of Portland are going to do in the matter of resigning," said J. C. Ainsworth, this morning, "and I will not know what I shall do myself until there has been a meeting of the commission."

Several members are out of the city and Mr. Ainsworth said that until the commission had talked the matter over among themselves he could not state what would be done. P. L. Willis, an other member of the old commission said this morning that he did not think that any member would resign until man perfectly well fitted to take his place could be found

"There are some members of the com mission," said Mr. Willis, "who I do not think could be well replaced because of their experience and fitness for the duties that they are called upor perform. Commissioners Swigert Wheelwright, Adams and Pease are, I think, eminently fitted for their posi-

MORRIS BROS. MAY YET ACCEPT FERRY BONDS

Morris Bros.' Bonding company has decided to take action on the bonds for the building of new ferry approaches and pontoons at St. Johns, so their representative informed the mayor and council of St. Johns at an adjourned meeting of that body last night. They had not yet heard from their attorney in Boston and as no definite action could be taken the council decided to give Morris Bros. until next Thursday orrhage of the stomach. He was up and attending to business just the day be-

Work has been commenced on Jersey street which is to be paved a distance

QUICKLY RECOVERED WOMEN OF EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN SESSION

The annual meeting of the Women' auxiliary of the Episcopal church was opened by services at the St. Stephen's chapel yesterday conducted by the Rev. C. D. Robinson of Oregon City. Luncheon was served in the parlors of the chapel.

The afternoon was devoted to lec tures by Bishop Rowe of Alaska on the work of the women of the church in Alaska and J. W. Wood of New York, secretary of the national board of missions of the Episcopal church. Rowe spoke on the work of the national board and the "United Offering" made every three years. This of-fering carries on the work of the women missionaries in all parts of the world. convention of the At the general Episcopal church held in Cincinnati, Ohio, last year this offering amounted to $242,000.

In commenting on the church in the northwest, Mr. Wood said that all branches of the work showed marked progress since his former visit several

"MASHER" GIVEN FINE

James Stapleton walked into the Plaza square reserved for women yesterday afternoon and without the formality of an introduction started a conversation with Mrs. J. Rudd and Miss Ruth Scott, 842 East Pine street. Incensed at his familiarity, the women called Pa-trolman Fones who arrested Stapleton for violating the "masher" ordinance. Judge Tazwell fined him $20.

IS HUNGRY; CONFESSES FOREIGN CONSULS GO TO ANNUAL MEETING

Several of Portland's foreign consuls evening. Consuls from Portland are J. W. Mathes Dutch consul; Endre M. Ce derbergh, Norwegian consul; and Valdemar Lidell, representative of Sweden. Consuls from all the cities on the coast will be in attendance.

BROOKLYN MOTHERS TO MEET TOMORROW

The Mothers' and Teachers' club of the Brooklyn school will hold the last meeting of the school year tomorrow afternoon at 2:20 at the auditorium of the schoolhouse. An exhibit of manual proceedings today in the circuit court to last evening, while on their way home training work and drawing will be annul the ceremony. The suit is enfrom school. The police are investigiven. Mrs. Clara Waldo will deliver titled George Edward Clarke by his gating the case but are inclined to think an address. Every one interested in guardian, Lester J. Clarke, against Ger- it is due to hysteria caused by the exschool betterment is invital.

ORDERED PAVED

City Council Departs From Its Usual Practice: Cost of the Work Estimated at $40,485 for Section Undertaken.

The city council yesterday morning adopted a resolution of intention to improve Front street from block 244. Couch's addition, to lot 17, River block, Watson's addition. The estimated cost of the improvement is $40,485, City Engineer Morris' department having made the estimate. The improvement is to be of granitoid cement concrete. peculiar feature of the resolution is that it provides for the maintenance of the street for a period of only one

This is apparently a radical departure from the usual course. Heretofore resolutions orderin ghard surface pavements have provided for a maintenance period of 10 years. This is the first rranitoid pavement to be ordered by the city council. Just why it should be maintained for only one year while such pavements as hassam, bitulithic and asphalt, that have been given a thorough test in this city must be maintained for 10 years, is not explained in the resolution.

The council on May 24 last also adopted resolutions of intention to improve certain streets in Kenton with westrumite. The maintenance period provided in those resolutions is only five years. The estimated cost of the paving of these streets is $91,165.

ARRESTED FOR PASSING ALLEGED BAD CHECKS

A man who operated in Klamath Falls as an architect and builder under the name of Edgar Allen, but whose true name is believed to be McLean was arrested this morning by Detectives Day and Hyde at Third and Washington streets, after he had been followed for some time by Ernest M. Bubb, an abstractor from Klamath Falls, and Warren E. Coman, a newspaper man, formerly of Klamath Falls.

Allen is wanted for passing several alleged worthless checks in Klamath Falls more than a year ago. The Savage Bros.' Lumber company lost $300, Henry Beivin, a plumber, lost $200, and Old & Richardson lost $250, according to a confession made by Allen. The man declares that he received only $500 on a job done for Mrs. J. Salficky, for which he was to receive $1200, and that he passed the checks believing he would the president made the agreement which have the money to meet them

The Rose City Park Improvement club last night adopted resolutions fa-voring the appointment of K. K. Kubli as a member of the executive board under Mayor Rushlight and indorsing iff John Talley and T. F. Cowing, Jr., a from that woman who has never ceased Judge M. G. Munly for school director. brother of Mrs. Ruth Hill, one of the her efforts since our earliest acquain-The resolutions declare Kubli as a member of the council has been especially energetic in promoting the interests of Rose City park, thank him for his service, and recommend him to from which he has been seen to come on the new mayor as a man well fitted for the occasions of his visits to the Dysle membership in the mayor's cabinet. The league has also adopted a resolution favoring the widening of Sandy road. The resolutions adopted last wide, but are extremely thick and cover night were signed by T. T. Geer, president. E. A. Alshaw, secretary, and the son creek bottoms, and the right of way following as members of the executive board: John Leland Henderson, Floyd J. Campbell, O. G. Hughson and J. W.

FORMER MAYOR BERGMAN OF ASTORIA EXPIRES

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Astoria, Or., June 15.—Isaac Bergman former mayor of Astoria, an Oregon ploneer and one of Astoria's best knows citizens, died at his residence on Bond street at 11:50 o'clock_last night, folowing an illness of only a few days nervous prostration and heart trouble. Mr. Bergman was so well liked here that it is seldom the death of a single individual causes such deep and sincere regret in a community.

Mr. Bergman was born in Bavaria,
Germany, January 10, 1832, making him

79 years of age. He came to America in 1853 and worked at the butcher's trade in New York for four years. He then came to the Pacific coast via the Isthmus of Panama, living in San Francisco for only a few months before coming to Oregon in 1857. He settled in the Willamette valley and engaged in stock raising and later opened a butcher shop in Portland. Mr. Bergman went to Sitka, Alaska, in 1867, and lived FOR ACCOSTING WOMEN there for four years, coming to Astoria in 1872. He had been a resident here ever since, engaging in his business until a few years ago, when he retired. Mr. Bergman was married in Portland in 1862 to Miss Ida Hyman, who survives him. He left no children, but two brothers, Joseph Bergman of Portland and Abraham Bergman of San Francisco, survive him. One sister lives in Germany.

He was a member of the local lodges of the Elks, Knights of Pythias and Eagles and was also a member of the chamber of commerce and the city water commission. The body will be warded to Portland this evening for interment tomorrow in Beth Israel cemetery. The funeral services will be conducted by Rabbi Jonah Wise.

BURGLARS OPERATE IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Burglars entered the home of E. Miller, 882 First street, yesterday after-noon and stole a pair of diamond earrings and other small pieces of jewelry. When a search was made of the premises to determine the loss, a quantity of silverware was found wrapped in a towel on the porch, Suit to Annul Marriage.

Edward Clarke was not of age when he was married June 27, 1910, at Van-Wash., and his father started

GOLDEN DRIFT DAM

Been Replaced by Reinforced Concrete.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Grants Pass, Or., June 15.—Nearly 500 Grants Pass citizens are today inspecting the Golden Drift dam in the Rogue river, three miles above Grants Pass. All parts of the dam washed out during the winter of 1909 have been replaced with reinforced concrete work of a very substantial char-

The stockholders in the Josephine Irrigation and Power company are voting this afternoon on the proposition to sail to the Chicago Rogus River Irrigation company all ditches and equipments owned by the former company, and the proposition seems quite likely to carry.

Water will be turned into the high line on the north side of the river this afternoon and every one seems much pleased with the outlook.

"LINIMENT" EXPLODES: DRUG CLERK INJURED

(United Press Leased Wire.) Middleton, Conn., June 15.—Compounding a prescription for an alleged liniment in accordance with the request of unknown man, Harold Parmalee, clerk in a local drug store, mixed quick-silver and nitric acid and the terrific the loss of his eyesight, besides terribly mangling his body.

The man who asked for the mixture fled and has not been found. Parmalee was removed to a hospital suffering fearful agony and physicians today express the fear that he will never re-

SENATOR KNUTE NELSON CRITICISES PRESIDEN

(United Press Leased Wire.) Washington, June 15.—Senator Knute Nelson (Republican, Minnesota), in the senate today sharply criticised President Taft's reciprocity course as "utterly destructive of the independence of the legislative branch of the government and also as "novel and dangerous." "The constitution authorizes the president to make treaties by the advice of the senate, provided two-thirds of the senators concur." he said. "In this case he seeks to ratify by a majority of the senate supplemented by a majority in the house. He thus evades the treaty making power of the constitution. It seems to me he is depriving the farmers of a constitutional protection. The agreement would not be ratified if submitted to us pursuant to the spirit of the constitution."

HILLS' MURDERER SUSPECT

(Continued From Page One.)

Ardenwald, are the same. Deputy Sheriff Phillips, Deputy Sherhurried out to the Dysie place early In reply you wrote me that dirty let this morning and spent the day scouring ter in which you told me to go clear the woods into which the man fled and place and neighboring farms. These woods are about a mile long. and not more than a quarter of a mile wide, but are extremely thick and cover of the railroad.

When Obrist told Dysle of the attack this morning Dysle telephoned the sherto the Dysle place within half an hour but were unable to find anything of Obrist's assailant. They heard dogs barking loudly at a farm the other side of the Johnson creek bottoms, however, and it is supposed the man ran in that direction.

Peers Into Houses.

ing on Obrist is unexplained unless he hoped to reach Mrs. Dysle: Each time that he has shown himself around the Dysle house the suspect has tried to peer inside. He apparently follows the cows up from the pasture when they are driven in to be milked. Dysle formerly had his milking done at midnight but a few nights ago changed to a later hour in the morning. The man changed his time of appearing about the house at the same time, evidently expecting to find Dysle and his assistant away.

Others living around Ardenwald have also seen the man prowling about before daybreak. While the searchers through the woods this morning failed to find him they did find two places where someone had been sleeping. In one a gunnysack had been placed in a thicket, near the heart of the woods, and used as a bed. In the other copies of a last Sunday's newspaper had been spread out, also for a bed. Meighborhood Excited.

The neighborhood around Ardenwald is intensely excited over the latest appearances of the man and in several cases families have deserted their homes to stay with friends until the suspected murderer is caught. A dozen or more detectives from private agencies, and members of the police force have working in the neighborhood all day. attracted by the size of the reward offered for the capture of the man through the Journal.

Tonight Sheriff Stevens will statted leputies at all the farms in the neighborhood where the man has been see recently, hoping to capture him if he eaves the woods on another night expedition.

Two cases possibly having some connection with the Hill murders, were good to her when he most needs it. brought to the attention of the police today. One was a report from Rainier in this world, as the iron constitution of the murderer of Barbara Holtzman had been arrested there. Detective Thomas Coleman was sent to investi-

Mrs. W. Bryson, living at 4849 East Sixty-third street, Mt. Scott, told the police that the daughter of Mrs. J. K. Turner of No. 6748 Fifty-fourth ave-nue, Mt. Scott, who is eight years old, and the 7-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. O. Kenchin of 6718 Fifty-third avenue, had been approached and insulted by a man citement of the Hill murders.

MADERO IS CALLED ASSESSMENT 'MODERN CAESAR' RAISING FU

All Washed Out Parts Have Former Member of Diaz' Cabinet Writes Scathing Criticism of Rebel Leader.

> Mexico City, June 15.—Referring to Francisco I. Madero, Jr., as a "modern Caegar," an article by Jorge Vera Estanol, a former member of the Diam cabinet, published here today, has caused a tremendous sensation. Estanol charges Madero with despotism, favor itism, militarism, illegal procedure, in-difference to the national welfare, inubordination and protecting anarchy. He suggests the formation of a new > political party, which may complicate the coming election. A new uprising is fomenting in the state of Tobasco, headed by former Governor Valenguela, according to reports

MRS. LOVE REITERATES

(Continued From Page One.) night, "making so much noise I could

Visited Mospital Sleepily. Shortly afterward, when she aken to the Roosevelt hospital in New York, for an operation for the removal of her appendix, the wife testified that he came to see her every day, corrobo-rating Love's statement, "but," she add-times laid down and slept while he was She also acknowledged that he was very kind and good to her after her reed, "he never stayed long, and often-turn from the hospital. She dwelt at some length on the de-tails of his failure in business, saying that after the crash came, he had asked explosion that followed may result in her to lend him some money, and that she had done so, to the extent of $7000 and later had given him a check for $3000. About this time, she testified, the baby was born, and her mother suggested the trip to England. Her mother she said, came to her room and they talked the plans over and Mrs. Burnes called to Sidney, who was in the next room, to ask him if he and Marjorie would not go to England with her and live as her guests. "He agreed," she added, "and with tears in his eyes thanked my mother for her kindness and showed in every way that he was deeply affected by her

Has Quit Cigarettes, She Says. On cross-examination, which was started by Attorney Rand shortly before noon, she asserted she had given up smoking cigarettes and had not smoked since she left New York. She said she did not think it nice of Mr. Rand to ask her if she had smoked today, after testifying that she denied that Love had not known of her smoking until after their marriage, saying he had encouraged it during their engagement.

A letter written by Love to his wife at Christmas after he had left England was read in court by the plaintiff under strenuous objections by Tuska, yesterday afternoon. "Are you reading this so it will get in the newspapers or for the court?" he asked. "For the court," answered Love. The letter fol-

"Go Clear Your Name," She Wrote. "This is my Christmas greeting to an infaithful wife and one who knows not the meaning of the words truth and gratitude. On October 1, 1989, I wrote an honorable affectionate appeal from a faithful husband to his wife. I asked you to some to me with our child in your arms and to live alone and away victims of Friday morning's murders, tance to poison your mind against me ter in which you told me to go clear my name. I well know who coined that phrase for you.

"When I was in great distress, practically penniless and in a foreign country, you deserted me, stole our child and hid her away from me, employed so-licitors to whom you told three distinct, wicked and malicious falsehoods about my character and then caused to be published to the world through every newspaper in the United States that I had been cruel to my wife and child, the iff and the police. Two policemen got wife whom I worshipped and the child whom I adored. This, I say, was the greatest wrong a wife has ever done to a husband on this earth. All of my troubles and distress were as nothing compared to this.

"In your letter you accused me having a violent temper. I would ask you to recall the night of January 8, What the man's motive was in jump- 1908, when in a violent passion, you grasped me by the throat with both hands and started to choke me. Did I turn you out of my house, close my door in your face, employ solicitors and tell them lies and publish you before the world?

May the Child Be Different.

"No, I took you in my arms and for the next 15 months nursed you and cared for you through all of your sickness and ill health I have in my possession a letter which you wrote my mother about a month before your wicked actions commenced, in which you tell her of my kindness and patience and of your own worthlessness and compare yourself with a yellow dog in value. Truly you chose the right color for the simile. A man in Chicago, and he is a man who has known you all your life, said to me before I left that he was much disappointed in you, but he was not surprised, because he knew your inheritance. Pray God it does not descend to our child.

An Offer to Porgive,

"I now have this to say to you: If you can square your conscience with Muriel Nyram, who from her seat in seaven has watched your evil treatment of me, and with that God to whom you pray every night, I am willing to forgive you for the wickedness you have done, for the bad return you have given me, for all my care and kindness to you, because you are the mother of my child but I don't envy you your future life with your past actions to haunt you continuously. The world does not admire the woman who deserts her husband when he is in trouble and distress. "It loves the woman who gives affec tion and help to the man who has been "We will doubtless never meet again that a man answering the 'description is finally broken, and broken badly, but you may always remember, if it gives Detective you any comfort, that I sent you my to investi-forgiveness for what you have done, and this on Christmas day, 1909. Suggests Return of Jowels, "One word more, and then I am When you wrote me that > love me, and telling me to go clear my name, I immediately returned to you the jewels that you had given me. If you had any sense of honor at all you would have returned mine to me. "Surely an unfaithful wife, who has been nursed and cared for by her hus-band in the most kind and tender way dreadful letter saying that you did not

Commission Appointed to Investigate Idea of Connecting Tualatin Valley With City Meets.

The West Side Tunnel and Transit company, recently appointed by Mayor Simon, in accordance with the provisions of a resolution adopted by the city council, held its first meeting this morning I. Lang, wholesale merchant and member of the city park board, was elected president and George W. Joseph member of the state senate during the last legislative session, secretary. Other meni-bers of the commission present were Henry Hewitt, G. F. Johnson and H. C. Campbell. The object of the commission is investigate the feasibility of boring & tunnel through the hills to connect the west side with the Tualatin valley. The commission will later prepare a report, estimating the cost of the proposed tunnel and suggesting a plan of assessing its cost. An informal discussion held today indicates that the majority of the meny bers are in fayor of creating an assess ment district taking in the entire west side and part of Washington county. In order to carry out this plan a legisla-tive act will be necessary. Three of the five commissioners said they believe the east side should not be asked to pay any postion of the cost. However, it is too early to predict just what recom-mendation will be finally made.

FOR EASTERNERS

Commercial Club Offers Rose Festival Feature for Minneapolis Parade.

Upon suggestion of G. F. Johnson, chairman of the promotion committee of the Commercial club, Portland has offered the use of all the Rose Festival electrical floats for the Minneapolis Great Civio-Celebration. This will give Minneapolis a beautitful section for a complete parade and one of the big features of the Rose Festival,

The offer was made by C. C. Chap-man, manager of the Portland Commer-cial club, to J. C. Chapman, vice presi-dent of the Northwestern National bank of Minneapolis. J. C. Chapman was a visitor at the recent Rose Festival and was greatly impressed with the electrical parade, declaring it to be the finest he had ever seen. "I think it would be an excellent plan to send these floats east." said Mr.

Johnson. "It will make our Rose Fes-tival better known and will give easterners who could not attend our festival opportunity to learn how gorgeous spectacle is presented here each year. It will give them a desire to come here

"The display of festival floats in Minneapolis will be excellent exploitation for the resources of Oregon. Morethis parade is such a splendid spectacle that it should be given as wide a showing as possible for the pleasure spectators will derive from it."

over a period of a year and a half, then deserts him when he is in distress and then accuses him in such a wicked way before the world of having been cruel to her and their child, surely I say such a woman cannot possibly want to keep anything near her which has ever been his or which could ever serve to remind her of him. I presume by now you realize this and if you do, you can send to my mother's house in Chicago, 53 Elm street. I wonder what Muriel Nyram thinks of you on this Christmas day. You accepted an inheritance as a trust from her and you have been unfaithful to one and false to the other. I don't envy you when you finally stand before her to be judged and to give an account of your trusteeship." GOVERNMENT OFFICERS ADMIT FERRIS NAMED

(United Press Lessed Wire.)
Los Angeles, Cal., June 15.—Attaches of United States District Attorney Mc-Cormick's office this afternoon admitted that Dick Ferris was one of the men indicted by the federal grand judy Wednesday morning following their probe into the affairs of the Mexican lileral junta here which resulted in the arrest of Magon, Figueros and Rivers. Beyond this verification of the indictment the United States officials were loath to discuss the case. It was admitted, however, that an arrest would be made some time today in San Fran-cisco in connection with the same case. Who the individual sought was they would not divulge.

MRS. GADSBY DENIED DECREE OF DIVORCE

Judge Gatens of the circuit court last evening delivered a lecture to Walter Gadsby and his wife at the close of her suit for a divorce. The decree was denied. He ordered that the allmony of $75 a month should not be paid Mrs

Gadsby. "The trouble here is too much moth er-in-law." said the judge. "If these young people would have had to hustle a little and rub up against the world, they would have appreciated their home and possibly have gotten along better. They never knew what it was to want. It was also a case of too much

ONE THOUSAND CORDS OF WOOD DESTROYED BY FIRE AT BEAVERTON

After 24 hours of continuous fire fighting by more than 80 men, a blaze near Reaverton which destroyed 1000 cords of wood, valued at $2250, was subdued at noon yesterday. The wood was owned by J. N. Archbold of 668 Ravenswood Drive, who says that it caught fire from sparks from the Oregon Fuel company's mill. About 300 acres of land were burned over.