IN SOCIETY

A large coterie of the younger set gathered at the home of Mrs. Theodore E. Wilcox yesterday to enjoy an afternoon with Miss Edith Coburn Noyes, who gave an inspiring talk on "Womanhood" and read several charming selections. Mrs. Holt C. Wilson, Mrs. Thomas Kerr and Mrs. J. C. Alsworth assisted Mrs. Wilcox in the dining room.

Mrs. Guy W. Talbot has asked a number of friends to come in informally to meet Reginald Harrison and see some of his miniature work. Mr. Harrison will be a guest in Portland for the summer.

The season at the Portland Heights club came to a brilliant close Wednesday evening, when the final dance was held. Refreshments were served on the veranda, which, as well as the grounds, were lit with many Japanese lanterns. Caroline Testout rose and gave a performance of the main ballroom into a bow of beautiful blossoms. Rosebrook's orchestra furnished the music. Downstairs six tables of bridge were arranged for those who did not care for dancing. The business for the evening were the social committee, Mrs. A. D. Charlton, Mrs. Jay Smith, Mrs. Fred Page, Mrs. Dan Malarkey and Mrs. A. C. Panton.

An event eagerly looked forward to is the all fresco production of Elektra to be given next Friday evening at Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Rockey's beautiful suburban home up the river by Raymond Duncan and his company of Greek players.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Gifford Nash are leaving tomorrow for their summer camp on the Blue river. It is from this point that Mr. Nash will conduct his Cascade touring parties.

They will remain until the first of July when they will go to Moose Head lake for the remainder of the summer. They are planning an European trip to begin in April. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Cole, of New York, Mrs. Pelgram's parents, who came from Seattle for the Rose Festival, will return to the same city the first of July to go to Alaska, returning to Portland about the first of August.

Mrs. W. H. Patterson and Miss Vera Patterson entertained with a large and attractive affair yesterday. The porch presented a pretty picture with its drapings of flags and floral decorations of red and white roses. Punch was served there by Miss Florence Davis and Miss Charlie Fenton. Caroline Testout roses were used all over the rooms in great clusters and bunches. In the dining room Mrs. E. S. Pagan, Mrs. R. E. Schloth, Mrs. I. Vanduyne and Mrs. Otto Rothchild presided. They were assisted by Miss Henriette Rothchild, Miss Leonie Fleury, Miss Evelyn Bridgett, of San Francisco, who is spending the summer with the Pattersons; Miss Frances Lackass, of Vancouver, Wash.; Miss Laura Korell, Miss Mildred Whittlesey, Miss Marguerite Getz and Mrs. Les Barnes, of Ellensburg, Wash.; Little Miss Ada Otten took the cards at the door. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Morgan and their daughters, the Misses Mildred and Lilian Morgan, have been enjoying to the full their motor tour through the eastern states. En route to Portland, where they will arrive Sunday, the Morgans have had a short visit in Chicago with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Sova. Her husband and their daughter will accompany her. —Copyright by Harper Pennington.

Freckles

Don't Worry About Them. You Needn't Keep Them. Get This Simple Remedy—It's Guaranteed.

Freckles, like facts, are stubborn things, but unlike facts, are easily removed. The more stubborn your freckles the more promptly should you get a package of Kintho. Get it at Woodard, Clarke & Co., or wherever toilet goods are sold. If Kintho fails, get your money back. It's so simple and sure you'll almost think it's magical. "Use Kintho Soap, too. It will not only help give the freckles a push, but it is delightful for toilet use."

Our Cave Women—Where Are They?

By Darra Mora. THEY say that woman is an orchid thriving principally on air—the hot air that men hand to her. They contend that history has repeated itself and women are back in the cave dwelling age. They egg their sisters on to despise the appellation "a womanly woman" as a term indicative of imbecility. They urge the women to revolve from scrubbing the kitchen floor, hanging to the street car straps and pushing the baby carriage.

Maybe Susanna Conners was once a cave woman, and some sister with the teachings of the new thought pounding in her veins, undertook to reclaim her from her old fashioned ways. Susanna was told that she had a right to this and a right to that, and that in order to get the best of the genus homo, she must demand contracts and pay in advance in all dealings, that she must put a commercial value upon all services, public or private. And Susanna grew up into a comely young woman with an air of resolution and independence about her. When Ansel Conner sought her hand in marriage, Susanna looked him straight in the eye and said: "If I agree to live with you as your wife, I must have a contract." Ansel, being of an unsuspecting nature, and overly fond of the girl, asented. They hunted up an attorney and Susanna was insured against a bad investment. Her contract read: "If the parties hereto find that married life is not endurable and that separation, either legal or otherwise, is desirable, then Susanna Conner shall have $750 for each year she lives with the defendant and her rightful share of all the estate that may come to this couple."

The contract is now on file in the superior court at Chickasha, Okla. Conner stands the strain. Money, contract, rights and privileges were the bones of contention. Every cent spent by Conner led to a remonstrance from Susanna, for, every cent disparted by Conner was subtracted from her husband's wealth. Every cent subtracted meant just that much less for her when the glad day of settlement dawned. Conner endured the wifely tantrums and denunciations for five months and two weeks. Then, he returned to his mother. Susanna smiled broadly, patting herself on the back, and doubtless, started on a still hunt for another victim.

If you'll ask Mr. Conner, no doubt he will tell you that there are no cave women—but that the women of today are devil fish.

PREACHER RECOMMENDS BIBLE FOR LOVESICK

(United Press Leased Wire.) Chicago, June 15.—The Bible as a guide for young women in love is recommended as better than the "advice" columns in the newspapers by Rev. Olin Mason Caward. Read Proverbs, he says.

Berries Lure Rockefeller.

Leaves Estate to Home.

Washington, June 15.—Carrie Nation's will filed here leaves her $10,000 estate principally to the Carrie Nation home for the wives and widows of drunkards. The establishment is in Kansas City.

BERNHARDT GATHERS MILLION ON HER TOUR

(United Press Leased Wire.) New York, June 15.—That Madame Sarah Bernhardt is still a divinity so far as the box office is concerned was attested by the fact that the gross receipts of her American tour are estimated at approximately $1,000,000. Her tour ends June 21. The Players' club has planned a big reception for her on the eve of her sailing for France. The tour when completed will have covered 25,000 miles, 163 American cities and 285 performances in 235 days.

ENDEAVORER SUGGESTS "DENATURED DANCING"

Meter, superintendent of evangelical work for the Chicago Christian Endeavor union.

SHE HAD CONSTANT PAIN

Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dewittville, N. Y. — "Before I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered nearly all the time with headaches, backaches, and bearing down pains, and had a continuous pain in my left side. It made me sick if I tried to walk much, and my back was so weak that I was obliged to wear corsets all the time. But now I do not have any of these troubles. I have a fine strong baby daughter now, which I did not have before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound." — Mrs. A. A. GILES, Route 44, Dewittville, N. Y.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.
