

INVENTOR MERRILL IS FAST TRAVELER

Sad Chauffeurs Take Him Long Distances, Then Find Car Suddenly Empty.

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., June 15.—Police and sheriff's deputies are today searching for Floyd Merrill, a 17 year old inventor, who after issuing alleged bad check, trying to elope with his 16 year old sweetheart and breaking jail on two occasions, is still at large and worrying the automobile renters to distraction.

Wednesday, after his escape from jail with Archie Jamison, a 16 year old offender, he went to the Montana stables and sat around until he was told to leave. Then he and Jamison visited friends in the north portion of the city, and from there called up a chauffeur and ordered an automobile for two young men, who desired to be conveyed to Marysville. An automobile was sent to the address, the boys got in on a specious statement of future payment and were taken to Everett and Marysville. Yesterday morning the party came back to Seattle on the return journey and at Ballard the chauffeur missed his passengers from the car, reporting to his employers that he had been grossly deceived.

Later in the morning a chauffeur was called to an address in the north part of the city by phone and again the juvenile jokers were loaded into an automobile on the promise of future payment and started for Bellingham. About 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon the chauffeur telephoned down from Everett that he had just lost his passengers somewhere on the road.

Officers at Everett and elsewhere north of the city have been warned to keep a lookout for the boys, and in the interests of overworked chauffeurs they hope to apprehend them before more damage is done.

Young Merrill is the inventor of a railroad track signal, to warn approaching trains of danger ahead. It was claimed that he had been offered $40,000 for the contrivance.

LARGE JOSEPHINE WATER DEAL A GO

Present Stockholders Vote to Sell to Chicago Rogue River Company.

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.)
Grants Pass, Or., June 15.—Not one dissenting vote was cast out of 24,104 shares of stock represented in the stockholders' meeting of the Josephine county Irrigation & Power company, held in the Commercial club rooms yesterday afternoon to ratify the agreement made recently by the directors of this company for the sale of their ditches, equipment and interest to the Chicago-Rogue River Irrigation company. The Chicago-Rogue River company guarantees to Grants Pass water to all land tributary to Grants Pass where it is possible to get water. Two high line ditches are to be installed before May 15, 1912, that will carry water over the entire Rogue river valley and as far south as the Applegate river valley.

REALTY BOARD WILL BE GUEST AT OUTING

Members of the Portland realty board will be the guests of Chapin & Herlow at Glenmorrie tomorrow afternoon.

Automobiles will leave the Fourth street entrance to the chamber of commerce at 3 o'clock.

"Bring your own automobile, if you have one, but come anyway and room will be made for you in some other machine," says the invitation. Glenmorrie is a picturesque spot overlooking the Willamette river south of the city.

J. O. Rountree will be chief mizologist. I. G. Davidson will hand out the smokes and George Schalk and V. Vincent Jones will dole out the lemons. J. Fred Larson will be grand marshal of the automobile parade and will be assisted by O. K. Jeffery and Ed Mall. Machines will report to the grand marshal or his assistants not later than 1:45 o'clock for a place in line.

GIRL WORKS NINE HOURS; EMPLOYER PROSECUTED

(United Press Leased Wire.)
Seattle, Wash., June 15.—The first case to be prosecuted here under the new law that prohibits the employment of any woman more than eight hours a day follows the filing of an information today charging Mrs. Henrietta Somerville with violating the law. It is alleged that she caused a girl in the Washington Paper Box company factory to work nine hours one day after the new law went into effect.

Disfigures Her Rival

Chicago, June 15.—After accusing her of alienating the affections of her husband, Mrs. Eleanor Moreholts, according to the police, lured Mrs. Drumselaw Dulek, a pretty young widow, to her front door and dashed a bottle of vitriol in her face. Physicians today said that if Mrs. Dulek recovers she will be badly disfigured. Mrs. Moreholts was arrested.

PLUMMER NAMED CITY'S INSPECTOR

Appointed Building Inspector by Simon; Stood Highest in Civil Service Test.

H. E. Plummer was yesterday afternoon appointed permanently to the position of city building inspector by Mayor Simon. Mr. Plummer has been acting in that capacity for the past year, but since the new building code became effective January 1, he has been appointed from month to month temporarily, as there were no eligibles on the civil service list. The civil service commission lately held an examination for applicants for the position, however, and Mr. Plummer received the highest mark. Only one other applicant, George Rae, passed the examination.

If Mr. Plummer should not be agreeable to the new administration, which takes control July 1, he can be removed by the incoming mayor, A. G. Rushlight, at any time within the next six months, without cause.

GRAND OFFICERS OF O. E. S. INSTALLED

The grand chapter of Oregon, Order of Eastern Star, brought a three days' session to a close yesterday afternoon with installation of the newly elected officers:

Mrs. A. Antoinette Stiles was the installing officer. Following are the officers installed: Mrs. Pauline Moore Riley, W. G. M.; Clyde Evans, W. G. P.; James E. Godfrey, W. G. P.; Miss Nellie McKinley, grand secretary; Mrs. Mary M. Reischer, grand conductress; Mrs. Nellie McGowan, associate grand conductress; Mrs. Margaret E. Kellogg, grand lecturer; Mrs. Nellie Baldwin, grand chaplain; Mrs. Dora B. Schilke, grand marshal; Mrs. Verona Nelson, grand organist; Mrs. Maud West, grand Adah; Miss Katherine Freeman, grand Ruth; Mrs. Mary E. Houck, grand Esther; Mrs. Belle Roe, grand Martha; Mrs. Ella I. Evans, grand Electa; Mrs. Alice C. Gibbs, grand warden; T. M. Burburt, grand sentinel.

The delegates are leaving for their homes in various parts of the state, after having closed what they believe the most successful convention ever held. This was the twenty-second annual session.

BALDWIN MADE GRAND MASTER OF MASONS

T. M. Baldwin of Prineville was yesterday afternoon chosen by the grand lodge of Masons to succeed United States Judge Wolverton as grand master. Other officers elected were: Associate Justice George H. Burnett, deputy grand master, Salem; S. S. Spencer, senior grand warden, Eugene; W. C. Bristol, junior grand warden, Portland; Judge W. A. Cleland, grand treasurer, Portland; James F. Robinson, grand secretary, Portland. The appointive officers will be named by the new grand master.

The new constitution was adopted yesterday afternoon section by section. There were more than 250 delegates present. The newly elected officers are being installed this afternoon by Returning Grand Master Wolverton.

AUTO RACES SHOWN IN MOVING PICTURES

The world's greatest automobile drivers in the International 500-mile sweep-stake race are seen in motion pictures at the Star theatre.

This is the most sensational race ever pulled off in the automobile world, and the pictures are complete in every detail. The famous drivers are shown at close view with their machines. The pictures also show the speeding automobiles, as well as the fatal accident in which one driver was killed in front of the grandstand.
